Revised November 16, 2022

Article I. THE NAME

The name of this body is "The Tennessee Baptist Convention," hereinafter "the Convention."

Article II. COMPOSITION

The meetings of the Convention shall be composed of messengers who are members of cooperating Baptist churches. Cooperating Baptist churches are those that (a) subscribe to and support the principles, programs, and policies of the Convention; and (b) in the fiscal year immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Convention, contribute financially (1) through the Cooperative Program, or (2) through the Tennessee Baptist Convention portion of the Cooperative Program without restriction or designation. Each cooperating Baptist church shall be entitled to two messengers. Each cooperating Baptist church shall also be entitled to one messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof beyond the first one hundred, subject to a maximum of ten messengers from any one church. A messenger shall be a member of the church by which he or she is elected.

Article III. PURPOSE

The mission of the Convention is to fulfill the Great Commission by assisting, encouraging, and strengthening affiliated churches to reach the evangelistic, educational, missionary, benevolent, and other ministry goals in a cooperative relationship with the Southern Baptist Convention.

Article IV. LIMITATION

The Convention shall have no ecclesiastical jurisdiction over the churches or associations cooperating with and contributing to the objects of the Convention; nor shall it act as advisory counsel in case of differences between the churches or associations; nor shall it interfere with the constitution of any church or association.

Article V. MEETINGS

The Convention shall meet annually, unless providentially hindered, for the purposes of corporate worship, conducting the business of the Convention, electing leadership for Convention ministries and other purposes. Special meetings of the Convention may occur when properly called as described in Bylaw I.

Article VI. OFFICERS

The officers of the Convention shall be a president, a vice president, a second vice president, and a treasurer.

CONVENTION DOCUMENTS

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Article VII. TENNESSEE BAPTIST MISSION BOARD (TBMB)

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, a nonprofit religious public benefit corporation, shall have charge of all the educational, missionary, benevolent, and other interests of the Convention. During the interim between meetings of the Convention, TBMB shall have all the powers of the Convention except as limited by this constitution, the bylaws of the Convention, and specific action taken by the Convention in session.

Article VIII. BYLAWS

The Convention may adopt such bylaws, not in conflict with this constitution, as it deems advisable, provided that any proposed amendment shall be processed in accordance with provisions contained in Bylaw IX.

Article IX. AMENDMENTS

A. This constitution, except Article IV which remains forever intact, may be amended at any annual meeting of the Convention by a vote of two thirds of the messengers present and voting provided:
   1. that any proposed amendment not originating with the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws shall have been submitted in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws by a member of a cooperating Baptist church at least sixty days prior to the annual meeting at which it is to be presented. The sixty-day notification requirement may be waived by an eighty percent vote of the messengers, present and voting;
   2. that any such proposed amendment, and any proposed amendment originating with the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws, shall be published by the committee in the Baptist & Reflector at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting at which it is to be presented, and such proposed amendment shall also be printed in the Book of Reports for that annual meeting, but the proposed amendment must be offered as a motion at the annual meeting by a messenger or the committee on the first session of the annual meeting;
   3. that any such amendment must be considered for vote no earlier than the second session of the annual meeting;
   4. that any amendment shall be approved by the messengers to the annual meeting at which it is presented and by the messengers at the next annual meeting.

B. The Committee on Constitution and Bylaws may communicate with anyone submitting an amendment, suggesting ways to improve the language before it is published. The committee may make recommendations to the messengers concerning amendments proposed by messengers.

The Tennessee Baptist Convention Bylaws

Bylaw I. CONVENTION MEETINGS

A. Messengers to the annual meeting of the Convention shall determine the time and place of future annual meetings.

B. The officers of the Convention, the directors of TBMB, and the members of the Committee on Arrangements acting as a body may, in case of grave emergency, cancel or change the place and time of an annual meeting of the Convention. In the event the annual meeting is cancelled, TBMB shall have the power and authority to act on behalf of the Convention on any and all matters which could have been acted upon by the messengers constituting the Convention, with the exception of amending the Constitution and Bylaws or electing Convention officers and TBMB directors.

C. Special meetings of the Convention may be called at any time by action of TBMB; or by the president of the Convention with the concurrence in writing of not less than fifteen percent of the cooperating Baptist churches as shown by the last annual report, at least three percent of which shall be located in each grand region of the state, as defined by TBMB. The call for any special meeting shall state the business to come before the Convention and only such business shall be acted upon. Notice of any special meetings shall be given at least thirty days prior thereto by publication in the Baptist & Reflector and in such other ways as TBMB may direct.

D. Special meetings of the Convention shall follow the same procedure and standing rules of the annual meetings as described in Bylaw III, with the exception of any rule requiring a presentation or vote during a certain session, preceding another presentation or vote, or subsequent to another presentation or vote.

A. Election

1. Officers shall be resident members of cooperating Baptist churches.
2. The officers with the exception of the treasurer shall be elected annually and shall take office immediately preceding adjournment of the annual meeting at which elected and shall hold office until immediately preceding the adjournment of the next annual meeting and the officer's successor is elected.

2. The vice president and the second vice president shall discharge such duties of the president as requested by the president. In case of death, incapacity, resignation, or other cause making necessary the retirement of the president, the vice presidents shall succeed in order. TBMB shall determine when an office is vacant due to the incapacity of an incumbent to serve.
3. The president and executive director of TBMB shall be the treasurer of the Convention. The treasurer shall discharge such customary duties and functions as may be assigned to the position by the Convention or its president. In addition, the treasurer is charged with the following specific responsibilities:
   a. ensuring arrangements for the efficient and accurate registration of messengers attending the annual meeting;
   b. ensuring that accurate records of the proceedings of the annual meeting are collected, maintained, and published for use into perpetuity; and,
   c. ensuring that statistical records of cooperating Baptist churches are collected, maintained, and published for use into perpetuity.

   The treasurer may appoint individuals or staff of TBMB to carry out these specific duties. The treasurer shall serve as staff to all committees and board of directors for TBMB, and as ex officio trustee of all Convention institutions.

Bylaw III. PROCEDURE OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

A. Quorum and Agenda

1. The annual meeting shall be called to order by the president and, after prayer, the messengers to the annual meeting shall hear the preliminary report of the Committee on Credentials as to the number of messengers present. A quorum shall consist of messengers from no fewer than fifty-four of the cooperating Baptist churches as shown by the report of the preceding Convention year, at least seventeen of which shall be located in each grand region of the state.
2. If a quorum is present, the messengers to the annual meeting shall then hear and act upon the report of the Committee on Arrangements and shall thereafter proceed in accordance with such agenda as adopted consistent with the constitution and these bylaws. If a quorum is not present, the annual meeting shall be suspended until a quorum is reached.

B. Parliamentary Authority

1. Parliamentary procedure shall be in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition) where these bylaws do not provide a defined procedure.
2. Standing Rules
   a. All messengers who participate in the business sessions of the annual meeting shall conduct themselves in keeping with the stated purposes in the constitution of the Convention.
   b. In order to obtain the floor, each messenger shall approach a microphone and, when acknowledged by the presiding officer, shall address the presiding officer, give his or her name and church, and state the general nature of his or her reason for wishing to be recognized – (For example, stating whether he or she wishes to speak for or against the pending item, asking a question, raising procedural issues, or introducing an item of business). The messenger shall then wait to be recognized by the presiding officer.

c. All motions and resolutions shall be submitted to the recording secretary in writing and shall include the name, address, church, contact phone number during the annual meeting, and legible signature of the messenger making the motion. The messenger may appear before the committee to which the motion is referred to provide supplemental information and shall be available as deemed necessary by the committee.

d. The presiding officer shall recognize messengers wishing to speak to each side of the question alternately.

e. Discussion, debate, and nominating speeches shall be limited to three minutes for each speaker.

f. No messenger shall speak more than once on the same question until all have spoken who wish to do so.

g. All motions duly made and seconded which are unrelated to business scheduled under the agenda shall be referred to the Committee on Arrangements to be scheduled for consideration no earlier than the second session of the annual meeting unless otherwise required by the bylaws. All such motions shall be brought back to the body for consideration. Motions introduced during the final session of the annual meeting which are unrelated to business under the agenda shall be considered only if the messengers give their consent by an eighty percent affirmative vote taken without debate.

C. Appeal Decision of Chair

Any decision of the Chair may be appealed to the messengers and changed, reversed, or modified by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present and voting.

D. Votes by Ballot

1. All votes on major policies and the creating or discontinuing of relationships with Convention institutions shall be taken by secret ballot.
2. Only ballots provided by registration containing the ballot number to be cast, as announced by the Committee on Credentials, and that contain a discernable preference shall be included in the total count of votes cast on any issue or election. All other ballots cast will be set aside and not included in the total.
3. Vote totals shall be revealed by the presiding officer upon request of the messengers.
4. Replacement ballots will not be issued.

E. Meeting Resource

Ministry leaders of all Convention and TBMB ministries shall be authorized to serve as resource persons for discussion of those matters which affect their areas of ministry responsibility.

F. Resolutions

1. Resolutions are written statements of opinion, encouragement, or call to action that may be considered by messengers to the annual meeting. The statements are non-binding on messengers and cooperating Baptist churches. They are considered to be the opinion of a majority of the messengers participating in the annual meeting at the time the resolution is considered.

2. All resolutions presented to the messengers should contribute to the mission and vision of the Convention, promote Kingdom principles or activities, or encourage cooperating Baptist churches in Great Commission work.
3. Members of cooperating Baptist churches may submit proposed resolutions to the Committee on Resolutions at least fifteen days prior to the annual meeting. Submitted resolutions must indicate the submitter's name and the church of which he or she is a member. For a resolution to be considered, a messenger must present the submitted resolution or a proposed resolution which was not submitted in advance during the first session of the annual meeting. When presenting a resolution, the messenger shall only state the messenger's name, the name of the messenger's church, and the title of the resolution. The messenger shall then provide the recording secretary the full resolution in writing.
4. The Committee on Resolutions is permitted to present a resolution directly from the committee without its having been proposed on the floor of the annual meeting.
5. The Committee on Resolutions shall consider every resolution presented at the annual meeting. The committee's task shall be to recommend the adoption of resolutions by the messengers which are in conformity with paragraph 2 herein, after considering the totality of the resolutions presented and the resolutions prepared at the initiative of the committee.
6. Only resolutions recommended by the Committee on Resolutions for adoption shall be considered by the messengers, unless a messenger who presented a resolution on a subject which was not addressed in a resolution recommended to the messengers for adoption makes a motion at the time of the committee's report to have his or her resolution considered by the messengers and the motion is seconded and the messengers adopt the motion by a two-thirds vote of the messengers voting.

G. Motions to Amend Committee on Boards' and Committee on Committees' Reports

1. Motions to amend a Committee on Boards' report or Committee on Committees' report may be accomplished by doing the following:
   a. Members of cooperating Baptist churches wishing to amend the Committee on Boards' report or Committee on Committees' report, as published by those committees in accordance with Bylaws IV. L. 3. g. and IV. L. 4. e. respectively, are requested, as an act of courtesy, to notify the committee at least fifteen days prior to the first day of the annual meeting. This will allow the committee to properly consider the request to amend, have time to notify the affected Convention institution and nominee, and distribute its report with any changes on the first session of the annual meeting.
   b. The reports of the Committee on Boards and of the Committee on Committees shall be presented for consideration on the first session of the annual meeting.
   c. A messenger seeking to amend a committee's report must make a motion to amend during the time at which the report is presented. A motion to amend may address only one person at a time for consideration.
2. Once the committee's report has been adopted by the messengers, with any amendments, it shall constitute election by the Convention.

Bylaw IV. STANDING COMMITTEES

A. Identification

The following shall be the standing committees of the Convention:

1. Committee on Arrangements
2. Committee on Audits
3. Committee on Boards
4. Committee on Committees
5. Committee on Constitution and Bylaws
6. Committee on Credentials
7. Committee on Resolutions
8. Historical Committee

B. Nominations

1. The Committee on Committees shall nominate persons for election to membership on all standing committees except the Committee on Committees within the parameters of Bylaw IV.
2. The Committee on Committees shall nominate a temporary chair of any new standing committee to serve until the committee elects a chair.
3. The Committee on Boards shall nominate persons for election to membership on the Committee on Committees.
4. Nominations will be made to the messengers in the form of a report during the annual meeting.
5. Once the committee's report has been adopted by the messengers, with any amendments, it shall constitute election by the Convention.

C. Composition

1. Each of the standing committees shall be composed of fifteen positions plus the Convention's president.
2. Members of standing committees shall be resident members of cooperating Baptist churches, located in the respective grand region of their position.

D. Distribution Between Grand Regions in the State

One third of the positions on each standing committee should be occupied by members from each of the three grand regions.

E. Election and Term of Service

1. The Convention shall elect members to standing committees at the annual meeting of the Convention for terms of three years.
2. The term of a member of a standing committee shall begin upon the adjournment of the annual meeting in which the member is elected, and shall end upon the adjournment of the annual meeting three years following and the member's successor is elected.
3. The goal shall be to divide the positions into three groups of five each so that the terms of one third of the committee expire each year.

F. Succession

1. A member of a standing committee may serve one full term and shall not be eligible for election to any standing committee, as trustee of a Convention institution, or as director of TBMB until having been out of such position one Convention year.
2. A member serving on either the Committee on Committees or the Committee on Boards shall not be eligible for election to either the Committee on Committees or the Committee on Boards until having been out of that position four Convention years.
3. A member of a standing committee who has completed an unexpired term is eligible to be nominated for election and serve a full term without a waiting period.

G. Change of Residence

Any member of a standing committee who changes residence from the grand region of the state in which such member resided at the time of election may continue to serve through the remainder of his or her term. The position will remain with the grand region from which the committee member was originally elected.

H. Disqualification

1. Members of standing committees may not be regular employees of TBMB or of a Convention institution supported with Cooperative Program funds.
2. An individual may not serve simultaneously on more than one Convention standing committee, as a trustee of a Convention institution receiving Cooperative Program funds, or as a director of TBMB. This restriction shall not limit service on special committees.
3. No person shall be eligible for election to membership on a standing committee if such election would result in more than one member of the same church serving as members on the same committee at the same time.

I. Removal

1. The Convention may, by a two-thirds vote of the messengers, remove a member of a standing committee without cause and elect a successor to fill the unexpired term.
2. Messengers to the annual or called meeting may not, by a single vote, declare the position of more than one committee member vacant.

J. Vacancies

Vacancies occurring on a standing committee between meetings of the Convention caused by death, resignation, moving from the state, or for reasons of a similar nature, may be filled by TBMB upon the recommendation of the Committee on Committees.

K. Committee Officers

1. Each committee is authorized to elect its own officers and will, at its last meeting before the annual meeting, elect a chair for the next year. Such chair, or temporary chair of new standing committees, in consultation with the president and executive director of TBMB, shall call a meeting of the committee at the earliest practical date.
2. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the chair or any other committee office after the organizational meeting, the committee is authorized to elect a replacement from its membership.

L. Duties

1. Committee on Arrangements

a. Prepare the order of business (agenda) for and serve as the Committee on Order of Business during the annual meeting and any called meetings of the Convention.
b. Arrange for the speakers, music leadership, musical guests, and special events on the agenda.
c. Consult with the annual meeting host pastor and committees.
d. Recommend to the messengers the preacher and alternate preacher, when the committee desires to have a Convention sermon on the agenda for the annual or called meeting.
e. Recommend to the messengers the time and place of the annual meeting approximately five years in advance.

The Tennessee Baptist Convention Business and Financial Plan

I. Overview

A. Purpose – The Business and Financial Plan ("Plan") of the Tennessee Baptist Convention ("Convention") provides guidance for, and structure to, the financial operations of the Convention, Tennessee Baptist Mission Board ("TBMB") and Convention institutions.

B. Administration – The Plan is administered by TBMB, a nonprofit religious public benefit corporation.

C. Convention Relationships Defined – The Convention gathers in annual meeting. During this meeting, among other activities, it appoints trustees to govern the operations of Convention institutions and Directors to TBMB; and it elects members of Convention Committees. Convention institutions, as defined in the Convention Bylaws, are separate corporations and voluntarily comply with the tenets of the Plan. In response, the Convention provides financial assistance through the Cooperative Program to, and elects trustees of, Convention institutions.

D. Other Documents – The Convention Constitution, Convention Bylaws, and Convention Covenants are additional documents that describe the work of the Convention. Should there ever be a conflict between the Plan and these documents, the Plan shall supersede the Covenants, but shall be subject to the Constitution and the Bylaws.

E. Amendments

1. The Plan may be amended by the Convention in any manner not in conflict with the Convention Constitution or the Convention Bylaws provided:
   a. The amendment, which must be in writing, is filed with the Convention Committee on Constitution and Bylaws at least sixty days prior to the annual meeting of the Convention at which it is to be presented.
   b. Any such amendment must be introduced to the messengers on the first session of the annual meeting.
   c. Any such amendment must be considered for vote no earlier than the second session of the annual meeting and is adopted if approved by a simple majority of the messengers, present and voting.
2. The sixty-day notification requirement may be waived by an eighty percent vote of the messengers, present and voting, at the annual meeting.

II. Cooperative Program

Cooperative Program – The Cooperative Program is the primary means through which churches assist with financing the ministries of the Southern Baptist Convention ("SBC"), TBMB, and Convention institutions.

A. In order that the Plan, mission, and ministries of the Convention may be operated successfully and efficiently, the Convention appeals to affiliated churches to give to state, national, and international missions through the Cooperative Program and to recognize the wisdom and authority of the Convention to allocate Cooperative Program funds in a satisfactory manner.

B. All Convention institutions are expected to promote the Cooperative Program as the primary means for churches and their members to fund such institutions. While Convention institutions may receive contributions directly from churches and their members, they should not encourage giving through a means other than the Cooperative Program.

III. Budget Making Process

A. Administration - TBMB shall direct the budget making process. It shall adopt a budget calendar each year as a guideline for budget preparation and review.

B. Fixed Percentage Budget
   1. The budget of the Convention shall seek to maintain consistent percentages for each line item allocation over a period of time. However, messengers to the annual meeting shall have the right to amend the budget each year through prescribed parliamentary procedures.
   2. TBMB's Budget and Ministry Committee shall consult with the President and Executive Director of TBMB, the Chief Executive Officer of each institution, and the other TBMB committees to establish and monitor the budget percentages in the budget. The Budget and Ministry Committee will undertake formal reviews of the fixed percentages every three years. The formal review is expected to begin 12 to 18 months prior to the start of the budget year.

C. Budget Organization – The Convention budget shall be organized in the following manner:
   1. Cooperative Program Promotion and Administration: Consistent with the original formation of the Cooperative Program in 1925, this section will include all budgeted funds used by TBMB for the promotion and administration of the Cooperative Program.
      a. Such budgeted funds may include personnel, printed and electronic materials, accounting services, travel, communications, technology, and other promotional expenses related to the promotion and administration of Cooperative Program.
      b. One-twelfth of the total annual budget for this section shall be allocated from the monthly Cooperative Program receipts and placed in a temporarily restricted net asset fund in order to provide the funding for this annual budget section.
      c. While this section will not be allocated on a percentage basis, the total annual budget for this section shall not exceed four percent of the total Cooperative Program Budget goal as approved by the messengers to the annual meeting.
      d. Unused funds at the end of the budget year shall be moved to the Convention Reserve Fund as described in Article X, Section B of the Plan.
      e. The Convention may choose to not use this section in which case the identified expenses will be placed in the Convention Operations section of the budget described in Article III, Section C.2, paragraph b. iv herein.
   2. Cooperative Program Allocation Budget – This section of the budget will dictate how funds received for Cooperative Program will be allocated after accounting for the Cooperative Program Promotion and Administration section described in Article III, Section C.1. herein. All such funds will be allocated based on the percentages approved in this section of the budget which shall total 100%.
      a. Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) – There will be one line item percentage for the SBC section representing the allocation to the SBC. For information purposes, the budget presentation may include how the SBC further allocates its funds.

b. Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) – The total of this section when added to the SBC section shall be 100% of the Cooperative Program Allocation Budget.
   i. Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) – There will be one line item percentage for this section allocated to TBMB for its various ministries and activities. For information purposes, the budget presentation may include how TBMB further allocates the Cooperative Program funding based on the budget approved by the TBMB Board of Directors.
   ii. Christian Education – This section will include a line item percentage for each of the educational Convention institutions.
   iii. Christian Services – This section will include a line item percentage for each of the service Convention institutions.
   iv. Convention Operations – This section will include one line item percentage for the total of multiple budget items included in this section. These items include Convention-wide ministries that are administered by TBMB, but are governed by Convention actions (e.g., Church Retirement Plan, Cooperative Program Promotion, Convention Audits, Convention Annual Meeting and Committees, Convention Reserve Fund, and other special budget items that may arise from time to time). This allocation will always close into the Convention Reserve Fund at year-end.

D. Total Budget – The total annual budget will generally be based on the total Cooperative Program receipts for the twelve-month period ending May 31 prior to the start of the fiscal year for the budget being prepared, rounded up by not more than $500,000. In the case of extraordinary circumstances, the Budget and Ministry Committee may recommend a deviation from this amount. The pre-determined fixed budget percentages will then be applied to that total to reflect the actual allocations expected for the coming year. The Budget and Ministry Committee will then recommend this budget to the TBMB Board of Directors.

E. Approval by TBMB Board of Directors – The TBMB Board of Directors will receive and review the recommendations of the Budget and Ministry Committee. Directors will review the budget requests and, upon approval, recommend a budget for the coming year to be considered by the Convention in its next annual meeting.

F. Publication – The proposed budget in summary form will be printed in the Baptist and Reflector at least thirty days before the convening of the annual meeting of the Convention.

G. Annual Meeting Approval - The proposed budget will be presented to the messengers on the first session of the annual meeting. Any amendments to the proposed budget must be presented at the time it is presented. Proposed amendments will be referred to the Budget and Ministry Committee of TBMB for review and appropriate recommendation. The proposed budget and all proposed amendments referred to such committee will be placed on the agenda for further consideration and action by messengers no earlier than the second session of the annual meeting. If the annual meeting is not held for any reason, or the budget is for any reason not adopted, the TBMB Board of Directors is authorized to adopt an annual budget.

H. During the interim from November 1 until an annual budget is adopted, the Convention will use the budget of the previous year for allocation purposes, with the understanding that the newly adopted budget will be retroactive to November 1.

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL PLAN

IV. Receipts

A. Convention Accounts – TBMB will maintain accounts into which all funds sent through the Convention will be deposited.

B. Cooperative Program – Only those contributions committed to the full Cooperative Program budget with no restrictions or additional designations will be categorized as Cooperative Program receipts. All other contributions will be categorized as Designated Receipts.

In addition, it will receive and distribute Designated Receipts from churches and individuals for Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union and related ministries, ministries related to Partnership and Volunteer ministries of the Convention, the American Bible Society, and any others receiving the prior approval of the TBMB Board of Directors or the Convention. E. Reported Gifts – Gifts sent directly to Convention institutions from churches will be reported by the institutions on a monthly basis to the Treasurer of the Convention, listing the amount designated, the name of the church, and the name of the association. Such gifts will be recorded as a reported gift and included in all reports of church giving.

V. Allocations

A. Cooperative Program – Cooperative Program receipts will be divided following the close of business each month based on the percentage of the approved budget. The allocations will thereafter be remitted to each recipient.

B. Designated Receipts – Designated Receipts will be remitted monthly to each designated entity or cause. Funds designated for SBC institutions, agencies, or programs will be sent to the Executive Committee of the SBC with appropriate designations. However, the Convention will follow instructions from churches that request that their designations be sent directly to SBC institutions and agencies.

VI. Accountability

A. Access to Records – As a condition to receiving funds, all recipients of Cooperative Program funds will make their financial records open and available for review upon request by the Treasurer of the Convention or his appointed representatives, TBMB (or its designees), or any member of a church affiliated with the Convention.

B. Reporting – The Treasurer of the Convention will make quarterly reports of all monies received and will cause the same to be published in the Baptist and Reflector. He will make reports at regularly scheduled meetings of the TBMB Board of Directors and make a report at the annual meeting of the Convention.

C. Fiscal Year – The fiscal year of the Convention will begin on the first day of November each year and end on the last day of October of the following year. Each Convention institution may adopt a fiscal year that conforms to the particular needs of that institution.

D. Audits
   1. All institutions affiliated with the Convention, as a prerequisite to receiving Cooperative Program funds, will have their financial statements audited each year by a Certified Public Accounting Firm.
   2. The auditing firm will be selected and contracted by TBMB upon recommendation of the Administrative Committee after consultation with the President and Executive Director of TBMB and the Chairman of the Committee on Audits. The President and Executive Director, and appointed staff, of TBMB will serve as liaison between the auditing firm and Convention institutions.
   3. Copies of the auditor's opinion letter and review of financial statements (audit) will be supplied to the governing body of the Convention institutions that have been audited. A set of all audits will be supplied to the Committee on Audits, to the office of the Convention Treasurer, and to the TBMB Board of Directors.
   4. A complete set of audit reports will be printed in the Tennessee Baptist Convention Journal each year.

VII. Risk Management

A. No officer or committee member of the Convention will be liable for any action taken as an officer or committee member or any failure to take any action, if he/she performed the duties of his/her office in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Convention.

B. The Convention, in its discretion, may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he/she is or was an officer or committee member against liability incurred in the proceeding provided (a) he/she conducted himself/herself in good faith and (b) he/she reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in his/her official capacity with the Convention, that his/her conduct was in its best interests; and (ii) in all other cases, that his/her conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he/she had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful.

VIII. Special Solicitations

A. Any Convention institution that desires to undertake a special financial campaign that involves solicitation to the churches must first receive approval from TBMB.

B. A Convention institution will file its request for such a campaign with the appropriate TBMB committee and with the office of the Convention Treasurer. The request will not be considered until the committee has had thirty calendar days to study the request.

C. The following items will be included in the request in order to receive consideration from TBMB:
   1. The purpose and objective of the campaign
   2. Cost estimates for conducting the campaign
   3. Beginning and ending dates for the campaign
   4. Time period for churches to fulfill their pledges
   5. Details on who will promote the campaign on behalf of the institution
   6. The geographical area(s) involved in the campaign
   7. The expected donors to the campaign in addition to the churches
   8. A summary of the results of previous campaigns

D. If the appropriate committee approves the campaign, the request will be referred to the Administrative Committee for action and, if approved, then to the TBMB Board of Directors for action or referral to the Convention.

E. Convention institutions that receive an allocation from the Cooperative Program will not request churches to place designated amounts in the church budgets for the support of such institutions.

IX. Institutional Liabilities

A. Convention institutions will be solely responsible for any and all liabilities, debts, leases, lines of credit, etc., into which they may enter. At no time will the Convention, or TBMB, be a party to any liabilities related to the debt or other liability of an institution. Likewise, no Convention institution should depend on the Convention or TBMB to provide relief, assistance, or support beyond that which is provided in the annual budget at any time.

B. As stewards of Cooperative Program funds, the Convention through its Committee on Audits will review annually the audit of each Convention institution for the amount of debt carried by such institution and will evaluate that institution's ability to repay such debt. The committee may notify the governing body of such institution and/or TBMB at any time it feels that the amount of debt carried by any institution may endanger the future financial health of that institution.

C. In cases involving perception of potential danger to the future financial health of the institutions, TBMB may withhold the applicable Cooperative Program allocation. Such action would be taken to protect the trustworthiness and business perceptions of Tennessee Baptists and to fulfill the stewardship role of the Convention.

X. Contingent Reserve

A. TBMB and all Convention institutions are expected to keep financial reserves on hand or invested with Tennessee Baptist Foundation (TBF) or other qualified financial institutions for unexpected emergency expenses to be used only in case of a major financial depression or calamity that would greatly reduce Cooperative Program allocations.

B. Convention Reserve Fund
   1. Establishment – TBMB shall maintain a reserve fund on behalf of the Convention. This fund shall be for the purpose of providing for emergency expenses of the Convention, occasional short-term budget needs of the Convention not included in the standard Cooperative Program allocation, and to provide flexibility in the fixed percentage budget process for the Convention Operations line item. The fund shall not be used in lieu of or to supplement the Cooperative Program allocation of TBMB or Convention institution; however, the fund may be allocated through the process prescribed in paragraph 4 of this section.

2. Placement of Fund – The Fund shall be invested through TBF under the investment policies of TBMB for similar long-term funds. Interest earnings and other fund growth shall be maintained in the fund until needed.
3. Sources of Funds
    a. Cooperative Program Allocation – When adopted by the Convention, an allocation of Cooperative Program funds may be deposited directly into the fund on a monthly basis as corpus funds.
    b. Residual Convention Operations funds – At the conclusion of the annual audit of TBMB each fiscal year, Cooperative Program funds allocated to the Convention Operations line item of the budget that have not been expended will be transferred into the fund as corpus.
    c. Fund Earnings – All interest and capital gains or other income generated by the fund shall be returned to the fund as income.
4. Expenditure of Funds
    a. Emergency Expenditures – During a period of emergency, financial calamity, or significant disaster, the Budget and Ministry Committee may allocate corpus and income from the fund for use of Tennessee Baptists to meet Convention needs or respond to the emergency. Allocations shall be made through the Committee's prescribed process.
    b. Supplement to Convention Operations budget – When budget needs exceed the Convention Operations section fixed percentage allocation, and when adopted by the Convention, a portion of the fund may be included as a supplement to the Convention Operations section of the budget. Such allocation comes only after a thorough examination and projection of the Convention Operations section of the budget by the Budget and Ministry Committee. Supplements shall come first from the accrued income funds and thereafter from the corpus of the fund.
    c. Supplement to current deficits in the allocation to the Convention Operations line item – Should expenditures from the Convention Operations line item exceed funds actually allocated to this section, then the fund may be used to cover such deficits. Any such transfer must be reviewed and approved by the Budget and Ministry Committee.
    d. Special allocation – TBMB and Convention institutions may request a special allocation from the fund for a unique or special project under the following guidelines:
        i. All such requests must be submitted to the Budget and Ministry Committee through the Committee's prescribed process. This committee may or may not recommend it for final approval to the TBMB Board of Directors. The allocation must be approved by the TBMB Board of Directors.
        ii. Special allocations shall come from income funds and shall not exceed the total of income funds within the fund.
        iii. Special allocations are strongly discouraged when the total fund is less than the target balance or when the allocation would reduce the fund to a level below the target balance.
    e. The Budget and Ministry Committee may authorize the transfer of income funds to corpus funds when necessary to properly manage the fund. However, no transfer shall be made from corpus to income.
5. Target Balance – The target balance for the fund shall be equal to fifteen percent of the current total annual Cooperative Program Allocation Budget for the Tennessee Baptist Convention.
6. Reporting – The Budget and Ministry Committee shall regularly monitor the Reserve Fund and provide reports to the TBMB Board of Directors. The funds shall be classified as a temporarily restricted net asset of TBMB (under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) as established by the Financial Accounting Standards Boards (FASB)).

COVENANTS BETWEEN CONVENTION INSTITUTIONS AND THE TENNESSEE BAPTIST CONVENTION

Revised November 16, 2022

The Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) has chosen to implement a portion of its ministry through Convention institutions as identified in the Convention bylaws. These institutions have a varied and unique history and have come into relationship with the Convention at various times and through various means.

The relationship between the Convention and the Convention institutions is grounded in mutual trust for the purpose of common ministry. The Convention institutions are autonomous nonprofit corporations, neither owned nor operated by the Convention. Governance of the Convention institutions is vested in their respective boards of trust in all matters.

The Convention has chosen to document the relationship with the institutions through the use of covenants. The covenants between the Convention and these institutions are not legal agreements and do not affect the right of the board of trustees of the institution to direct and control the institution in achieving its purpose.

The covenants were developed in a cooperative effort between the appropriate committees of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (now Tennessee Baptist Mission Board) and the leadership of each Convention institution. They were then adopted by the Tennessee Baptist Convention in session on November 16, 2005. Upon adoption they replaced existing program statements which had guided the roles and responsibilities in the cooperative relationship.

Administrative updates to change the name of institutions and Tennessee Baptist Mission Board have been made over the years. During 2018 and 2019, the Partner Ministries Committee worked with leaders of the Convention institutions to significantly update and rewrite the covenants for recommendation to the messengers at the 2019 annual meeting of The Tennessee Baptist Convention. In 2022, the Convention approved an update to the covenant with Tennessee Baptist Foundation.

Tennessee Baptist Convention Constitution); and

A CHRONOLOGY

Wallace E. Anderson

The first effort to organize a state Convention in Tennessee was at Mill Creek Baptist Church, near Nashville, October 23, 1833. James Whitsitt (1771-1849), pastor of Mill Creek Church, presided over the meeting. A constitution was adopted; and an executive committee of 30 members, 10 from each major division of the state, was appointed. The Tennessee Baptist Convention was the sixth state convention to be organized. It followed South Carolina, 1821; Georgia, 1822; Alabama and Virginia, 1823; and North Carolina, 1830.

The development of a unified Baptist organization for the state of Tennessee was greatly hindered by geography and by religious controversy. The state, about 450 miles long and 100 miles wide, is divided into three sections by geographical barriers more distinct than those which separate many states. Difficulty of east-west communication caused the population to gravitate into three distinct groups, which have not been easily unified. In addition, every denominational program initiated by Tennessee Baptists has been tried by conflict and has had to overcome strong opposition in order to justify its claim to the support of the people. The need for a comprehensive statewide organization was recognized long before any effort was made to organize a state Convention. In 1812 the Cumberland Association approached the Concord Association with the suggestion that a joint meeting be held for correspondence purposes.

From 1833 to 1842 the original state Convention struggled hard to weather the storms of criticism and oppositions hurled against it; but the individual and combined attacks of Primitive Baptists, Gospel Mission Baptists, and the Disciples of Christ were too much for it. The dissenting Baptists looked upon the new Convention with dire misgivings and regarded with suspicion anything, which tended toward the centralization of authority or threatened the autonomy of their churches. The spearhead of the attack had been directed against the name "Convention." Therefore, on October 21, 1842, the Convention again met at its birthplace, Mill Creek Church, and decided to change its name to Baptist General Association of Tennessee. In his report of the Convention during its short term of existence, Robert Boyte Crawford Howell stated: "The Convention was in existence nine years. During this time it placed on the field an average of 15 missionaries annually; they assisted in the ordination of about forty ministers, organized about 150 churches and baptized about 15,000 persons." In 1849 the Convention was renamed the Baptist General Association of Middle Tennessee and North Alabama. In East Tennessee a General Association had been organized in August, 1844 at Mossy Creek in Jefferson County. The West Tennessee Baptist Convention was organized at a meeting in Brownsville, July 24-25, 1835. It had originally been called the adjourned session of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. West Tennesseans seemed to have no opposition to the name "Convention" as noted in East and Middle Tennessee and North Alabama. In 1874, a railroad having been completed north and south through Alabama, the Baptists in North Alabama from Jefferson and Walker counties to the Tennessee line united with the Alabama Baptist Convention.

At the organization of the general association, four societies which had been auxiliary to the Tennessee Baptist Convention were merged into it, and five boards were established: the Executive Boards at Murfreesboro, and the foreign mission board at Shelbyville.

At its 1845 session, the general association approved the formation of the Southern Baptist Convention and related its activities to the Convention but continued its Bible work as auxiliary to the American and Foreign Bible Society until the establishment of the Southern Baptist Bible Board in 1861.

From 1842 to 1874 there was in reality no comprehensive state Convention. Instead, there were three sectional Conventions: the Middle Tennessee Association of Baptists, the East Tennessee General Association of Baptists, and the West Tennessee Convention of Baptists. Eventually, the divisional organization of the Convention became one of the factors responsible for its failure. The next 32 years were the darkest in Tennessee Baptist history, a period of theological debate which left the churches divided into contending factions. Missionary Baptists, Gospel Mission Baptists, Primitive Baptists, and Campbellite Baptists were arrayed against one another in constant debate. The efforts of Alexander Campbell to unite all denominations into one merely resulted in adding another to those already in existence. The question of boards and Conventions became a most divisive issue among Baptists. A disagreement regarding the "Societies" alienated the Eastern and Western Districts, which led to their ceasing to consider themselves part of the General Association. They no longer reported but acted as independent bodies. In addition, the region was involved in the political strife which resulted in the Civil War, 1861-1865.

Throughout all this strife and contention, Tennessee Baptists were aware of the importance of Christian education, and various schools sprang up through the state. In 1846 Union University was chartered at Murfreesboro. In 1851 Mossy Creek Missionary Baptists Seminary was chartered and located at Mossy Creek, now Jefferson City. The school opened for the reception of students in September, 1851, with William Rogers as president. The name was successively changed to Mossy Creek Baptist College in 1855 to Carson College in 1880. In 1882 Newman College for girls was established, and in 1889 the two schools were merged into a coeducational school and given the name Carson-Newman College. Its first graduate was Richard Scruggs of Sweetwater, in 1855.

During this period some of the opposition to a state Convention subsided; but the Civil War and the subsequent trying period of reconstruction hindered efforts at reorganization. Tennessee Baptists had been bombarded with controversies from the beginning of their divided organizations. After the Civil War there was a sense of need to unite all Tennessee Baptists. Most of the old controversies had been resolved and a greater doctrinal unity had been achieved. Committees from each of the three state organizations- East Tennessee Baptist General Association, the General Association of Middle Tennessee, and the West Tennessee Baptist Convention- were appointed in 1873 to discuss a united state Convention.

A Convention of Baptists across the state met in the Baptist Church at Murfreesboro on April 10, 1874 to consider state denominational interests. The Tennessee Baptist Convention was organized, officers were elected, and a constitution was approved. W. P. Bond was elected president, T. G. Jones and I. B. Kimbrough were chosen vice presidents, and W. T. Russell was elected secretary.

The Tennessee Baptist Convention, through the messengers of the cooperating churches, elects annually one third of the trustees of agencies, institutions, and members of committees. The Convention reserves the right to recall any and all of the various board and committee members and elect their successors at any session of the Convention. These institutions, agencies, and committees promote their phases of the state program.

The Convention hears the report from all institutions, agencies, committees, and departments. After discussions and changes, if any, it adopts them with the recommendations from program guidance. The Convention's treasurer is bonded and the books are audited by a company of certified public accountants.

Organizational Structure

The Executive Board

The executive agency of The Tennessee Baptist Convention is its Executive Board. At the organization of the Convention in 1874, an executive committee was appointed and charged with the responsibility of attending to all the Convention's business between sessions. In 1876 the name of the committee was changed to Executive Board and in 1877 to State Mission Board. The board retained this title until 1918, when the name was changed to the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. Prior to 1918 the board was composed of 33 members. In 1955 there were 54 members, 17 elected from each of the three grand divisions of the state. In 1959 the board was expanded to 75 members, and in 1975 to 99 members. The members are elected by the Convention to serve for a term of three years. They serve without pay.

The duties of the board are purely executive. The board is subject to the Convention, and matters of policy and principle are decided by the Convention. However, the Convention may refer any matters to the board for consideration and action. The board employs and determines the salaries of all paid employees of the Convention. All employees except the executive secretary are employed indefinitely; and service may be terminated at will, by either the employee or employer. The executive secretary is elected annually at the first meeting of the board after the annual session of the Convention. The board has numerous committees, among which is the administrative committee. The administrative committee is empowered to act for the board on matters of administration or on any matter referred to it by the board. The board directs all the education work of the Convention. It supervises, but does not direct, the work of the institutions.

The Executive Board, a corporation created by the Convention, is authorized to work out all details of the state missions program, appropriate the funds, elect and dismiss the personnel, fix the manner and amount of remuneration, and through its elected Executive Secretary, who is also the Convention Treasurer, counsel the institutions. The Executive Board is the Convention ad interim and "shall have all the powers of the Convention except as limited by this Constitution, the Bylaws of the Convention, and specific action taken by the Convention in session."

In 1959 the work of the Executive Board was redefined so that it would be carried out through seven standing committees - administrative, Christian services, denominational cooperation, education, public affairs and Christian life, state missions, and Tennessee Baptist program committee. Each member of the Executive Board serves on at least one of the committees. The administrative committee is made up of members of the Executive Board, chairmen of the other standing committees, the president of the Convention, and the president and vice president of the Executive Board. Each committee's work is carefully defined and is assigned certain responsibilities and areas of the work assigned to the Executive Board by the Convention. An operational manual defines methods and processes by which they operate.

The Executive Secretary

The Executive Board annually elects an Executive Secretary. It was the custom to elect as Secretary the man who was elected by the Convention at its previous session to the office of Treasurer, thus giving him the title of Executive Secretary-Treasurer. The title remains intact and means Secretary of the board and Treasurer of the Convention. In 1973 the bylaws were changed to read: "The executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Board shall be the Treasurer of the Convention." In 1979 this bylaw was moved to, and became a part of, the constitution. In 1983 a constitutional amendment excluded the Treasurer from the necessity of annual election.

The Executive Secretary is paid a stipulated salary for his work as secretary of the board but receives no salary for the work of Treasurer. The duties of the Executive Secretary are both administrative and promotional. He is charged with the responsibility of promoting and directing the work of the several departments of the throughout the state. He is also charged with the responsibility of serving in an advisory capacity to the institutions and agencies of the Convention. As Treasurer, he is responsible for handling all funds collected for denominational purposes. The first Secretary elected was William Allen Montgomery, in 1877. His title was Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer, a title which the office retained until 1929 when, during the administration of O. E. Bryan, the title was changed to Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

Early Convention Actions

On April 10, 1874, the Convention, meeting in Murfreesboro, authorized the appointment of a statewide Sunday school superintendent whose duty would be to attempt to organize a Sunday school in every church in the state. When the Convention was organized, Tennessee Baptists had been promoting Sunday school for more than 50 years. That interest increased after the Civil War. In 1881 J. M. Robertson was elected to serve as Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School and Colportage work.

On the following day the Convention adjourned long enough for messengers to ride carriages provided by Mayor Murfree to visit the buildings and grounds of Union University. They assembled again and adopted the report of the Committee on Education that a Committee on Location be appointed to consider ways and means of establishing "within or near the borders of Tennessee, a well-endowed thoroughly equipped University, of the highest order."

While the primary interest of the original Convention was missions, the principle objective of the founders of the second Convention was the promotion of Christian education. The constitution, which contained nine articles, remained practically unchanged until 1904 when the second article was made to prohibit Convention representatives and individual representation based on contributions. This article, defining the nature of the constitution was amended to eliminate associational representation. In 1951 the constitution was again revised. It is in general not unusually distinctive but does reflect the peculiar geographical predicament of Tennessee Baptists.

The 1874 Convention later approved the report of the Committee on Location and Southwestern Baptist University was relocated at Jackson by action of a called Convention assembled at Trezevant, August 12, 1874. The newly elected board of trustees proceeded to elect a corps of teachers, consisting of Prof. G. W. Jarman, principal, Prof. Rev. E. L. Patton, last president of West Tennessee College and vice principal, and H. C. Irby. Property of the West Tennessee College was transferred to the Board of Trustees of the Southwestern Baptist University. It was further recommended that Union University, then located at Murfreesboro, be merged with it. On August 5, 1890 the campus and buildings of West Tennessee College were formally deeded to Southwestern Baptist University. The name was changed to Union University on September 17, 1907. Hall-Moody Junior College was consolidated with Union University at the close of the school year 1926-27. The University was admitted to full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in December, 1948.

The Convention of 1876, meeting in Jackson, appointed its first state missionary, J. H. Cason, who was to receive a salary of $100 per month, "provided he could raise it on the field."

In 1877 the Convention met with the First Baptist Church, Chattanooga. It was during this year that the state mission board elected William Allen Montgomery (1829-1905) as its first secretary and gave him the title of corresponding secretary. His first duty was to unify the Baptist work in the three sections of the state. In his first report Secretary Montgomery said that the task was difficult because "the State is really three instead of one."

A four-year high school and preparatory school, located near Seymour, was founded about 1840, and operated by various Tennessee Baptist organizations since 1887. The institution grew out of McCroskey School, known locally as Owl College, and under the direction of John and Sam McCallie. The school passed from their control in 1881, and became Boyd's Creek Academy. From 1884 to 1889 the school was called Harrison Seminary, and then Harrison-Chilhowee Normal Academy. In 1887 the Chilhowee Baptist Association assumed control, and the next year joined with the Sevier County Baptist Association in sponsorship. In 1894 the word "Normal" was dropped from the school's name. After subsequent name changes (Chilhowee Institute, 1900; Harrison-Chilhowee Institute, 1911), the school came under the control of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and was re-chartered in 1932 as Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy.

The Tennessee Baptist Orphans' Home, presently Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc., was founded by a group of women representing the Baptist churches of Nashville, and meeting in the First Baptist Church of that city on May 5, 1891. The first officers elected were Mrs. Roger Eastman, president; Mrs. I. N. Phillips, vice president; Lucille Cunningham, secretary; and Mrs. A. J. Harris, treasurer. The first charter was secured on October, 1891, and the home was opened in the Hotel Delaware building, West Nashville, November 16, 1894. The home was moved to its present site near Franklin in June, 1912. In 1954 four children's homes were operated by the Children's Homes Corporation under one general management. In addition to the original home, the second one was built in Memphis in 1949-50. Another was constructed at Chattanooga in 1953. Min-Tom, a home for Negro children, was accepted from the Hamilton County Baptist Association in 1954. This work is supported through the Cooperative Program, an annual Easter offering, special gifts from individuals, bequests, etc. The corporation is an institution of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, which elects its board of managers. This board holds title to the property, formulates the policies of the institution, elects its own officers and its executive officer.

A recommendation in 1885 suggested that the Convention appoint a Woman's Central Committee to enlist all of the women of the churches in special efforts in behalf of all missions. This was the beginning of a movement that resulted in the organization of the Woman's Missionary Union, a vital part of the denomination but not a part of the Convention. In 1885 and 1886 the Tennessee Baptist Convention recommended that the Woman's Central Committee be reorganized as an auxiliary to the State Mission Board. In response to this appeal, the Central Committee of Tennessee Women was officially reorganized on December 13, 1887. Response to appeals from the Committee to the churches led to a meeting at Columbia on October 18, 1888 for the purpose of organizing a State WMU Convention. On October 19, during the second session, the organization was formed.

The first Baptist Young People's Union Convention was held in Chattanooga in 1896, and the state Convention in 1916 made B. Y. P. U. work a responsibility of the Convention and its promotion a part of the work of the Department of Education.

In 1908 William Douglas Hudgins (1873-1934) was elected to head the comprehensive work of the education department. Hudgins continued as head of this department for the next 26 years. His work included the supervision and direction of these organizations: Sunday School, Baptist Young People's Union, Brotherhood, and Baptist Student Union. When Hudgins died, his work was divided into two departments: one responsible for Sunday School and Brotherhood; the other, for Training Union and Student Union. In 1935 Andrew Q. Allen was elected head of the Department of Training Union and Student Work. Allen resigned in 1938, and Jesse Daniel was elected to become superintendent of Sunday school work. The department was again divided in 1940 when E. Kirby Wiley was elected the first secretary of the new Brotherhood Department. In 1942 Rogers resigned the Department of Training Union and Student Work, and Charles Norton was elected to succeed him. This department was divided, and Rogers Smith became the first secretary of the new Baptist Student Union Department.

In 1940 "The inauguration of the Ministers' Retirement Plan made it necessary for us to set up a new record system and to secure a worker to handle it." Complying with instructions from the Convention of 1939 in Chattanooga, the board launched on January 1, 1940 the Employees' Retirement Plan. On July 1, 1940 the Ministers' Retirement Plan went into effect. L. G. Frey took charge January 1, 1942. Due to the growth in this area and because new insurance programs were added, the work of the Retirement Plans office was enlarged into a new department named Protection Plans.

In 1941 Norris Gilliam, pastor of Springfield Baptist Church, was hired to replace Don Norman who had left the Baptist and Reflector to join the staff of the Baptist Standard of Texas. Gilliam's work included not only the work done by Norman for the paper, but the promotion of the general work, especially that of stewardship. These new duties came under the title "Director of Promotion."

"During the year (1942) the Board of Trustees elected L. G. Frey treasurer (of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation) and your Board approved the election." Frey served in this capacity until 1946. This responsibility had since 1938 been that of the executive secretary-treasurer of the Convention. The Tennessee Baptist Foundation is an agency of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, created by vote of the Convention on November 16, 1938, and was chartered as a trust corporation December 9, 1938.

The foundation idea in Tennessee was promoted by John D. Freeman during his term as executive secretary of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. He served as the first executive secretary of the Executive Board of the foundation from 1938 to 1942. In the 1945 session the Convention approved a recommendation for the Executive Board "that the Convention instruct the Executive Board to employ a capable and qualified man to give full time to the promotion of the interests of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation." Norris Gilliam was elected by the Executive Board and the Foundation Board of Directors to this position.

The Convention owns and operates two camps for assembly purposes: Camp Linden at Linden and Camp Carson at Newport. These camps were authorized by the Convention in 1946. Camps became a department of state mission work June 12, 1956, with a budget under the Executive Board. An annual budget for camp work was provided. The business manager of the Executive Board was assigned this new responsibility.

On February 1, 1948, a division of the executive secretary's multitudinous duties resulted in the creation of the Department of Missions and Evangelism.

In 1952 the Department of Music was established, and Genter Leroy Stephens was elected part-time secretary. In 1955 Frank Charton was elected the first full time secretary of the music department.

Southwide Royal Ambassador work was begun in 1908 by the Woman's Missionary Union. In 1954 the Southern Baptist Convention adopted a proposal of Woman's Missionary Union made in 1953 to transfer sponsorship of the Royal Ambassador Movement from Woman's Missionary Union to the Baptist Brotherhood Commission, to be effected gradually over a three-year period of transfer. Tennessee Royal Ambassador work became a part of the Brotherhood Department effective January 1, 1958. Roy J. Gilleland, Jr., having already been functioning as State Royal Ambassador Secretary under a joint committee of the Brotherhood Department and Woman's Missionary Union during the past two years thus became the first Royal Ambassador Secretary in the Brotherhood Department.

The Church Building and Loan Program was inaugurated in 1953, and was transferred from the administration of the executive secretary to the Tennessee Baptist Foundation December 31, 1956.

At the June 2, 1953 Executive Board meeting a recommendation was made by the executive secretary "that a new Department of Evangelism and Promotion be established." The recommendation was approved and the personnel committee nominated Leonard Sanderson for the position of Secretary of Evangelism and Promotion effective July 1, 1953.

The 1953 Convention adopted a constitutional change that changed the name of the Convention from "Tennessee Baptist Convention" to "The Tennessee Baptist Convention."

On January 18, 1955 the promotion of stewardship was transferred to the Promotion Department under the Secretary of the Department of Evangelism. The title of the secretary now became "Secretary of the Department of Evangelism and Promotion."

The Executive Board created the position of Associate Executive Secretary March 1, 1955. The position was given to the Secretary of the Department of Evangelism with the understanding that it would not interfere with his present duties. His new title was "Associate Executive Secretary in charge of Promotion." On December 9, 1955 the Department of Promotion and Evangelism was separated into two departments and the Secretary of the Promotion Department was elected as Administrative Assistant to the Executive Secretary. On August 1, 1956 the duties of press representative became a part of the duties of the Department of Promotion.

A Denominational Paper

The Baptist and Reflector is the official journal of The Tennessee Baptist Convention. The paper first appeared in January, 1835, published by Robert Boyle Crawford Howell, as The Baptist. In 1839 The Baptist merged into The Baptist Banner of Kentucky. It ceased publication in 1842 and was reestablished in 1844. J. R. Graves became editor in 1848 and the name was changed to Tennessee Baptist. The publication ceased in February 1862 when Federal troops took over the city of Nashville, but resumed February 1, 1867 as The Baptist. Other name changes occurred September 9, 1882 (Tennessee Baptist), and in 1887 (The Baptist), following a merger with The Baptist Gleaner, which was edited by J. B. Moody. Graves' son-in-law, O. L. Hailey, bought Moody's interest, was given Graves' interest, and became editor before The Baptist merged with American Baptist Reflector in 1889, a publication edited by Edgar E. Folk since 1888. The Reflector originated at Morristown in 1874, edited by O. C. Pope. It was published in Nashville 1878 to 1882 when it merged with The Baptist Sun of Rome, Georgia and began publication in Chattanooga. Ownership passed to Folk as American Baptist Reflector in 1888. The combined papers that merged in 1889 became the Baptist and Reflector. The first issue was printed August 22, 1889, with Edgar E. Folk, J. R. Graves, and J. B. Moody listed as editors. Folk bought out Hailey in 1891 and served as sole editor and owner until he died in 1917. Albert R. Bond bought the paper and published it until 1921 when it was bought by the Tennessee Baptist Convention. The Tennessee Baptist Press operated the publication until 1959 when, due to reorganization changes in the Convention's structure, it was placed under the Executive Board of the Convention. The paper's board of directors is made up of some of the members of the Executive Board's administrative committee.

Other Reorganizational Changes

As a result of the recommendations of a survey committee, the Stewardship Department was set up and William H. Pitt, Sr., was chosen as the first secretary of the new department and began work September 5, 1960.

Another change required by the survey committee's report in 1959 was the setting up of the Program Services Department in 1960 to serve the entire State Mission and administrative needs in printing and mailing materials and related services. Later it was enlarged as the needs demanded. Wallace Anderson was elected as the first director of this department and began work November 14, 1960.

Convention Actions

The 1972 Convention adopted program statements for each area of Convention work as "an effort to more carefully define our areas of work, what our real objectives are, and how we are attempting to carry them out."

By action of the 1974 annual session of the Convention, a new institution, to be known as the Tennessee Baptist Service Corporation, was established and directors elected. The purpose of the new ministry was to: "foster care for retirees and elderly people in a Christian environment which will be conducive to creative living." Thomas J. Madden was elected chairman of the board; Ralph McIntyre, vice chairman; and Virgil Peters, secretary, Gene Kerr, formerly Assistant to the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention was employed as Executive Director. The 1982 Convention changed the name to Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc.

The office of Convention Ministries was established by action of the Executive Board of the Convention on May 13, 1975. On May 11, 1976, Thomas J. Madden was elected as director of the division. He began his work on July 1, 1976. The director of Convention Ministries is responsible to the executive secretary-treasurer for giving leadership to the following departments: Sunday School, Evangelism, Church Music, Church Training, Missions, Student, and Brotherhood. Woman's Missionary Union also cooperates with the departments. The director's primary function is to coordinate and correlate and give leadership to the departments within the division.

The Convention's Executive Board on September 23, 1975, approved the establishment of a Church Ministers Information Department to assist churches, pastors and other staff members in their relationship with one another. The responsibility of the department is to supply information about pastors and other staff personnel regarding matters of ministry. J. William Harbin became the first director of this department.

The work of church library promotion, which had originated in the Program Services Department and subsequently transferred to the Church Training Department, and church recreation, which had been assigned to the Church Music Department, were grouped into one office and on May 1, 1977, Jean Adkinson became the consultant for the three areas of work, under the leadership of the Convention Ministries Division office.

On May 11, 1977, the convention's Executive Board adopted a recommendation for a public affairs and Christian life consultant to be assigned for one year to the Baptist and Reflector office and then the relationship to be reevaluated. Jerry Self became the consultant for this area of work, assuming his duties on March 20, 1978. The office was later relocated in the Convention Ministries Division.

The Missions Department was expanded by recommendation adopted May 11, 1977, by the Convention's Executive Board, which provided for a program associate to coordinate work with ethnic and language groups. Rueben Canas assumed those responsibilities September 1, 1977.

Jarvis Hearn, who had been a member of the Executive Board staff for several years, and who had worked with the hearing impaired out of an office in Seymour, was brought to Brentwood to the Convention building.

The 1984 annual session of the Convention approved the establishment of the Media Ministries Department. Jarvis Hearn, formerly assigned to the Missions Department, was elected director of the department. He assumed his duties January 1, 1985, and Eleanor Yarborough, consultant in the church media and church recreation areas, became the program associate. The purpose of the department is to assist churches, associations, and program leaders of the Convention in the area of telecommunications, media libraries, and other media to strengthen their ministries of evangelism, education, training, and missions.

A Ministry of Healing

The first effort of Tennessee Baptists to enter the field of service by healing resulted in the establishment of the Baptist Memorial Hospital at Memphis. A joint effort of the Baptist Conventions of Tennessee, Arkansas, and Mississippi, the corporation was chartered April 8, 1907, by the state of Tennessee. The only records available indicate the first public suggestion that a Baptist Hospital be established in Memphis was made at an all-day meeting of the Shelby County Baptist Association at Central Baptist Church in July, 1906. A committee of three, consisting of H. P. Hurt, pastor of Bellevue Baptist Church, Thomas S. Potts, pastor of the host church, and A. U. Boone, pastor of First Baptist Church, Memphis, was appointed to visit the Baptist Conventions of the three states and appeal to them to support the building of a Baptist hospital in Memphis. On April 8, 1907, a charter was signed for the proposed hospital.

In 1908 arrangements were completed with the nearby University of Tennessee College of Medicine whereby the University was to deed a lot on Madison Avenue for the new hospital building and provide instructors for student nurses in return for clinical privileges with charity patients for teaching purposes. In 1910 ground was broken for a new hospital. It was formally opened to patients July 20, 1912.

In 1915 the hospital faced financial difficulties. A. E. Jennings assumed the indebtedness of the hospital and became responsible for its operation. He remained as chairman of the executive committee until his retirement in 1946. In 1924 a new charter was procured, vesting control and ownership in the three Conventions. It was duly incorporated as a non-profit organization, and has received full approval for the Joint Committee on Accreditation. It is one of the largest hospitals owned and operated by Southern Baptists.

The East Tennessee Baptist Hospital came into being as the result of a resolution presented by a pastor's conference to the Knox County Baptist Association in October, 1943, requesting the association to appoint a commission responsible for the establishment of a Baptist hospital in Knox County. Many civic and business institutions joined the association in raising funds for buildings and equipment, and the hospital was chartered in April, 1944. The school of nursing was opened March 15, 1948, and the first patient was received November 26 of the same year. On November 16, 1949, the Convention assumed control. The hospital is approved for internship and is fully accredited.

On April 21, 1948, the trustees of the Protestant Hospital, Nashville, tendered their entire property, including lands, buildings and equipment, to the Convention. It was given with the understanding that the Convention would expand and improve its facilities, make it a standard hospital, and place it on a par with other hospitals owned by the Baptist denomination in Tennessee. A new charter was adopted, and the hospital was renamed Mid-State Baptist Hospital (later Baptist Hospital, Inc.). The hospital is approved for intern and resident training; it is approved and accredited by the joint commission on accreditation, the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, and the Tennessee Hospital Association.

All three hospitals were renamed: in 1981 Baptist Memorial Hospital became Baptist Memorial Health Care System, Inc., Memphis; in 1982 East Tennessee Baptist Hospital became Baptist Health System of East Tennessee, Inc., Knoxville, and Baptist Hospital, Inc., Nashville became Baptist Health Care System, Inc., Nashville.

Additional Educational Institution

A school for women named Ward Seminary was established in Nashville in 1865. Another school of the same general type, Belmont College, was established in the same city in 1890. In 1913 these two privately owned schools combined and became Ward-Belmont College, remaining a school for women. In 1946 Tennessee College for Women at Murfreesboro and Cumberland University at Lebanon were merged and, until 1951, were operated under the auspices of the Convention. In that year Belmont College for girls in Nashville, and the Baptist state Convention Executive Board offices were moved to the Ward-Belmont campus. Failure to secure accreditation for Cumberland University in Lebanon caused Baptists to abandon that institution to its former owners. On March 13, 1951, the Executive Board voted to offer to Cumberland University as much of the Ward-Belmont property as was needed for school purposes provided the trustees would agree to move the college of arts and sciences to the Ward-Belmont campus. The law school was to be left in Lebanon. The board of trustees of Cumberland University met March 19, 1951, and voted to keep both the law school and the college of arts and sciences in Lebanon. The Tennessee state board then announced that a coeducational college would be operated on the Ward-Belmont campus and that no funds would be available for the operation of Cumberland University after June 8, 1951. Cumberland University was then transferred back to its former trustees on May 21, 1951.

It was believed that Belmont College would provide an institutional basis for the growth of Baptists in Middle Tennessee. The eastern and western sections of the state had traditionally been centers of Baptist strength. It was felt that Baptist institutions, particularly the coeducational schools, were major factors in the development of Baptist strength in the eastern and western sections of the state, and that similar institutions were necessary to stimulate Baptist growth in Middle Tennessee. The missionary and pastoral work of ministerial students attending Baptist schools had contributed largely to the strength of Baptists in other areas. The board of trustees elected R. Kelly White on August 8, 1952, as the first president of Belmont College. The school was, in 1960, admitted to the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges as a fully accredited senior college.

Executive Board Offices Relocated

At the regular midyear meeting of the Executive Board, May 18, 1965, a long-range planning committee was appointed to study plans for relocating and erecting a new office building for The Tennessee Baptist Convention. Fidelity Hall at Belmont College, which had been used as an office building since 1951, was no longer adequate and Belmont College needed additional facilities. On June 7, 1966, the Executive Board gave the committee authority to proceed with plans for a new building. On September 26, 1967, the committee recommended that the Executive Board purchase a new location on Franklin Road, Brentwood, consisting of six and one half acres of land. The Executive Board approved the purchase and the Belmont Boulevard property was sold to Belmont College. On November 13, 1967, the long-range planning committee was renamed Executive Board building committee and given authority to proceed with building plans at the new location. On July 30, 31, and August 1, 1969 the offices were moved. The building was officially opened on August 4, and dedication services were held on November 12, 1969, during the annual session of the Tennessee Baptist Convention in Nashville. The new office building at Brentwood was the first office building the Convention had erected in its ninety-five year history.

Space and Organizational Growth

On September 13, 1985, the Executive Board approved a recommendation of the Administrative Committee made at its July 9 meeting "that the Executive Board authorize a 12-member Program, Personnel, and Planning Task Force to be appointed by the president of the Executive Board and the executive secretary-treasurer, for the purpose of reviewing program organization and building (space) needs, and that reports be made periodically to the Executive Board."

The Convention in annual session, November 11, 1987, authorized the Executive Board to proceed with planning and constructing a conference center on the Executive Board property located in Brentwood. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held February 5, 1988. The Conference Center was completed and the existing structure was renovated. A dedication service was held December 7, 1989 and Open House was held December 17, 1989.

The Executive Board program organization evolved into a three-divisional structure. New construction, renovation of existing space, program reorganization, and installation of a new administrator, along with a title change from "executive secretary" to "executive director," were implemented simultaneously.

Committee Abolished

Upon joint recommendation of the Committee on the Journal and the Constitution and Bylaws Committee, the Committee on the Journal was abolished by action of the Convention November 14, 1990.

Hospital Controversy

On December 19, 1990, Baptist Hospital, Nashville, broke its traditional ties to The Tennessee Baptist Convention. On November 19, 1991, the Convention in annual session adopted an Agreement made between the Executive Board of The Tennessee Baptist Convention and Baptist Hospital, Inc. The agreement ensures that the Tennessee Baptist Convention will continue to elect, for a period of five years, trustees to the hospital's Baptist Health Care System board, a "paper" board that will serve as a pool of trustees to be named to the subsidiary board that make policy for the hospital. (See 1991 Tennessee Baptist Convention Journal, pages 90-92 for the Agreement in its entirety.)

Significant Personnel Changes

On September 4, 1992, the TBC Executive Board elected James M. Porch to succeed D. L. Lowrie as Executive Director of the Executive Board, to be effective November 1, 1992. Porch had served as chairman of the Program, Personnel, and Planning Task Force, an ad hoc committee, while also serving as pastor of First Baptist Church, Tullahoma. On May 11, 1993, the TBC Executive Board elected William Maxwell as the first director of the Central Administrative Division, to be effective July 19, 1993.

Enlarged Missions Emphasis

included the signing of agreements to reach out to Canada and Poland simultaneously, while continuing the relationship with Michigan. The three-year agreement with Chile ended December 31, 1994.

Convention Committee Abolished

The 1994 Tennessee Baptist Convention, in annual session, abolished the Church Staff Compensation Study Committee, the Convention's only all-layman committee.

A Multifaceted Ministry Highlights of 1994-95
James M. Porch
The history of Tennessee Baptists in 1994-95 is a record of a multifaceted ministry in response to the Great Commission and the dedication of nearly 3,000 churches. A review of the Convention year reveals a significant focus on the future. During the Annual Convention, Vision 2000: Reaching Tennessee for Christ, a six area long-range plan was adopted as a guide for our mission and ministry through the year 2000. In addition, during the annual meeting, messengers extended to Carson-Newman College, Belmont University, and Union University the opportunity to conduct a statewide endowment campaign during 1997-99.

The mission priority of Tennessee Baptists is evidenced in the score of volunteers from across the state who ventured into Poland, Michigan, Western Canada, Ukraine, Philippines, Venezuela, Haiti, Nigeria, Brazil, and other home and foreign assignments.

Consistent stewardship among the Tennessee Baptist churches resulted in over giving the budget for the first time since 1984.

While these highlights capture our attention, we must remember that the real history of our task is found in the individual histories written by each autonomous church that responds to the call of Christ in the local area.

James M. Porch
Tennessee Baptist messengers gathered for the 1996 Annual Convention under the banner of "Tennessee Baptists Awake." Each Convention session included a challenge for spiritual awakening by Henry Blackaby, director of Prayer and Spiritual Awakening, Home Mission Board. Evidence of response to the call for spiritual renewal during the 1996 Convention year included record giving to the Cooperative Program that exceeded the budget by over one-million dollars. Baptisms recorded by the churches showed significant increase over the previous year.

The Executive Board staff implemented ServanTeam 21 during the year. The remodeled organizational structure focused on providing quality assistance and resources to churches and associations throughout our state.

Once again in '96, Tennessee Baptist Convention expanded its mission conscience by including the nation of Costa Rica as a mission partner.

As the year closed, Carson-Newman College, Union University, and Belmont University, Tennessee Baptist institutions of higher learning, were completing plans to launch a challenging endowment campaign.

While these highlights capture our attention, we must remember that the real history of our task is found in the individual histories written by each autonomous church that responds to the call of Christ in the local area.

Highlights of 1996-1997
James M. Porch
The 1996-97 Convention year featured the announcement of Tennessee Reach—a statewide strategy of Evangelistic outreach to the entire volunteer state. This plan, coupled with a record Cooperative Program giving in excess of $30 million, demonstrated that Evangelism and Missions remained fixed priorities for Tennessee Baptists.

Throughout 1997, personnel of the Executive Board staff and members of the Executive Board worked to develop plans for the development of Camps Carson and Linden into retreat and conference sites.

The year's highlights also included the development and improvement of two primary Convention processes, namely, the work of the Committee on Committees and the Committee on Boards, and the annual meeting planning process. The Committee on Committees and the Committee on Boards developed an information gathering system to more effectively equip them in recommending persons to the Convention for service on the boards and committees.

The annual meeting planning process focused on the themes of involvement, information, and inspiration to attract Tennessee Baptists to attend the Convention.

During the annual meeting, once again Partnership Missions ventures were expanded to include Brazil.

In the area of Christian education, Union University, Carson-Newman College, and Belmont University, together, announced record enrollments and initial successes in the endowment campaign for scholarships.

The Executive Board staff celebrated its first year of ministry under the remodeled organization and prepared to begin the implementation of recommendations presented in a communication audit completed earlier in the year.

Highlights of 1997-1998

A variety of events and challenges occupied the attention of a vast number of Tennessee Baptists throughout the year.

The Relationship Focus Group, a special Executive Board created committee, worked diligently throughout the year to assist the Convention to maintain its focus in a time of stress.

Carson-Newman College trustees voted to change their trustee selection method whereby the College elected its own trustees.

The older part of the Baptist Center in Brentwood underwent a comprehensive remodeling with emphasis on providing facilities to enhance the work of the Board.

A visit to Portugal by Convention leadership proved to be a prelude to the Convention's enactment of an official foreign mission partnership with that country.

The Executive Board and the Convention approved the building of two conference centers, one at Camp Linden, and the other at Camp Carson. These centers will provide much needed assembly and housing space for churches and associations.

The Executive Board added a new committee, Convention Communications Committee, whose assignment was to coordinate the work of the Communication Services Group and the Baptist & Reflector. Also, the Executive Board adopted a new logo and mission statement, Making Christ Known Through Serving Churches. Throughout 1997-98, the Executive Board ministry personnel began to visit every church in the state Convention.

This past year brought cause for anticipation of the new review of the Convention's annals as Tennessee Baptists awaited the publication of the new history of Tennessee Baptists by Dr. Albert Wardin. The official presentation of the book was made during the annual Convention, and each church of the Tennessee Baptist Convention received a bound copy.

The year also provided opportunity to begin planning for the 75th anniversary of the Cooperative Program under the general theme "Partners in the Harvest." This celebration will culminate at the 2000 Convention at Germantown Baptist Church.

Once again Tennessee Baptists celebrated a year of volunteer mission expansion as we partnered with Virginia, Missouri, Arkansas, and Maryland/Delaware in a joint relief effort to assist Baptists in Nicaragua following the devastating hurricane. Also, our Baptist family members in the Northeast and North Central parts of the United States asked us for additional volunteer effort to assist them in their pioneering efforts. Another highlight of our volunteer missions venture included three commissioning services and mission efforts of over 375 Tennessee Baptists involved in direct witnessing in the city of Rio de Janeiro and the beginning of an extended partnership with the Carioca Baptist Convention of Brazil.

James M. Porch
The 1999-2000 Convention year proved again to be a time of dynamic ministry and focus mission opportunity. The following highlights received kingdom initiative and energy during the previous year.

Throughout the year, much attention was given to preparing a comprehensive set of bylaw changes to enable the institutions of the Tennessee Baptist Convention to continue to elect their trustees in an honorable and practical manner. These bylaws honored the autonomy of principle of the Convention.

Immediately, prior to the Convention meeting, Carson-Newman College announced that it had filed changes in its charter with the Secretary of State's office of Tennessee to allow the Convention to elect their trustees. This expression of trust and reception by the Convention was the result of much prayer and wholesome desire for healthy relationships.

The Convention family welcomed and affirmed three new institution heads: Dr. James Netherton as president of Carson-Newman College, Dr. Robert Fisher as president of Belmont University, and Dr. Bryant Millsaps as president-treasurer of Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc.

During the Convention's fiscal year, our churches gave in excess of $350,000 over the Cooperative Program budget. This money was equally distributed between the North American Mission Board, International Mission Board, and state mission ministry for new Church Starts.

The Tennessee Baptist outreach to the world continued through the adoption of two additional partnerships, Iowa and participation in the "Loving Las Vegas" venture. We will continue our work in the city of Rio de Janeiro and the nation of Portugal.

Part of our continued Tennessee Baptist dream included the building of new conference centers. Dedication ceremonies for both Carson Springs Baptist Conference Center and Linden Valley Baptist Conference Center opened the doors to beautiful and spacious meeting facilities.

Tennessee Baptists once again expressed their commitment to state missions through a record Golden State Missions Offering of $1,371,575.

The Cooperative Program officially began through a national Convention action in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1925. Tennessee Baptists gave a record amount of $34,022,797 through the Cooperative Program during the Convention year 1999-2000.

Highlights of 2000-2001
James M. Porch
During the 2000-2001 Convention year, the Tennessee Baptist Convention launched its initial response to oppose a state-sponsored lottery. The Executive Board effort focused on developing educational materials, cooperating with the organization and implementation of Gambling Free Tennessee Alliance, and jointly sponsoring an interdenominational effort to defeat the lottery. Primarily, the Convention efforts centered around mobilizing the associations to wage a grass roots campaign to inform Tennessee Baptists concerning the impact a lottery would have upon the family and the poor.

When terrorists struck New York City, Tennessee Baptists immediately responded. Two hundred thirty-six disaster relief workers prepared over 96,000 meals. In addition, 51 crisis intervention chaplains have been trained, and 25 training events have been scheduled for the coming year.

During 2001, for the first time, volunteers in missions through the International Mission Board from Tennessee exceeded 2,500 with 299 of these Tennessee Baptists journeying to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil to participate in simultaneous crusades resulting in 4,084 decisions for Christ.

Also, during 2001 the Executive Board welcomed Don Pierson as Prayer Strategist. The primary purpose of this position is to assist churches and associations to assist members to a stronger prayer life.

The 2001 annual meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention emphasized family ministry. During the year, Tony Rankin joined the Executive Board staff as a Family Ministries Specialist to assist churches and associations with family ministry needs.

James M. Porch
During the Convention year 2001-2002, the challenge to defeat the lottery in Tennessee received intense energy by numerous Tennessee Baptists. The focus of the statewide campaign revolved around educating church members concerning the effect of the lottery on increased poverty, detriment to education, increased corruption, and deterioration in our Christian work ethic. Tennessee Baptists led the challenge by developing a variety of materials to orientate Tennesseans to the potential negative effects of a statewide lottery. The Baptist and Reflector produced a magazine bringing together a variety of articles, Bible study, and factual information that received phenomenal response. The original plan to print 25,000 copies of the magazine was finally expanded to the printing of over 100,000 copies. Over three and one-half million bulletin inserts were distributed to churches across the state. This required the cooperation of associational personnel, disaster relief volunteers, and numerous local committees. During the process of the lottery challenge, nearly sixty of our associations organized efforts to defeat the lottery. Even though the advocates of the lottery proved successful, Tennessee Baptists today are much more informed concerning the problems related to gambling than they were prior to this campaign.

The Executive Board ministries devoted much attention during the Convention year to the development of an emphasis on church health. At the outset, the intention was not to produce a program or ministry, but rather to develop a mindset or climate that would permeate throughout the Executive Board staff and hopefully impact the churches. At the end of the 2002 Convention year, this process is still being continued. A progress report during the Annual Convention was enthusiastically received. The Executive Board ministry team will continue developing this emphasis throughout 2003.

Partnership Missions work continued to expand in 2002. The original intention was to complete the work in Portugal. However, during a visit with missionaries in the country, the Executive Board team realized the need to continue the work there with increased emphasis. A wide variety of teams continued the work in the city of Rio de Janeiro, and now the Iowa partnership is officially launched. At the same time, groups from Tennessee continue to assist the Northeast Impact mission effort in a variety of ventures.

As the Convention year ended, we as a Convention are very cognizant of the growing clouds of possible war in our world. May we throughout the year continue to seek God's guidance upon not only our state and our nation, but upon our world—remembering that our call is to carry the gospel to all people.

Mission consciousness continued to include more churches and expand to additional geographical areas including western Canada and the prospects of a partnership with Montana.

The economic anxiety of our nation impacted both local churches and the Cooperative Program giving. Early in 2003, the leadership of both the Executive Board and the executive staff began carefully monitoring and analyzing the giving trends. Budget adjustments and communication of financial challenges occupied much time and energy and simultaneously provided an additional wake up call for a renewed emphasis on the Cooperative Program.

Our annual meeting, focusing on the theme of grace, offered messengers a spiritual climate somewhat represented by a messenger who remarked, "This year's TBC was a fun time for me."

Highlights of 2003-2004

In addition to missions endeavors in Tennessee, the Convention voted to begin a five-year Partnership Missions Agreement with Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary starting January 1, 2006 and a five-year Partnership Missions Agreement with the Montana Southern Baptist Convention—also to begin January 1, 2006. The Partnership Agreement between Tennessee and Iowa was renewed to continue through December 31, 2007.

The One Servant Family staff conducted eight listening meetings in various areas of the state to hear the thoughts and wishes on the hearts of pastors, church staff members, and lay people regarding what constitutes healthy churches. Information gleaned from the participants in these eight meetings is helping the staff as they fashion new responses to assist the needs of the more than 2900 churches in the Tennessee Baptist Convention.

The theme for the Annual Meeting, Tennessee Baptists Bolding Making Disciples, continues in the minds and hearts of the One Servant Family staff as we seek to answer the call of our Lord to "Go into all the world . . . "

Highlights of 2004-2005

The Convention year 2004-2005 stretched the energies of the Executive Board ministry staff as they responded faithfully and with great discipline to a new organizational structure. The central theme Developing a Kingdom Culture provided opportunities for churches and associations to work in joint ministries in unprecedented ways in our Convention. This new approach to Convention ministry, a great faith venture, enables your Executive Board "One Servant Family" staff to respond in more customized ways to needs of churches and associations than ever before. The response has been overwhelming.

Beginning immediately following hurricane Katrina, literally thousands of Tennessee Baptists and scores of Tennessee Baptist churches responded with multiple acts of compassion to people in need in Louisiana, Mississippi, and other parts of the Gulf Coast. To date, our disaster response has been the largest effort in disaster relief in the history of this ministry. As the year culminated, new plans were being put into action to continue helping in the rebuilding of the Gulf Coast area through the efforts and stamina of Tennessee Baptists.

While called upon to go south to the Gulf Coast, people of our churches never lost their sense of world-wide mission consciousness. Repeatedly, our churches have responded to calls to literally serve around the world through volunteer mission efforts, and at the same time never neglecting the partnerships that we have here in the United States, specifically in Canada, Iowa, and Montana.

Highlights of 2005-2006 James M. Porch
Called Convention – Belmont University and Baptist Health Care System of East Tennessee, Inc.
On November 10, 2005, Belmont University changed its charter removing the right for the Tennessee Baptist Convention to elect its trustees. In response a one-day special called-session of the Convention met on May 9, 2006, at Two Rivers Baptist Church, Nashville, to consider the relationship with Belmont University; the 1951 document entitled "Agreement Between Ward-Belmont, Inc., (Belmont College), Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and Tennessee Baptist Foundation;" and possible action concerning trustees of Belmont University. A second matter was to address the relationship with The Baptist Health System of East Tennessee, Inc.

After much debate, the Convention rejected the settlement offer presented by the Executive Board on behalf of Belmont University (see May 9, 2006 Proceedings), and authorized and directed the expanded (14 member) Belmont Study Committee of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (to carry out all rights, powers, actions, and remedies of the Convention with respect to Belmont University through any and all means deemed necessary, including, but not limited to, private negotiations/settlement, mediation, arbitration and/or litigation, in order to protect and enforce all rights of the Convention relating to Belmont University, including, without limitation, all of the Convention's rights and interests under applicable governing documents, under the 1951 Agreement, and under the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act. Next, the messengers declared vacant the office of each trustee, individually, on the Board of Trustees of Belmont University.

Leadership of the Baptist Health System of East, Tennessee, Inc. reported on the background of their task force's recommendation to take on a new partner, and their desire to remain affiliated with the Tennessee Baptist Convention. The Convention authorized the Executive Board of The Tennessee Baptist Convention, a Tennessee nonprofit corporation (or its designee), to carry out all rights, powers, actions and remedies of the Convention with respect to The Baptist Health System of East Tennessee, Inc. ("BHS"), including, but not limited to, (1) rights as the sole member under applicable sections of the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act with respect to a sale, merger, consolidation or other transfer of the organization or its assets, and (2) as the Convention acting in session concerning a termination or modification of the relationship with BHS pursuant to Article IV, Paragraph 7 of the Bylaws, if deemed necessary based upon the nature of the proposed transaction recommended by the Board of Trustees of BHS.

Annual Meeting - 2006
Tennessee Baptists met at Bellevue Baptist Church, Cordova, November 14-15, for the Annual Meeting with the theme, "Tennessee Baptists Boldly Teaching." Tuesday evening provided a time of learning through multiple breakout conferences directed to the pastors, minister's wives, staff members, and laity.

During 2005-2006 through the new structure of cluster projects, affinity teams, and core ministries, your state missions staff has partnered with associations and churches with a common vision of growing healthy churches in the areas of worship, evangelism, discipleship, prayer, fellowship, ministry, and missions – churches that are empowered by the presence of God to carry out the Great Commission. The Executive Board reorganized their committee structure into: Administrative Committee, Budget and Ministry Committee, Christian Services Committee, Church Health Committee, Education Committee, Collegiate Ministries Committee, and Shared Ministries Committee.

Missions continues to be a high priority with the Convention as seen in 40% of Cooperative Program funds going to the Southern Baptist Convention, and Tennessee Baptists' gifts through the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions enabling support for 75 new churches this year. Volunteers continue to provide Disaster Relief from hurricane Katrina to victims in New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Partnership Missions Teams from across the state ministered in Iowa, Montana, the Canadian Baptist Seminary, in Rio de Janeiro and within our own state of Tennessee.

Partnering with churches and associations, in missions and ministry, the Convention's theme of Tennessee Baptists Boldly Teaching, the Tennessee Baptist Convention marched forward in its quest for Kingdom Growth.

James M. Porch
Throughout the 2006-2007 Convention year, Tennessee Baptists expanded their mission outreach through ministry in the city of Rio de Janeiro, the Canadian Baptist Seminary, the island of Malta, and the states of Iowa and Montana in addition to other placed selected by churches and associations. As the Convention year ended, plans were already being made for a trip to West Africa to survey an opportunity of mission exploration among those countries. Simultaneously with our mission outreach, a Cooperative Program emphasis entitled 10 x 10 in Tennessee was being finalized. During the 2007 Convention meeting, Messengers responded enthusiastically to the new approach to budget based on a percentage allocation. Early in the fall of 2007, the renovated Stokely Chapel at Carson Springs Baptist Conference Center was dedicated with great appreciation for the financial support of the Stokely family.

Throughout the year, the trustee leadership of the East Tennessee Baptist Hospital made vigilant efforts to preserve the legacy of that great healing ministry, even in the midst of a struggle with finances. The challenge proved to be beyond the Hospital's strong efforts to resolve the problem. Nevertheless, the ladies and gentlemen of the cooperative Baptist board of the Hospital made sure their legacy was preserved, resulting in Tennessee Baptists maintaining a presence and a two million dollar gift to the Executive Board to assist volunteers in medical missions.

The 2007 Convention also included a report to the Messengers that the Belmont University affiliation had been terminated by the University following long, arduous efforts by a special committee of Tennessee Baptists to maintain the relationship.

Highlights of 2007-2008
James M. Porch Once again consistent to heritage, Tennessee Baptists pursued a mission passion throughout the year. Hundreds of churches led of the Holy Spirit responded to the Baptist axiom of local church autonomy, and literally went unto the utter most parts of God's world.

A mission dream became focused with the donation of 20 acres of land near Mt. Juliet Tennessee by the Don Davis family. The site, a future mission mobilization center, gained new thrust through the launch of a capital fund-raising campaign.

Missions focus- long range- received affirmation through the Annual Convention gathering adoption of the five-year partnership agreement with West Africa. While we officially completed our gospel sharing season in Rio de Janeiro, many churches continue ministry to the Brazilian city.

By maintaining constant monitoring of Cooperative Program gifts, the Executive Board One Servant Family took advanced steps to continue to provide effective ministry within limited resources. Simultaneously efforts were initiated to assist churches shepherding folk through challenging economic times, and always with the appreciation of the sacrificial giving of the Tennessee Baptist family.

Early in 2008, Executive Director-Treasurer James M. Porch, announced his transition toward a new ministry passion beginning in 2010, and the Administrative Committee initiated the process to select the next Executive Director-Treasurer.

Primarily due to the nation's economical recession, the work of the Property Transition Committee continued at a slower pace.

Highlights of 2008-2009

The 2009 Convention annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists honored processes, procedures, and agenda to write the continual chapter in our chronicles. As the last annual convention prior to my retirement, the absence of often stress, and sometimes controversy, allowed me an occasion to reflect upon a variety of memories. All together, these remembrances over eighteen years together fill a season of honoring the Baptist principle of the State Convention autonomy and non-binding action impeding the autonomy of the local church. I choose to highlight this observation in the hope that a younger generation may heed the value.

Thank you Tennessee Baptists for your gracious expression of affirmation through the years. The recognition event on Tuesday evening provided Kelly and me a vivid reminder of the privilege to serve our Lord Jesus through his people called Tennessee Baptists.

Highlights of 2009-2010

Tennesseans responded to two heroic natural disasters with enormous compassion, commitment, and competency. The devastating earth quake that shook Haiti invited not only a humanitarian response but also an evangelistic opportunity, as Baptists from across Tennessee and the nation responded. Broken lives were restored through medical and other benevolent efforts. The open window for evangelism has seen tens of thousands Haitians come to Christ, as hundreds of new churches have been formed in the wake of the recovery efforts of the earthquake.

But in May, Tennessee Baptists had their own natural disaster as a "thousand-year flood" ravaged Middle Tennessee and upper West Tennessee. The response to the hurting in the shadow of our steeples became a real observable witness in our own state. Rebuilding in Haiti, as well as the restoration of lives in Tennessee, continues to provide us with the opportunity to be the hands, the feet, and the heart of Christ to suffering people.

On June 2, 2010 the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention extended a unanimous call to Randy C. Davis to follow Dr. James Porch as Executive Director-Treasurer. On a personal note, my resignation from First Baptist Sevierville, the following Sunday, marked a tremendous season of change in our lives. James and Kelly Porch have been incredibly supportive during this transition. And you, dear people, have graciously received Jeanne and me with encouragement and kindness. We are thankful for your prayers. The reception at Grace Baptist Church in Knoxville for your new Executive Director-Treasurer was very humbling.

Other highlights this past year include the approval of a TBC Vision 2021 Strategic Planning Team. The Convention, meeting in Knoxville, authorized the 2011 President of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, 2011 President of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, and the Executive Director-Treasurer to jointly appoint, from a balanced representation of Tennessee Baptists, a TBC Vision 2021 Strategic Planning Team. The team will provide periodic reports to the Executive Board and a final report to the messengers at the 2011 annual meeting of the TBC. The TBC Vision 2021 Strategic Planning Team was chartered with the following mission: (1) Serve as a forum within the life of Tennessee Baptists to discern the preferred future for impacting the harvest field called Tennessee and guide Tennessee Baptists in living out this reality. (2) Study how Tennessee Baptists can work together more faithfully and effectively in serving Christ through the Great Commission. (3) Review and recommend to messengers ways that Tennessee Baptists can improve our strategy, structure and funding base in order to reach the next generation and the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ. (4) Develop a clear vision for the Tennessee Baptist Convention and a strategic implementation process to achieve that vision within the next ten years, for recommendation to messengers.

The Convention elected Dr. Poly Rouse to a full term as President of the TBC. I resigned the position of President of the TBC on July 1 and Dr. Rouse, serving as Vice President, assumed the position of President. The election to a full term means that Dr. Rouse will serve as President longer than anyone else in the modern history of the TBC.

Also, the Convention approved extending for three years the Tennessee-Montana Southern Baptist Partnership and the Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary Partnership, along with a two-year renewal of the Tennessee-Iowa Baptist Connection.

The staff was authorized, under the direction of the Shared Ministries Committee, to initiate the planning and design process for a new worship facility at Linden Valley; and to conduct a fund-raising campaign to include a direct appeal to Tennessee Baptist churches through a special one-day offering effort.

Another highlight of the year is that construction began on the 30,000-square-foot Missions Mobilization Center in Mount Juliet on the approximately twenty acres of land donated by the Don Davis family.

In March of 2011, the Executive Board approved the recommendation in support of the Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union building a Missionary Home on the grounds of the Missions Mobilization Center, once $300,000 in cash and contributions were in hand. Tammy Saffel, WMU President, said they are prepared to use volunteer services. It is with great hope that groundbreaking can occur in the fall of 2012 with the 125th Anniversary Celebration of Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union.

In a special called session of the Executive Board on May 10, 2011, Dr. Bobby Welch was called as Associate Executive Director of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. Dr. Welch served for over thirty years as pastor of First Baptist Church, Daytona Beach, FL and served two terms as president of the Southern Baptist Convention. His first position was at Park Avenue Baptist Church, Nashville. Brother Bobby's joining the Tennessee Baptist Convention staff was certainly a homecoming. It is the Executive Director's intention that Dr. Welch help lead the way in turning around the decline of seeing people won to Christ, baptized, and discipled in Tennessee Baptist Churches. Roc Collins served as chair of the Search Committee that brought Dr. Welch to us.

In the fall of 2011, the Tennessee Baptist Convention entered into two new five-year partnerships: in Italy with IMB Missionaries to assist in Church Planting and in the Greater Cincinnati/Dayton Ohio area.

In September, Jess Fairbanks joined the Tennessee Baptist Convention Staff as Hispanic Church Specialist. In a great shock that saddened everyone who knew Jess, he went home suddenly to be with the Lord on October 13, 2011. Gary Coltharp, President-Treasurer, Tennessee Baptist Foundation introduced Bill Gruenewald, who joined the Foundation as Executive Vice President.

In the Fall meeting of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, an interim realignment of staff and organization was introduced. The purpose of the interim status is the anticipation of the completion of the work of the Vision 2021 Strategic Planning Team. The eight committees established as the interim standing committees of the Executive Board are: Administrative, Kingdom Growth, Leader Growth, Mission Support, Collegiate Ministries, Communications, Strategic Relationships, and Budget and Ministry.

The greatest highlight is the fact that Tennessee Baptist churches reported reaching and baptizing 8% (1,678) more Tennesseans in 2011 than in 2010. We praise God for the increase!

Highlights of 2011-2012

Randy C. Davis

In 2012, we celebrated with Baptist Memorial Health Care Corporation the 100th anniversary of that great medical ministry. It is uncountable the number of people who have been reached with the Gospel and impacted by the Gospel through the caring hands and hearts of the staff of this great ministry that is touching the Tri-State area of greater Memphis.

The year 2012 marked the conclusion of the first phase of work by the Vision 2021 Strategic Planning Team. This group of Tennessee Baptists from all walks of life studied for two years the needs and opportunities that are before us as a network of churches. Vision 2021 helped prioritize the work of the Executive Board for the next years ahead. These priorities are: starting churches, sending churches, strengthening churches, and supporting churches. The Vision 2021 Team's work will continue through a Transition Team that will be putting the "nuts and bolts" on the implementation of the recommendations contained in the report adopted by our Convention. The "Why" question was asked and answered in phase one by the Vision 2021 Team. Now the "How" question will be answered during the transition phase. One phrase stands out over and over again throughout the Vision 2021 report in helping to set the course for our future as a network of churches. It is the phrase, "Impact Lostness." To that end, the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and our staff made two bold strategic decisions: (1) The Baptist Center was placed on the market for sale, a decision motivated by wise stewardship. Our work no longer needs an 88,000-square-foot Administrative Center. Initially, we entered into a contract with Franklin Land Associates to sell the building for nine million dollars. However, in early 2013 the Franklin Land Associates abandoned their plans for our property as well as the former Murray Company located on the acreage next to us. The Baptist Center is back on the market and it is hoped that a sale will be completed in 2013. (2) The second major strategic decision made by Executive Board Leadership was to eliminate around twenty positions from our staff. While this process was very painful, it was very necessary that we fit our organizational structure to our present and future needs. We must constantly align all resources the Father places in our hands through the local church with mission focus and current strategies.

The year 2012 also saw the Executive Board authorize the use of $350,000 to complete the Worship Center at the Linden Valley Conference Center. It is hoped that the new Worship Center, replacing the old Tabernacle destroyed by the floods of 2010, will be built by 2013. The Convention also approved a new five-year partnership with Baptists in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Carson-Newman College changed their name to Carson-Newman University, reflecting an international presence and a growing diversity of disciplines offered by this long-standing Tennessee Baptist partner.

The "1-5-1" Harvest Plant Initiative was formulated and placed into initial implementation as we seek to model a group planting strategy, effectively utilized around the world in seeing lost people come to Christ. Early indicators reveal that at least 400 Tennessee Baptist Churches have embraced the "1-5-1" Harvest Plant Initiatives and have started intentional evangelism groups beyond their own campuses to help reach our state for Christ. The "1-5-1" Harvest Plant will officially be launched at the 2013 Annual Meeting of The Tennessee Baptist Convention in Chattanooga.

It is a joy to be with you on this journey.

A CHRONOLOGY

Highlights of 2012-2013

Randy C. Davis

The year 2013 was a momentous one for the Tennessee Baptist Convention, culminating in the November sale of the Tennessee Baptist Convention's Baptist Center located in Brentwood. The sale and subsequent move marked the end of a 45-year presence in the heart of one of the nation's best cities.

During the Spring 2013 Board meeting, members authorized a two-year volunteer missions initiative with First Baptist Church, Clarksville, and International Mission Board missionaries working in East Asia. The purpose of the partnership is to strengthen medical missions already being done there by members of FBC Clarksville. The initiative began January 1, 2014 and continues until December 31, 2015. The Executive Board approved two-year extensions to partnerships with Montana Baptists and the Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary respectively. The Tennessee Baptist Convention also entered into a five-year partnership missions agreement with the North American Mission Board's "Send North America Denver Coalition." The dates of the agreement are January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2019.

A unique event happened in Mt. Juliet, located just east of Nashville. Authorization was granted to allow ground to be broken and construction to begin for the WMU's missionary house. The house site is at the opposite end of the property where the Missions Mobilization Center (MMC) resides. The MMC was dedicated on June 1, 2013.

The Board dealt with several property transactions during 2013. It approved deeding the Walter State BCM Student Center, Morristown, to the Nolachucky Baptist Association; deeding the Roane State BCM Student Center, Harriman, to the Big Emory Baptist Association; transferring ownership of Sinking Creek Church property and building to Sinking Creek Baptist Church; and transferring the Tidence Lane cemetery, Whitesburg, to Whitesburg First Baptist Church.

The Vision 2021 Transition Team delayed 2013 action to dialogue further and work toward completion in 2014.

A final notable action taken during 2013 was reporting that the Salvation Bell would be taken across the state in 2014, and to every county, for the purpose of gathering people together for prayer.

Highlights of 2013-2014

The year 2014 was marked by a number of milestones and significant change for the Tennessee Baptist Convention. Most notably, the vacating of the Baptist Building that had been in the heart of Brentwoood for the past 45 years. Executive Board ministries are temporarily located at the LifePoint Building at Seven Springs Way in Brentwood about two miles from the former office. This will be home until May, 2017 when our ministry and missions church support center will move into a more permanent location.

The move did not slow the work of our ministry however. A significant highlight was the "Praying Across Tennessee" initiative that started in January and included our Executive Director taking the Salvation Bell (on loan from FBC Sevierville) to all 95 of Tennessee's counties. More than 600 ministry leaders and 5,000 other Tennesseans attended prayer rallies held mostly at county courthouses.

In June, Executive Director Randy C. Davis presented for affirmation the Five Objectives to the Executive Board which unanimously adopted the objectives as the course of action the Tennessee Baptist Convention should pursue. Those objectives were then also adopted by messengers to the 140th Tennessee Baptist Annual Meeting during November's Summit held at Brentwood Baptist church. The Five Objectives document reads in full:

CONVENTION SUMMARIZED HISTORY | TBC

A CHRONOLOGY

The mission of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention is Making Christ known by serving churches resulting in...

1) Seeing at least 50,000 Tennesseans annually saved, baptized and set on the road to discipleship by 2024

2) Having at least 500 Tennessee Baptist churches revitalized by 2024

3) Planting and strategically engaging at least 1,000 new churches by 2024

4) Realizing an increase in annual local church giving through the Cooperative Program that reaches at least 10 percent by 2024

5) Realizing an increase in annual giving for the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions that reaches at least $3 million by 2024

In light of the Five Objectives and because of a shift to a more regionalized mission focus, the Board of Directors Organizational Task Force was appointed to design an efficient and effective Board structure that better facilitates the work of Executive Board ministries.

Another 2014 milestone was the July 12th dedication of the Worship Center at Linden Valley Conference Center. The old tabernacle was destroyed by the 2010 flood. The Worship Center opened debt free because of an army of dedicated construction volunteers who contributed thousands of labor hours.

The Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union completed the construction of its mission house located in Mount Juliet and it was prepared for its first occupants.

The TBC entered a five-year partnership with the Guatemalan Baptist Convention.

Messengers to the 2014 Annual Meeting of The Tennessee Baptist Convention also heard, discussed, and adopted the Vision 2021 Transition Team's report and recommendations that resulted in the following actions:

1. The formal adoption of the Five Objectives for our entire network of churches which were affirmed in June, 2014 by members of the Executive Board.

2. The formal adoption of the Baptist Faith & Message 2000 in order to help preserve the Baptist identity of our shared work and to strengthen the integrity of our mission.

3. The formal adoption of budget allocations for the TBC's entities in order to more closely align the TBC with the 50/50 Cooperative Program giving model.

4. The formal adoption of adjustments to the minister's retirement section of the church retirement plan.

When Tennessee Baptists gathered at Millington, First Baptist Church in November 2015 for the 141st Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention during Summit, the messengers recognized several historic milestones. The milestones should remind us of God's grace to the continued work of Tennessee Baptists, that we are responsible for the rich legacy with which we've been entrusted, and that we must press on in Kingdom work so that those who come behind will have a platform upon which they can advance the gospel among the rapidly changing demographic that now makes up Tennessee.

A CHRONOLOGY

The first of our significant milestones during 2015 was the purchase of 2.3 acres in the Berry Farms Development in Franklin, TN, as the location for the construction of the "Church Support Center," the new home of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (EBTBC). Selecting the location was a long and prayerful process. The "Church Support Center Development Plan" was adopted as the guide for the construction of the new office building. The transition in the name from "The Baptist Center" to "Church Support Center" is intentional, done to communicate our core value that the denomination serves the churches. The mission of the Executive Board is to "Make Christ known by serving churches" and we wanted the name to reflect that.

Another historical milestone was restructuring the committees related to the EBTBC. The Board of Directors Organization Task Force was appointed for the purpose of designing an efficient and effective committee structure that facilitates the work of the revised staff organization in light of regionalization and the Five Objectives. The Five Objectives, affirmed by messengers to the 2014 Annual Meeting, focus our strategy for reaching Tennessee for Christ and for resourcing that effort through the Cooperative Program and the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions.

The Baptist and Reflector celebrated its 180th anniversary. That milestone places our state Baptist newspaper among the oldest continuously published newspapers of any kind in America. The Baptist and Reflector also launched an online version (baptistandreflector.org). The paper renewed its mission to inform the biblical worldview of Tennessee Baptists.

When the annual Southern Baptist Convention convened in Columbus, Ohio, in June 2015, it marked the 90th anniversary of the Cooperative Program. The Cooperative Program was launched in Tennessee at the annual meeting of Southern Baptists that was held that year in Memphis. That brilliant vision implemented by that generation of Southern Baptists continues to have a global missions impact.

Missions have definitely been part of the DNA of Tennessee Baptists. Two items of note are new churches and partnership missions. A record number – 66 – of new church plants or new churches affiliated with the TBC was reached during 2015. That number pushes beyond the previous record of 60 set the year before and far out-paces the 10-year average per year of 35. The increase comes with the intentional focus on Objective 3 of our Five Objectives, which emphasizes new churches.

November marked the 35th anniversary of Tennessee Partnership Missions. Thousands of Tennessee Baptists have traveled to dozens of countries and cities across America preaching the gospel and serving others as a result of our partnerships. During the Annual Meeting, Tennessee Baptists approved the East Asia Missions Initiative Renewal, the Harvest of Israel Missions Initiative, and a partnership with the Baptist Convention of New England and the State Convention of Baptists in Ohio.

Tennessee Baptists are moving forward with a renewed focus to reach Tennessee, reach the nations, and change their world for the glory of Jesus Christ.

Highlights of 2015-2016

The 142nd annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists in November 2016 was a commemoration recognition of what God is doing across our state. It opened with a Sunday night celebration that was marked by the powerful worship music of the Tennessee Mens Chorale and the anointed preaching of Steve Gaines, a Tennessee pastor and president of the Southern Baptist Convention. That week culminated a year of milestones, while at the same time reminding us to press into the new year focused on Kingdom work.

A key event early in 2016 was the groundbreaking for the new Church Support Center, which is located on 2.3 acres in the Berry Farms Development in Franklin, Tenn. That site was selected after a long and prayerful process and will serve as the new home of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board. The groundbreaking was an amazing celebration that featured our youngest generation and bags of soil brought from across our state – from Memphis to Mountain City – to represent that this new building is for all Tennessee Baptists.

And closely related to the groundbreaking in preparation for the new home of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, the name itself is new. For more than 90 years, the organization was called the Executive Board. However, that did not communicate who we are, what we do, and who we need to be in the future. With more than 145 different people groups and more than 60 percent of our population having no relationship with Jesus, Tennessee is a mission field any way you slice it and messengers to the 2016 Annual Meeting agreed. The new name serves as a constant reminder that we are a Great Commission people on mission to reach Tennessee for Christ.

In keeping with that theme, Tennessee Baptists launched new partnership missions initiatives with the Baptist Convention of New England and the City Reach initiative that messengers approved during the 2016 Summit. Tennessee Baptists have a legacy of reaching across our country and around our world through decades of partnership missions. However, there is such a growing spiritual need in our state within our five largest cities – Knoxville, Nashville, Memphis, Chattanooga and Clarksville – that we created this partnership opportunity in cooperation with the associations in which the cities are located. We believe we truly have Acts 1:8 opportunities in place for all Tennessee Baptists.

Tennessee Baptist Disaster Relief had one of its busiest years in a long time. Tennessee Baptists responded to 31 callouts and had major callouts to Gatlinburg, Louisiana, West Virginia, and victims of Hurricane Matthew in North and South Carolina and Georgia. As always, Tennessee Baptist volunteers were among the first to arrive and stay until the job is finished.

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board launched a new website in 2016, the first such launch in more than a decade. The web address is the same (tnbaptist.org) but the site is structured around our Five Objectives.

This is a great time to be a Tennessee Baptist. We have a focus to reach Tennessee, reach the nations, and change the world for the glory of Jesus Christ. It is a joy to be on this journey with you for another year.

Highlights of 2016-2017
Randy C. Davis

The 143rd annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists at First Baptist Church Hendersonville in November 2017 was a time to celebrate what God is doing across our state and an important time of transacting the business of Tennessee Baptist Convention. As has been the case the past three years, we opened with a Sunday night celebration service that set the tone for the entire week. Our Annual Meeting also marked the end to a busy year filled with significant milestones.

A key event during 2017 was the final stage in a pilgrimage that began more than a decade ago. Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) moved into the Church Support Center, which is located on 2.3 acres in the Berry Farms Development in Franklin. Tennessee Baptists began looking for a new home long ago and the Franklin site was selected after a long and prayerful process. It is also a testimony to the legacy of our Baptist predecessors. TBMB purchased the property and constructed the 32,000 square-foot building debt free as a result of funds gained from the sale of the former Baptist Center located for 45 years in Brentwood.

Tennessee Baptists have heard the message that any way you slice it, Tennessee is a mission field, and contributed a record-breaking amount through the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions (GOTM). The final GOTM total for the 2016-2017 offering year was $1,843,511.03, just $6,488.97 from reaching the year's offering goal of $1.85 million. It's the largest amount ever given in the 115-year history of the Golden Offering, reflecting a 7.6 percent increase over the previous year. GOTM contributions have increased more than 20 percent in four years. That is an amazing milestone.

Very closely related to the record GOTM giving, Tennessee Baptist Mission Board received an anonymous gift of $1,575,000 to endow the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions. The gift was announced during the April 25th meeting of the TBMB Board of Directors. Board members were informed the endowment will generate an estimated $50,000-$75,000 for the GOTM each year. With the creation of this GOTM endowment fund, others can contribute directly to the fund as the Lord leads, ensuring that generations to come will hear the gospel and that people will be leaving a legacy of supporting compassion ministries, church planting and revitalization, children's camps, collegiate ministry, leader development, and so much more.

The most interesting milestone of the year was relocating the remains of Tidence Lane, the first pastor of any kind to serve in Tennessee and a Baptist, were moved to the grounds of First Baptist Church, Whitesburg, which was formerly known as Bent Creek Baptist Church. Lane was the founding pastor of Bent Creek in 1785. Lane's remains, and those of his wife, were located in a field just a couple hundred yards from the spring where Lane stood on the bank and preached his first sermon to what would become the people of that congregation.

And finally, there are two remarkable milestones regarding Tennessee Baptists reaching people for Christ. During the 2017 Youth Evangelism Conference in Nashville, 712 teenagers made the decision to follow Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. And an indication at how quickly Tennessee's demographics are changing, the number of ethnic Baptist churches in Tennessee nearly doubled to about 200 in just 18 months.

This is a great time to be a Tennessee Baptist. We have a focus to reach Tennessee, reach the nations, and change our world for the glory of Jesus Christ. It is a joy to be on this journey with you for another year.

Highlights of 2017-2018

The 144th annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists at West Jackson Baptist Church in November 2018 was a time to celebrate what God is doing across our state and an opportunity to focus on winning Tennessee for Jesus Christ. We also enjoyed an important time of transacting the business of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. As has been the case the past three years, we opened with a Sunday night celebration service that set the tone for the entire week. Our annual meeting also marked the end to a busy year for Tennessee Baptists filled with notable milestones. Here are a few.

We are approaching the 100-year anniversary of the Cooperative Program, and to date, Tennessee Baptist Churches have given over $1.2 billion through the Cooperative Program throughout its history to support missions at every level, from locally to globally. It is still an ingenious, miraculous plan. Even though there has been fluctuation across the SBC over the past several years with a downturn in several states, Tennessee Baptists continue to rise to the occasion. Overall, we saw an average per church increase in Cooperative Program giving by TBC churches and finished the year collectively at 5.64 percent. We still have a ways to go to reach our Objective 4 goal of at least 10 percent per church by 2024, but we have reason to be encouraged.

One element contributing to the strong giving is that Tennessee Baptists hear the call that any way you slice it, Tennessee is a mission field. That reality is not only stoking the Cooperative Program boiler but fanning into flames a passion for the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions. The final GOTM total for the 2017-2018 offering year was $1,797,423.72, the second highest amount ever given in the offering's history. GOTM contributions have increased more than 17 percent in five years.

A historic development was the beginning of negotiations to sell a small portion of the Vanderbilt Baptist Collegiate Ministry property to the university. This property is strategically located in the heart of the campus and is in close proximity of the Greek housing. The property the university desires is mostly related to parking and a strip of land adjacent to the parking, and will have no bearing on the building or ministry. In fact, should the sale become finalized – and we have every reason to believe that it will – then the funds gained could be quite substantial and ensure that Tennessee Baptists have for years to come a viable gospel witness in the center of one of the most prestigious universities in America.

And finally, two remarkable milestones regarding Tennessee Baptists reaching people for Christ. We celebrated the 50th Anniversary of the Tennessee Baptist Youth Evangelism Conference in a mighty way. More than 1,400 decisions were made for Christ during the two days. As incredible, more than 400 people attended All Nations Camp at Carson Springs Conference Center. More than 36 nationalities were represented and 154 children made a decision to follow Christ.

God is at work in Tennessee and through Tennessee Baptists. We have a focus to reach Tennessee, reach the nations and change our world for the glory of Jesus Christ. It is a joy to be on this journey with you for another year.

The 145th annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists was held in November at First Baptist Concord, in Knoxville. With "Win Tennessee, By All Means" being used as the theme, the meeting included four days of inspirational worship, fellowship, and business. It opened with two worship services, held simultaneously at separate locations, on Sunday night. An estimated crowd of 2,000 attended the service at First Baptist Concord, which was referred to as a "Tennessee Baptist Homecoming" and featured Rick Barnes, the men's basketball head coach at the University of Tennessee, as the keynote speaker. Meanwhile, Black Oak Heights Baptist Church hosted a multi-ethnic worship celebration that featured 60 ethnic groups among the roughly 700 attendees. Later during the week, messengers elected Bruce Chesser as president and adopted a resolution denouncing Critical Race Theory and Intersectionality.

The annual meeting served as a bookend to another memorable year in Tennessee Baptist history. Below are just a few of the moments and milestones that made this year special:

During the summer months, Tennessee Baptist Mission Board launched the "I Stand for Life" campaign — an initiative that enabled Tennessee Baptists to show their unified support for pro-life legislation. The initiative culminated in August with a presentation before the nine-member Tennessee Senate Judiciary Study Committee. During the presentation, a pro-life petition that featured more than 16,000 Tennessee Baptist signatures was offered to the Committee. The number of signatures increased to more than 22,000 over the next few months.

One of the most exciting moments of the year came when it was announced that Tennessee Baptists had set a new record by giving the largest amount ever through the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions. The amount was $1,920,733, which was $77,222 more than the old record of $1,843,511 set in 2016-17. In addition to the record GOTM offering, Tennessee Baptists exceeded the 2018-19 Cooperative Program budget, giving $34,719,604, which marked an increase of 0.3 percent over the previous year and 0.64 percent above budget.

In June, Carson-Newman University trustees elected long-time Tennessee Baptist pastor and former college administrator, Charles Fowler as the institution's 23rd president. Fowler, who was serving at the time as pastor of Germantown Baptist Church, Germantown, was the first Tennessee Baptist pastor elected to lead C-N since at least the 1920s.

CONVENTION SUMMARIZED HISTORY

A CHRONOLOGY

Another memorable moment from the past year was the announcement that TBMB had paid off the remaining balance of an $8 million loan that originated in 1999. The loan was used to begin construction of Carson Springs Baptist Conference Center in Newport and Linden Valley Baptist Conference Center in Linden. With the final loan payment completed, TBMB became debt-free.

One of the most notable milestones of the year occurred when TBMB sent a check to the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, pushing the amount of all-time giving from Tennessee Baptist churches to the Cooperative Program to $500,000,000. The number represents the amount given since the inception of the Cooperative Program, which was initially approved during the 1925 annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, held in Memphis that year.

This year will be remembered as a time when TBMB took stronger steps to help churches prevent sexual abuse, including announcing plans for a Sexual Abuse Prevention and Response Task Force.

In actions related to Baptist Campus Ministries across the state, TBMB sold a small section of its property (6,480 square feet) on the Vanderbilt University campus in Nashville for $2.3 million. The board also bought additional property adjacent to the Tennessee Tech BCM and the UT-Martin BCM, which will enhance the ministries at both locations.

Most exciting of all, though, were the events and projects that led people to Christ. The annual Youth Evangelism Conference drew 6,000 attendees and saw 780 professions of faith in March, and the GoTell America Lakeway Area Crusade drew more than 17,500 people over four days and saw more than 850 decisions, including 341 professions of faith.

God was clearly at work in Tennessee during the past year, and he is using Tennessee Baptists to further his glory and further his kingdom. It is a joy to be on this journey with you.

Highlights of 2019-2020
Randy C. Davis

The past 12 months have certainly been unlike any other in Tennessee Baptist history. The worldwide pandemic altered the landscape and touched almost every event, ministry, and church in the state.

The annual Summit meeting — which would have marked the 146th annual gathering of Tennessee Baptists — was greatly impacted by the pandemic. There was no "in-person" gathering of messengers; instead, the Summit gathering, which had been planned for November 8-11 at Brentwood Baptist Church in Brentwood, was changed to an online event that was streamed through the TBMB website. The two-hour video event — the first-ever "Virtual Summit" — was viewed by people all over Tennessee and across the nation.

The theme of the Virtual Summit was "I Will Do A New Thing," based on Isaiah 43:18-19. The event featured "Good News" videos, an abbreviated president's message, prayers from ethnic pastors across the state and various reports and worship music. Because no annual meeting Convention business could be conducted during the Virtual Summit, a video demonstrated how the 2020-2021 budget would work. Videos also highlighted ministries funded by the Cooperative Program and the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions.

In many ways, Virtual Summit served as a "snapshot" of what 2020 was all about, especially in regard to ministry. From March through the end of the year, 2020 was marked with adjustments, postponements, and changes.

In the spring, when the pandemic first took hold, TBMB announced it would be "passing on practical responses in helping churches deal with a crisis." TBMB followed through on that promise throughout 2020 with information published on the website and the Baptist and Reflector.

In the spring, many churches made the decision to suspend in-person gatherings (including worship services) and move to online platforms.

TBMB staff members stayed connected with pastors and church leaders during this time of transition. Within a few months, TBMB staff members had personally contacted every Tennessee Baptist church (more than 3,000 phone calls and messages) to see how they were doing and to pray for them.

Also during the spring, TBMB leaders made the difficult decision to suspend the Youth Evangelism Conference in Nashville and the Woman's Missionary Union's annual Get-Together and Connection in Gatlinburg. Roughly two weeks later, leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention announced they were canceling the annual meeting, which was scheduled for June 9-10 in Orlando, Fla.

In addition to the pandemic, many Tennessee residents were also impacted by severe weather, including a series of tornadoes. Tennessee Baptist Disaster Relief teams sprang into action, providing assistance across the state. By the end of 2020, there had been 11,816 volunteer days and 103,018 volunteer hours reported.

Disaster relief continued for several months after the March and April tornadoes. In addition, Tennessee volunteers responded in record number to various hurricane responses and an ice storm in Oklahoma during summer and early fall.

Throughout the year, TBMB sought to challenge and encourage Tennessee Baptists. TBMB continually stressed that key decisions (such as when to gather and what events should be held) had to be made by each church.

As a whole, Tennessee Baptists learned how to gather together without actually "gathering." Technology such as Zoom and Facebook Live became a routine part of everyone's lives — and also opened new doors of ministry; doors that are likely to remain open for the foreseeable future.

Tennessee Baptists continued to give generously to meet missions and ministry needs in the state and around the world. At the end of the fiscal year on October 31, Tennessee Baptists gave $34,203,543 through the Cooperative Program. The amount was just 1.5 percent below the budget goal — amazing numbers, given the circumstances and economic hardships that TBC churches, and the nation, were facing.

When COVID-19 first hit, TBMB leadership prepared to see a dip of 20 to 40 percent in CP gifts. Instead, missions and ministry goals were 98 percent filled. Praise the Lord!

On top of it all, Tennessee Baptists gave a record $1,948,485 to the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions during the pandemic.

The death of George Floyd in Minnesota in May brought increasing awareness to calls for the end of racial inequality in the distribution of justice in the country. TBMB staff members Ternae Jordan, Charles Grant, and Thomas Bester provided extraordinary leadership during this time.

Other highlights included:

- Tennessee Baptists dedicated the Janet Bearden Welcome Center at Linden Valley Baptist Conference Center on July 25.
- The Baptist and Reflector celebrated its 185th anniversary with a special edition on August 19.
- Tennessee Baptist DR recorded the 250th response in its 42-year history when volunteers responded in November to an ice storm in Oklahoma.
- The board of directors of TBMB met November 11 via Zoom and adopted a $35 million Cooperative Program allocation budget. The directors acted as the Convention ad interim, in accordance with the Tennessee Baptist Convention's Constitution and Bylaws.

A CHRONOLOGY

- In December, TBMB announced that Tennessee Baptists had contributed 5,826 Christmas Backpacks filled with school supplies, hygiene supplies, and other items to be distributed to low-income families around the state. The number was a slight increase over previous year's total which made it even more amazing.

God was clearly at work in Tennessee during the past year, and He is working in the lives of Tennessee Baptists to further His glory. It is a joy to be with you on this journey.

Highlights of 2020-2021
Randy C. Davis, President and Executive Director

This season of ministry could be described as a year of restoration, rebooting, and radical generosity. Tennessee Baptists experienced revitalization in many areas of ministry after navigating through the headwinds of the global pandemic.

It was thrilling to return to in-person Summit at Brentwood Baptist Church. The 2021 Annual Meeting theme was "Forward Together with One Heart" based on John 17:21: "that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me, and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me." There were 934 messengers, with 503 churches represented, and 173 visitors. There were special times of prayer for those greatly impacted by COVID-19 and for those who were victims of sexual abuse. Clay Hallmark, pastor of Lexington First Baptist Church, was elected without opposition as TBC President.

Tennessee Baptists entered into a volunteer missions partnership with the Hawaii Pacific Baptist Convention through December 2025. Besides a "Resolution of Gratitude," messengers to the 2021 annual meeting of the Convention adopted a "Resolution on Integrity in Teaching, Preaching, and Leading"; as well as a "Resolution Regarding Financial Transparency Within Southern Baptist Entities."

Convention governing documents (Constitution, Bylaws, and Business and Financial Plan) were amended to build in flexibility for the annual meeting and address certain issues needing clarification and streamlining. Amendments to the Convention Constitution were adopted in first reading, pending the affirmative vote of the messengers to the 2022 annual meeting. It included the amendment of Constitution Article II to allow the seating of messengers from churches that give to the TBC-only portion of Cooperative Program. The expansion of the financial qualifications as a "Cooperating Church" was intended to correct an unintentional connectionalism with the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). The amendment does not change the definition of "Cooperative Program" but expands the definition of a Tennessee Cooperating Church.

The nation experienced a financial downturn in 2020, but Tennessee Baptists remained faithful. Total 2021 Cooperative Program gifts were $34,914,459. This was 2.1% ahead of the prior year and only one-quarter of a percent under budget. Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions (GOTM) totaled $1,721,191 at the end of the offering year. This was an 11.67% decrease from the all-time GOTM record of 2019. Although this was lower than the previous year, there was still much to celebrate when considering all the challenges faced throughout the pandemic. The Convention adopted the 2021-2022 Cooperative Program Allocation Budget goal of $35,000,000 to be allocated at 47.50% to SBC and 52.50% to TBC, unchanged from the previous year.

Together, Tennessee Baptists confronted the perils of the proposed Equality Act. If adopted, among many other concerns, this legislation could use the force of law across all 50 states to strip Christian and other religious ministries of their right to hire people of shared faith to pursue a shared mission. Also, it could be a government tool used to deny or threaten accreditation to religious colleges and universities if they do not apply sexual orientation and gender identity to dorms, sports, places of privacy, and even teachings.

Under the leadership of TBC President, Bruce Chesser, pastor of Hendersonville First Baptist Church, Tennessee Baptists voted and commissioned the TBC Sexual Abuse Task Force to evaluate the current allegation response process and available resources by both TBC and TBMB, compile a report, and include suggestions for improvements.

In June 2021, Tennessee hosted the SBC Annual Meeting. It was the largest since 1995, and much of that had to do with the location and the involvement of first-time messengers. A survey conducted of those in attendance showed that nearly 80% of messengers drove to the June 15th-16th meeting in Nashville. The Music City's proximity to many Southern Baptists was a main reason for the capacity crowd of 15,726 messengers, not counting guests, exhibitors, and others present at Nashville's Music City Center. In messenger count, Tennessee led the way with 2,012 messengers.

Unprecedented challenges, triumphs, and tragedies were experienced in 2021, but Tennessee Baptists, amid perilous and uncertain days, embodied courage, resiliency, and passion from Memphis to Mountain City.

It is a joy to be with you on this journey!

Highlights of 2021-2022
Randy C. Davis, President and Executive Director

Creativity and innovation are born out of crisis, change, and wholehearted commitment. This is the story of this season of ministry and new beginnings. Coming out of the pandemic, God has taught Tennessee Baptists to dream big. That's what has been happening in Tennessee. His people cried out to God for His guidance and direction to map out His plan for the mission field in Tennessee.

At the 2022 Annual Meeting, 843 messengers representing 444 churches gathered to celebrate, dedicate, and participate in the work to reach the cities, the state, and the world. The theme reflected this challenge: "Across the Streets, the States, the Seas" based on Isaiah 49:6b. The Convention elected Clay Hallmark, pastor of Lexington First Baptist Church, to serve a second year as president of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. There were directed calls to prayer throughout the meeting and a special time of prayer for missionaries in attendance.

Generosity flourished and exceeded expectations amidst an economic downturn. The Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions shattered all previous records. The final total for the giving year registered at $2,227,367, a 29.4% increase from the previous year's offering! This figure reflects the unity of the Convention and the firm belief that Tennessee is a mission field. Although Cooperative Program experienced a slight decrease (0.35% decrease from prior year and 0.59% behind budget), Tennessee Baptists celebrated the $34,791,766 that was sacrificially given throughout the fiscal year. The Convention adopted the 2022-2023 Cooperative Program Allocation Budget goal of $35,000,000 to be allocated at 47.50% to SBC and 52.50% to TBC, unchanged for the second year in a row.

Sadly, the Convention lost a beloved leader with the passing of James Porch, who served as Executive Director-Treasurer of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (now Tennessee Baptist Mission Board) for 18 years (1992-2010). Porch served during some very tumultuous days in TBC and SBC life, but at the end of the day, under his leadership, the network of churches in Tennessee remained together.

Messengers adopted on second and final reading a few amendments to the Constitution, including Article II to allow a church giving through the TBC-only portion of Cooperative Program to have messengers seated at the annual meeting. The Bylaws were also amended to clarify the scope of duty of the Committee on Credentials as it relates to the seating of messengers by specifying which provision of the Constitution defines a cooperating church (Article II).

A CHRONOLOGY

Tennessee Baptists renewed the partnership missions with the Guatemala Baptist Convention through 2027 and updated the covenant with Tennessee Baptist Foundation to recognize their services to like-minded evangelical Christian entities. In addition to a "Resolution of Gratitude," messengers adopted a "Resolution on Sexual Abuse," "Resolution on Avowing Opposition to Casinos in Tennessee," a "Resolution on Biblical Sexuality," and a "Resolution on Revival."

Tennessee Baptist ministers and lay leaders responded to the crisis of sexual abuse with creativity, wisdom, and zeal as the Convention's Sexual Abuse Task Force developed processes and resources to help churches and victims. This included a webpage and a book to guide churches that must confront this painful issue in their fellowship. This is a starting place for church leaders who care, and a foundational opportunity for churches to review the safety provided to those who enter their property and attend their ministry events. (see Table of Contents to locate the Ministering Well resource in this publication)

Summit also served as a launching point for the Acts 2:17 Initiative. The Convention focused on discovering God's desired future for its churches. It is essential for Tennessee Baptists to be united in heart, mind, and action and to be able to discern His will. The Futurist Team made a poignant presentation highlighting the top five trends/issues at hand: population, hardships, economic, societal, and church/religious. Beginning with Summit and continuing throughout the year, Tennessee Baptists came together in a number of venues and days to pray and share ideas, dreams, and visions. These meetings will birth new strategies and objectives for the future.

The future is before Tennessee Baptists! A new generation of leaders is rising. There are new opportunities ahead, such as the BlueOval City. By 2025, Ford Motor Company is planning to open this 3,600-acre campus in Haywood County. The campus will create over 5,000 plant jobs in addition to tens of thousands of construction jobs. Thousands of souls are coming to Tennessee very soon. What an opportunity to plant churches and reach the lost!

The road ahead is full of challenges, detours, and holy destinations. That's why I say...

It is a joy to be with you on this journey!

ANNUAL MEETING PROCEEDINGS

MINUTES

Proceedings of the 148th Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention

TUESDAY MORNING
November 15, 2022

1. Worship. A time of praise music was presented by the Tennessee Ladies Chorus (TLC) and Tennessee Men's Chorale (TMC) under the direction of Scott Shepherd, Worship and Music Specialist for Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB), to open the annual meeting. Included songs were: Psalm 150 (Praise the Lord); Thank You Jesus For The Blood; See Him Face to Face.
2. Call to Order. Clay Hallmark, President of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, Pastor, Lexington, First Baptist Church, called the 148th Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) to order at 8:30 a.m. The gavel used was made of wood from a log from the original building of Old Sinking Creek Baptist Church which was constituted in 1772-1773. The church has celebrated 250 years. The original log building still stands on the church property in Johnson City. It is the oldest church in both the Convention and the state of Tennessee.
3. Scripture and Prayer. Throughout the annual meeting, prayer and Scripture reading, as well as the closing benediction, was led by church planters from various churches in Tennessee. President Hallmark introduced Josh Allen, Pastor and Church Planter, Transform Church, Memphis, who read Matthew 9:35-38 and led in prayer. Their mother church was Collierville, First Baptist Church.
4. Committee on Credentials. Anthony Rhodes, Vice Chair, Committee on Credentials, Pastor, Union Baptist Church, Lexington, reported that 773 messengers had registered as of 8:00 a.m. from a total of 421 churches, including at least 17 churches located in each grand region of the state, which met the constitutional quorum requirement. Vice Chair Rhodes moved that these messengers, along with other messengers who were to be duly registered thereafter, be constituted as the 148th Annual Meeting of the Convention. The motion was adopted by a majority of raised ballots.
5. Committee on Arrangements. Phillip Dunn, Chair, Committee on Arrangements, Pastor, Mount Juliet, First Baptist Church, moved that the printed order of business be approved as presented, subject to any changes that might become necessary; and that the primary worship times in each session be given no later than the specified times. The motion was adopted by a majority of raised ballots. The adopted order of business is attached to these minutes.

12. Committee on Audits Report. David Ward, Chair, Committee on Audits, Pastor, Redemption Church, Columbia, reported that the committee reviewed the audits and financial reports of five Convention institutions, all of which received an unmodified opinion, meaning that the financial statements accurately represented their financial position. The 2021 audits for Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) and Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy (HCBA) were not completed by the time the committee met. The delays resulted from the upgrading of accounting software systems (TBMB), staff changes (HCBA), and fieldwork calendaring conflicts (auditors). The printed report is attached to these minutes.
13. Treasurer's Report. Randy Davis, in his role of Treasurer for the Convention, presented the Treasurer's report. The printed report is attached to these minutes.

    b. Davis announced that the 2022 Eagle Award recipient was Doug Duncan, Dyer, First Baptist Church. Early in life, Duncan felt led to become a community pharmacist so he could serve people and follow Jesus' example. He has been described as a godly layman, a modern-day "Barnabas" as he served the community of Dyer. The presentation took place at the Tennessee Reunion on Sunday evening, November 13, 2022 at Bellevue Baptist Church, Cordova. The award has been presented annually since 2016 to a Tennessee Baptist lay person who has demonstrated excellence in leadership and Christian character.
    c. Davis noted that, during the 2021-2022 fiscal year, over $26.7 million dollars was received as designated gifts above Cooperative Program funds. In Cooperative Program giving, the churches of the Convention gave a total of $34,791,766. The amount fell short of the previous year's contribution by $122,693 or 0.4% and short of the goal by 0.6% or $208,234. Of the Cooperative Program dollars received, $18,322,934 was sent to the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). This represented 47.50% of CP dollars after allocating the first $800,000 to Cooperative Program promotion and administration. In giving through the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions (GOTM), churches gave $2,227,367, which exceeded the goal of $2.1 million. Contributions to Disaster Relief (DR) were $1,551,072. Excluding DR gifts, the total gifts forwarded to Southern Baptist Great Commission ministry beyond Tennessee were $33,518,831 out of the total TBC receipts of $59,943,835, which represented 55.9% of all funds contributed by Tennessee Baptist churches.
    d. Davis thanked Tennessee Baptists for their generous gifts and recognized Beth Moore, TBMB Compassion Ministries Specialist, to lead in a prayer of thanksgiving for these financial blessings. Moore was a living illustration of the Cooperative Program at work. She was raised at Calvary Baptist Church in Elizabethton, graduated from Carson-Newman University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, served with the International Mission Board in India, and back home to serve Tennessee Baptists with TBMB.

On the Occasion of
The Bicentennial of Union University

WHEREAS, Since 1823, Union University has been "renewing minds, shaping hearts, and transforming lives through the power and truth of God's word through Christ-centered excellence"; and

WHEREAS, Over the course of these twenty decades, Union University—and its predecessor institutions—has trained tens of thousands of Tennesseans whose vocational callings have contributed to the flourishing of our state through industry, education, health care, public service, and Christian ministry; and

WHEREAS, Within two years of the founding of the City of Jackson as the seat of justice in the western part of the state by an act of the Tennessee General Assembly in 1821, the nine hundred residents of West Tennessee's "most significant city" at the time acted to found Jackson Male Academy, the oldest of the educational institutions that formed today's Union University; and

WHEREAS, Over the next century, Union University became heir of other nineteenth- and early twentieth-century academies, institutes, and colleges in Middle and West Tennessee, including Jackson Male Academy; its successor, West Tennessee College; and its successor, Southwestern Baptist University, all in Jackson; an earlier Union University located in Murfreesboro (1848–1873); and Hall-Moody Baptist Institute and later Junior College, located in Martin (1900–1927)—each of which was established to provide educational opportunities for the general public and to train ministers for Christian service; and

WHEREAS, In 1874, Tennessee Baptists united the state's three Baptist conventions—the General Association of Baptists in Middle Tennessee, the East Tennessee Baptist General Association, and the West Tennessee Baptist Convention—into a unified Tennessee Baptist Convention and set as one of its founding objectives to establish a "well-endowed thoroughly equipped University, of the highest order," accepting an invitation by the trustees of West Tennessee College to assume ownership of the college, renaming it Southwestern Baptist University; and

WHEREAS, Since 1874, Union University has trained thousands of Baptist pastors and other church leaders, hundreds of overseas missionaries, and untold thousands of Tennessee Baptists who work in their chosen fields as faithful Christ-followers; serve as church and denominational volunteers; share the message of God's redemption through Jesus Christ with their families, friends, and colleagues; lift up prayers on behalf of others; contribute to Kingdom purposes through their tithes and offerings; and "seek to make the will of Christ supreme in [their] own lives and in human society" (The Baptist Faith and Message, Article XV); and

WHEREAS, In 1907, Southwestern Baptist University was renamed Union University to honor one of its major benefactors as well as other faculty, administrators, trustees, and contributors who had graduated from the earlier Union University prior to its suspension of operations during and following the Civil War; and

WHEREAS, Sixteen presidents have capably served Union University from the time it was re-chartered by the Tennessee Baptist Convention in 1874; and

WHEREAS, The Tennessee Baptist Convention in 1925 secured a new charter for Union University in conjunction with the adoption of the Cooperative Program and clarity regarding the Convention's election of the University's trustees; and

WHEREAS, During the lengthy tenures of Warren F. Jones (1945–1963), Robert E. Craig (1967–1986), Hyran E. Barefoot (1986–1996), and David S. Dockery (1996–2014), the University received initial accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1948); established the University's first nursing program (1962); relocated the University's campus (1975); greatly increased its number of academic, student housing, athletic, and student services buildings (1975–present); achieved top tier recognition in prestigious news outlets (the late 1990s to the present); established a Center for Faculty Development (1997); witnessed exponential growth in annual non-duplicating

RESOLVED, That the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board of Directors meeting in Cordova, Tennessee, November 14, 2022, give thanks to God for putting it into the hearts of Tennessee Baptists to establish Union University, whose mission is to provide "Christ-centered education that promotes excellence and character development in service to Church and society"; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we express our gratitude that by God's mercy the administration, faculty, and trustees of today's Union University are fully committed to the same principles of biblical fidelity and Baptist distinctiveness upon which Tennessee Baptists founded the University; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we affirm the University's continued passion for evangelism, missions, and service in the pursuit of the Great Commission that all people may hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we pledge our own prayers and solicit the prayers of all Tennessee Baptists for the University's continued faithfulness and effectiveness in order that through it God may continue to raise up a host of Union alumni who will be salt and light in every context imaginable, serving the Church and society around the world, standing for truth with conviction and boldness, and making an eternal difference for the Kingdom of God until the day of our Lord's glorious return.

The update reflects the same language that the Southern Baptist Foundation and GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention have in their governing documents. 42. Futurist Team Presentation. Ryan Keaton, TBMB Emerging Generations Specialist, alerted that to be proactive, Tennessee Baptists must study the major trends and issues for Tennessee. The top five trends/issues were population, hardships, economic, societal, and church/religious. Population would increase in Tennessee by 2040 and would be more ethnically diverse. Hardships facing Tennessee were death from drug overdoses, increased suicide rates, high levels of mental illness, inflation, and gap in affordable housing. Economic trends were new technologies in automation, high levels of remote work, decline in number of farms and agricultural jobs, and burnout of "public facing jobs" like nurses, teachers, and ministers. Societal considerations were retirees would travel more, more individuals would self-identify as mixed race and non-binary, household sizes would decline with a high number of single-person households, blended families/grandparents raising families would increase, and distrust of government and organized religion would rise. Church trends showed that by 2070 Christians were projected to be in the minority in the United States. There were four types of responses to these trends: reactive (the future repeats the past; deal with changes), inactive (just go with the flow; life for now), pre-active (look for trends; see a new wave and ride it), and proactive (see the wave coming; get creative with it). The desire was to be proactive and this presentation was intended to start Tennessee Baptists thinking about the future and to prepare attendees for the listening sessions to come. Keaton stressed that Tennessee Baptists must seek God for the future of the next generation.

Resolution on Biblical Sexuality

WHEREAS, Scripture teaches that God created men and women in His own image, "Male and female, He created them" (Gen. 1:27); and

WHEREAS, Scripture teaches the goodness of the human body and calls us to glorify God with our bodies (Gen. 1:31, John 1:14, 1 Cor. 6:12-20); and

WHEREAS, Scripture teaches the inherent honor, dignity, value, and equality of the two sexes as created in God's image, male and female, each bringing unique and complementary qualities to sexuality and relationships; and

WHEREAS, Jesus affirmed God's order, design, and continuing work of creating His image bearers "male and female" (Matt. 19:4); and

WHEREAS, God opposes any rejection of His purpose and design, including the confusion of man as woman and woman as man (Gen. 1:27); and

WHEREAS, Many in today's culture consider gender a social and mental construct, severed from biological and physical reality created by God, allowing for one's sex to be solely determined by one's own self-identification and not by biological reality; and

WHEREAS, Actions seeking to normalize and legally enshrine confusion about sexual identity and promote hormonal and surgical procedures in order to externally modify one's anatomy from male to female and from female to male are outside God's original design; and

WHEREAS, Evangelical Christian churches are not without guilt in failing to reach out and minister the gospel of Christ with compassion and respect to those who struggle with same-sex attraction and gender dysphoria while at the same time often failing to address the sexual sins of heterosexual congregants; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee Baptist institutions, churches, and their leaders face continuing pressure to compromise biblical teaching on sexuality; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the Tennessee Baptist Convention, meeting at Bellevue Baptist Church in Cordova, Tennessee on November 15-16, 2022, call on Tennessee Baptist churches to faithfully and unapologetically confess the biblical sexual ethic in all of its fullness, including the fact God created humanity male and female; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we resist the spirit of the age that would pressure us to ignore sin and to call evil good and good evil on all matters, including sexual ethics (Isa. 5:20, 2 Tim. 3:1-5), and that resistance of the spirit of the age also includes any who suggest we must abandon a display of Christian love, kindness, and gentleness in order to stand boldly for and proclaim Christian truth and clarify sin (1 Pet. 3:15); and be it further

RESOLVED, That all of our image-bearing neighbors who struggle with sexual identity, sexual confusion, and gender dysphoria will be met with love, compassion, prayer, truth, and gospel witness in our churches, and be it further

RESOLVED, That we oppose all efforts to legally enshrine the notion that one's sex can be self-determined rather than by biological reality as ordained by God; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we oppose the use of cross-sex hormones, puberty blockers, or elective sex-altering surgeries in children; and be it further

MINUTES

RESOLVED, That a failure to speak the truth in love (Eph. 4:15) in our churches and to the culture on these fundamental matters of God's design and purpose would be both a failure to love God and our neighbor; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we will minister compassionately to families, friends, and others impacted by a loved one's decision to live contrary to their biological sex; and be it further

RESOLVED, That, because of our undying commitment to love God's image bearers by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all without exception (Matt. 28:19–20; Acts 20:27; Rom. 11:36), we will be able to echo the words of the apostle Paul about those trapped in sin, including sexual sin, "And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God" (1 Cor. 6:11); and be it further

RESOLVED, That we believe it is parents' responsibility to teach their children about God's gift of sexuality at an appropriate age and that no gender-altering surgeries should be performed on children; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we are against schools teaching our children pornographic material under the label of "sex education" and encouraging them to change their birth sex by indoctrinating them with gender confusion; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That the messengers of the TBC firmly believe in the sanctity of life and that parents have full rights and control of their children's education and the responsibility to protect them from sexual perversions such as and not limited to LGBTQ+, homosexuality, Lesbianism, same-sex marriage, drag-queens, gender dysphoria, etc.

The resolution as amended was adopted by a majority of raised ballots. (see item #25a)

78. Resolution on Revival. Shannon Benefiel, Associate Pastor of Operations, Hendersonville, First Baptist Church, read the resolution.

Resolution on Revival

WHEREAS, Many specific subjects become a focus of our attention as the world seeks its own direction; and

WHEREAS, We are called to speak Light in a dark world by way of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, Christians are not immune from the influence of this world and its direction; and

WHEREAS, True revival remains a movement of God and cannot be manufactured by men; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the Tennessee Baptist Convention, meeting at Bellevue Baptist Church in Cordova, Tennessee, on November 15-16, 2022, seek revival; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we seek revival personally through a daily relationship with Jesus Christ through the Word of God, through prayer, the Spirit of God, and the people of God; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we seek revival collectively as an autonomous group of believers called the church, led by a God-called man, leading his congregation to seek God's will for them as individuals, families, and collectively for the good of the Kingdom in their community; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we seek revival corporately as a Convention in order to stay acutely focused on our purpose resulting in winning our world to Jesus Christ starting across the streets, across the states, and across the seas.

Chair Smith moved to adopt the resolution. President Hallmark opened the floor for discussion. There was none. The resolution was adopted by a majority of raised ballots.

TBMB | REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

ANNUAL REPORT

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board "is a Christ-centered, field-focused, Great Commission organization created by Tennessee Baptists to serve Tennessee Baptist churches" and it has been an honor to serve the past year as Chair of the Board of Directors.

The past 12 months have been times of great challenge and opportunity. Cultural shifts continue to impact church life, while at the same time churches are recovering from the lingering effects that the COVID-19 pandemic had on their ministries. Your Board of Directors has not focused on the obstacles we face, but on the opportunities before us. God has called Tennessee Baptists to be faithful regardless of challenges and to see every obstacle as an opportunity.

Since the Convention met last November, the Board has acted with the conviction that God desires for Tennessee Baptists to move forward in faith and not give in to fear. The ministries of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board are designed to show kindness to those who hurt, to demonstrate love to those who are lost, and to serve the thousands of churches who are a part of the Tennessee Baptist Convention.

I want to express my appreciation for the staff of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board. This group of mission-minded followers of Christ are a talented and selfless group. Randy Davis, TBMB President and Executive Director, and his team are exceptional in their work on behalf of Tennessee Baptists. Harvest Field leaders are constantly engaging our churches and supporting them as they seek to develop healthy and effective ministries. Baptist Collegiate Ministry Specialists are reaching the next generation of leaders across our state. Disaster Relief leaders are consistently finding ways to help those who are hurting due to unforeseen circumstances. And I would be negligent if I didn't applaud the excellent work of our administrative staff. Their tireless work is much appreciated. As Board Chair, you all have been a blessing to me this year. Thank You!

The past year has been filled with action by your Board of Directors. You can see a summary list of the meetings and actions of the Board in the next pages. Let me share some other highlights:

Cooperative Program: As of August 31, 2022, giving through the Cooperative Program was 2.2% ahead of the previous year. I would like to thank the churches and pastors who have faithfully supported missions and ministries through the Cooperative Program.

Golden Offering: The 2021-2022 goal for the Golden Offering was $2.1 million. Tennessee Baptists responded tremendously to this challenge. The total received for the Golden Offering was $2,227,367. This was a 29.41% increase from the previous year. Thank you, Tennessee Baptists! The goal for the 2022-2023 Golden Offering is $2.4 million.

BlueOval City: Ford Motor Company is constructing one of the largest automobile factories in the world in West Tennessee. The population in this region is anticipated to go from 16,000 to 92,000 in the next decade. Tennessee Baptists in the area are working with their Harvest Field leader to devise a strategy to plant 40 new churches in the area to prepare for this growth. A portion of the Golden Offering has been designated to assist in this effort.

TBC Sexual Abuse Task Force: In both of our board meetings this year we heard reports from the Sexual Abuse Task Force. As this group evaluated the process, procedures, and prevention measures in effect at TBMB, their efforts resulted in the publication of a booklet entitled Ministering Well: Best Practices and Resources Related to Sexual Abuse Prevention and Response. This resource will be available to churches at the annual meeting of the Convention.

Linden Valley Cabin Village: The Board approved the construction of cabin village 1 at a cost not to exceed $1.9 million.

Guatemala Partnership Missions: The Board approved the renewal of our partnership with Guatemala. This partnership began in 2016 and as a result there have been 3,200 professions of faith.

Disaster Relief: Over $160,000 has been given to help with Ukrainian refugees. In Waverly, rebuild work has begun following the devastating flash flood. In Eastern Kentucky, 21 professions of faith were reported as our teams completed 149 jobs.

James Porch Memorial Moment: The Board paused at the September 13th meeting to give thanks to our Lord for the life and service of James Porch, who passed away on August 3, 2022. He served as the Executive Director-Treasurer for the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (now Tennessee Baptist Mission Board) from 1992 until his retirement in 2010. During his tenure, Tennessee Baptists crossed the $1 Billion mark in Cooperative Program giving. On a personal note, my first term on the Board began during Dr. Porch's ministry and I wish to express my gratitude for his service to Tennessee Baptists.

As my term as Board Chair concludes, I want to affirm the incoming leadership of the Board as Jeff Bowden becomes Chair-Elect and Victoria Tillman serves as Board Chair. I appreciate their friendship and the Christ-like spirit of these two leaders.

ANNUAL REPORT - BOARD ACTION SUMMARY

March 10, 2022 Meeting: Acting as the Board of Directors, the Administrative Committee elected Lanny Rose as vice chair of the Budget and Ministry Committee to fill the vacancy prior to the first committee meeting. The position was open because the original chair, Clay Hallmark had been elected as TBC President, and Jeff Bowden had moved from vice chair of the committee to chair. For ease of reference, these changes were reflected on the TBMB Standing Committee Assignments above.

6. Election of TBMB Board Chair-Elect for 2022-2023: The Board Chair-Elect serves as chair of the Administrative Committee for one year and becomes the Board Chair the following year. Ramona Hicks, as the new TN WMU President, started her ex officio term on the Board of Directors for TBMB in August 2022.

MINISTRY REPORT

In many ways, 2022 has felt like the dawning of a sunny day after a long season of stormy weather.

The previous two years – 2020 and 2021 – presented unprecedented challenges for our nation and Tennessee Baptist churches. The COVID-19 pandemic consumed our culture and our energy, and it bled into 2021. However, there was a resurgence of ministry and generosity during 2022, and God was faithful to work through His people to bring glory to Himself, and used Tennessee Baptists to serve families, friends, and neighbors throughout our state. I am thankful to be a part of an organization and a network of churches that seek to make Christ known across our state and beyond.

Here are 2022 highlights.

1. Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions record-high finish. Tennessee Baptists continue to respond to the challenge that "any way you slice it, Tennessee is a mission field." After a solid giving year lingering in the shadow of the pandemic, Tennessee Baptists exploded in generosity in 2022 giving $2,227,367 to fund mission causes across our state. That is an incredible 29.41 percent increase over the 2020-2021 giving year and a continued escalation in giving over the past eight years. I've been humbled by the way Tennessee Baptists always rise to the need.

2. Cooperative Program giving the strongest in a decade. The generosity of Tennessee Baptists extends beyond GOTM to the Cooperative Program. Amazingly, our collective giving as Tennessee Baptists has risen from No. 5 among state conventions to No. 2 over the last 10 years. We really can do more together than we can apart, and we realize it will take all of us working together if we are to reach our state for Christ.

3. Tennessee Baptist Disaster Relief response to the flooding in Waverly, Humphreys County, and the surrounding area. One of the most significant ministries Tennessee Baptists support through their financial generosity is Disaster Relief. When flooding hit Humphreys County in August of 2020, more than 700 homes were damaged with 500-600 of those being categorized as "major to catastrophic loss." As is always the case, long after the news cycle changes and everyone else leaves, Tennessee Baptist Disaster Relief (TBDR) volunteers stay until the job is done. It was finished this year with thousands of people served, homes rebuilt, lives returned to some sense of normalcy, and, most importantly, many people coming to saving faith through TBDR's ministry.

4. TBC Sexual Abuse Task Force's work on behalf of Tennessee Baptists. Tennessee Baptist Mission Board has for more than two decades served Tennessee Baptist churches by providing resources and training to help churches create safe environments for everyone. But with the issue of sexual abuse rising in the consciousness of Southern Baptists, TBC Presidents Bruce Chesser (2019-2021) and Clay Hallmark (2021-2022) set out to establish a task force that could help churches even more. This excellent group of ministers and laypeople from across our state, with an assist from TBMB staff, developed resources that will be an asset not only in Tennessee but to churches across the nation.

5. BCM at Vanderbilt Place's remodeling and reopening. Another strategic ministry Tennessee Baptists faithfully support is Baptist Collegiate Ministry. Following the sale of a small parcel of land behind the Vanderbilt BCM that consisted primarily of nine parking spaces, funds from that sale were reinvested in the facility that was well overdue for a much-needed renovation. The building was closed throughout much of 2021 but reopened in July of this year and is well positioned for decades of service to the university community.

6. TBMB Conferences Centers undergoing renovations. Our Linden Valley and Carson Springs Baptist Conference Centers have long been places for spiritual renewal and spiritual birth. Countless thousands have been impacted through the decades from having had the opportunity to retreat to the banks of the Buffalo River or the mountains. Hotel lodging at Carson Springs and Linden Valley has been fully renovated. We are seeing a resurgence in groups coming back to the centers after having to shut them down during COVID.

7. State Evangelism Conference renewal. After years of dormancy, the state evangelism conference was reinstated in January and hosted by New Vision Baptist Church in Murfreesboro. More than 700 people attended, offering hope that a fresh wind of evangelism is blowing across our state.

8. Ministering to ministers and church staffs. The TBMB staff continues to engage pastors, ministers, and staff through personal contacts. More than 25,000 personal visits, calls, texts, and emails have been registered to check on those serving in TBC churches. We saw the importance of this personal contact during the pandemic and we are committed to maintaining what we see as an important ministry as We Serve Churches.

This brief list doesn't fully touch on the other great work being done by your TBMB staff, but it does feature some of the diverse and relevant ministry opportunities our employees engage everyday as we strive to make Christ known by serving churches.

It is truly a joy to be with you on this journey.

BAPTIST & REFLECTOR

The Baptist and Reflector (B&R) continues to strive to produce articles and columns that impact Tennessee Baptist Convention churches. A major emphasis this year has been the Five Objectives and how states are still dealing with COVID-19 and how it has caused additional stress on pastors and churches. The paper provided extensive coverage of the impact of the Supreme Court's reversal of Roe v. Wade and the Southern Baptist Convention's decision to adopt the SBC Sexual Abuse Task Force Recommendations. The B&R has also provided coverage of the Tennessee Baptist Convention's Sexual Abuse Task Force and will cover their report during this year's TBC Annual Meeting in Memphis.

The B&R is mailed to more than 16,000 homes 26 weeks a year, reaching nearly 40,000 readers.

In addition, the B&R website has grown steadily since it was introduced in late 2015. Numbers are incomplete for 2022 but in 2021, 47 E-newsletters were sent reaching a potential audience of more than 20,000 people for each newsletter. During 2021, there were more than 400,000 page views and nearly 200,000 site visitors.

The goal of the paper is to "tell the story of Tennessee Baptists" through news, feature stories, and photographs. As in the past, in 2022 the paper placed a major emphasis on what Tennessee Baptists are doing to reach the world for Christ by focusing on stories related to missions and evangelism. This year the paper has focused on timely topics such as Baptist ministers and stress; and how Tennessee Baptists and Southern Baptists are dealing with sexual abuse issues within the denomination.

The Baptist and Reflector continued to utilize social media tools in 2022 such as Twitter. Editor Lonnie Wilkey regularly writes a blog that provides information for Tennessee Baptists between print issues.

The staff monitors trends that could affect Tennessee Baptists and prints those stories to keep readers informed. In addition, opinions, both from the editor and others, are printed and are intended to make readers think, reflect, and act.

The paper continually seeks to enlist new subscribers. More churches are needed willing to send the paper to their leadership such as deacons, Sunday School teachers, etc. B&R is asking its readers to consider sending, for the next year, one subscription to someone they know. If just a small percentage of B&R readers would do this, the print circulation would significantly increase. For more information about subscription plans, call the Baptist & Reflector office at 1-800-558-2090 or (615) 371-2003.

TENNESSEE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

In 2021-2022, Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union (TN WMU) challenged Tennessee Baptists to be relentless in living authentic faith in Christ, seeking God in prayer, giving sacrificially, and witnessing to others. This report shares information about some of the state events, ministries, and initiatives that have taken place.

TN WMU launched the Tennessee Youth Venture Team in the fall of 2021 to replace the former State Acteens Advisory Panel. The six to eight high school students chosen to serve on the state Venture Team each year are challenged, discipled, and mentored in a strategic missions lifestyle through a team retreat, Bible studies, missions learning experiences, and equipping opportunities with missions leaders and missionaries. The students selected to serve on the first team in 2021-2022 were Haylin Ownby from First Baptist Church, Sevierville; Noah Crook from City View Baptist Church, Knoxville; Pierce McNew from Mount Harmony Baptist Church, Knoxville; and Grayce McEarl and Avery Pace from First Baptist Church, Lexington.

Over 350 boys and leaders attended the 2021 RA Camp-O-Ree at Linden Valley Baptist Conference Center on October 15-17. This missions camping event for boys grades 1-12 is hosted by Mid-South Royal Ambassadors and TN WMU. Campers participated in various activities, challenges, and crafts while enjoying the great outdoors, meeting missionaries, and enjoying two action-packed worship services.

TN WMU produced a missions event kit for children in grades 1-6 with a 1980s theme, "Jammin' in a Box." The event kit included a Bible lesson, missions lesson, missions projects, and suggestions for crafts and games. The kit offered churches flexibility in ways to use it like a one-day event, weekend event, weekly event for a month, or day-camp setting. There were 75 event kits purchased or given to churches across the state to utilize.

In November 2021, TN WMU hosted a four-day New Hope Trauma Healing Bible Storying training in Knoxville that equipped eleven participants representing seven churches. This method uses key stories in the Scriptures to address trauma from a biblical standpoint.

Christmas checks were sent to missionary kids and retired missionaries on behalf of Tennessee Baptists.

- Checks for $150 were sent to 17 missionary kids whose parents serve with the International Mission Board (IMB) and are from Tennessee.
- Checks for $50 were sent to 90 retired IMB missionaries born in Tennessee.

These gifts are made possible through the TN WMU Missions for Life Fund and through an allocation from the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions for nurturing Tennessee missionaries and their families.

In 2022, Missions Get-Together was held at the Gatlinburg Convention Center on April 1-3 with a total attendance of 773 people representing over 175 churches. A total of $7,257.25 was collected for the event missions offering, with 90% going to the Legacy Hall/Linden Valley Youth Village Project and 10% going to Tennessee N Touch Endowment. For the event ministry project, participants brought more than 15,000 items and $2,660 in gift cards and cash that will be used to minister to refugee families across the state and international students working in the Gatlinburg/Pigeon Forge resort ministries area.

TENNESSEE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The 2022 TN WMU Annual Meeting took place on April 2 during the Saturday morning general session of Missions Get-Together. The meeting included highlights of the work of TN WMU and the election of 2022-2023 state officers and new Executive Board members.

- State Officers: President: Yolanda Heuser; Recording Secretary: Linda Rader; Vice President, East: Sheila Hall; Vice President, Middle: Ramona Hicks Vice President, West: Sandy Louden
- Executive Board members:
    - WMU Representatives: Rhonda Poore, Glenda Roach, Phyllis Cobb, Bobby Turner, Delores Coffey, Sharon Tyler, Colleen Richardson, Diane Sorrell
    - At-Large Members: Shelly Mowery, Karen Gruenewald, Sharon Murphy, Carmen Westerman

In August, Yolanda Heuser had to resign as TN WMU President due to health reasons. Ramona Hicks, of Hampton's Crossroads Baptist Church, Cookeville, who had been serving as regional vice president, succeeded Heuser in accordance with TN WMU's bylaws.

In April 2022, $39,700 in scholarships were awarded by the TN WMU Executive Board to 43 students attending graduate school, seminary, and undergraduate schools in Tennessee during the 2022-2023 school year. These scholarships are funded through endowments, invested funds, and the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions.

Christian Women's Job Corps (CWJC) and Christian Men's Job Corps (CMJC) are ministries of WMU that seek to help men and women break the cycle of poverty through job and life skill classes, Bible study, and mentoring. There are currently 20 sites (14 CWJC and 6 CMJC) in 13 locations across the state. Begin Anew of Middle Tennessee celebrated 25 years of ministry in 2022 as it was the first CWJC site started in the state.

The theme for the 2021-2022 Tennessee Missions Emphasis was "Same Jesus. Sharing Hope and Truth." The 2021-2022 Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions goal was $2,100,000, and the total amount given was $2,227,367. Besides this year's offering being the highest amount given in the 120-year history of the Golden Offering, it is also the first time since 2007-2008 that Tennessee Baptists have reached the goal for the Golden Offering.

The 2022-2023 Tennessee Missions Emphasis theme is "Do a New Thing," and the Golden Offering goal is $2,400,000. The offering year goes from September 1 – August 31.

"For we are laborers together with God," encouraging and equipping churches and individuals to engage in missions learning and involvement that enables them to fulfill the Great Commission.

COMMITTEE ON AUDITS

The Committee on Audits met on September 22, 2022, to review the audits and management letters of the various institutions.

Representatives of the audit firms were in attendance and David Ward was elected to serve as chair for 2022-2023. Harlen Simmons was elected to serve as vice chair for 2022-2023.

Andrew Warren of Deloitte & Touche, Nashville, reviewed the 2021 audit of Baptist Memorial Health Care Corporation and Affiliates (BMHCC). The hospital received an unmodified opinion on the audit with no major issues arising.

CapinCrouse, LLP, has been engaged to perform the financial statements audits for fiscal years ending 2020, 2021, and 2022 of those Convention Institutions that receive Cooperative Program funding. Daniel Campbell and Greg Griffin of CapinCrouse reviewed the 2021 audits of the following entities:

- Carson-Newman University
- Union University
- Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc.
- Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc.
- Tennessee Baptist Foundation

The committee examined the audits and financial condition of the various organizations, and all issues were addressed. Each received an unmodified opinion from the auditors. Audit findings and recommendations were considered.

The 2021 audits for Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) and Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy (HCBA) were not complete when the committee met and will be reviewed by the committee early in 2023. The delays resulted from the upgrading of accounting software systems (TBMB) and staff changes (HCBA).

The following members were recognized as they rotate off the committee (2019-2022): Mike Rainey, Paul Newbill, and in absentia: Effort Alexander, Robert Bean, and Joe Frejosky.

COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

The Committee on Committees respectfully submits the following report to the messengers to the annual meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and recommends its adoption and therefore the election of the individuals listed to the committees and terms as indicated. The Committee represents to the messengers that each individual meets the criteria for the position as defined by the Convention bylaws, including the requirement that persons elected to a position "will, if elected, covenant to serve in accordance with, and not contrary to, the Baptist Faith and Message 2000."

Please refer to the footnotes at the conclusion of the report for information on the sources of the Cooperative Program data. Because of differences in accounting years and other timing issues, the Cooperative Program percentage may not match the percentage used in the individual church budgets.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

David Worley, Chair
Mount Gilead Baptist Church, Cedar Grove, TN

Duties – The responsibilities of the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws include (TBC Bylaw IV, L, 5):

a. Regularly review the governing documents of the Convention and report any findings or recommendations it deems advisable to the messengers to the annual meeting.
b. Periodically review the Convention's procedures for selecting directors of TBMB, trustees of Convention institutions, and members of standing committees.
c. Study matters concerning the Convention's constitution and bylaws which may be referred to it by messengers to the annual meeting or by other sources, reporting its findings or recommendations to the messengers to the annual meeting.

Committee – The committee met on August 18, 2022, when it reviewed the Convention Constitution and Bylaws, resulting in the following recommendations to the Convention. Recommendation 1 is the constitutional amendment pending second reading by the Convention. Recommendation 2 is a bylaw amendment that clarifies a duty of the Committee on Credentials. The committee voted to present this report with recommendations for adoption by the messengers at the 2022 annual meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) in Cordova.

Process – In compliance with the current requirements of the amendment process as defined by the documents under review, the proposed amendments were received and considered by the committee at least 90 days before the annual meeting of the Convention. Also as required, these amendments are being published in the Baptist & Reflector at least 60 days prior to the annual meeting. These proposed amendments will then be presented to the messengers on the first day of the annual meeting for consideration on the second day.

Effective Date – Recommendation 1 is an amendment to the Constitution, which requires an affirmative vote by a 2/3 majority vote at two consecutive annual meetings. This is to be the second reading, which will cause the amendments, if adopted, to become effective at the end of the 2022 annual meeting. Recommendation 2 is an amendment to the Bylaws, which requires a 2/3 majority vote at one annual meeting, and, if adopted, becomes effective at the end of the 2022 annual meeting.

CONVENTION COMMITTEES
COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Summary – The proposed amendments are designed to realign TBC messenger requirement with Baptist polity, build in flexibility for the annual meeting, and address certain issues needing clarification and streamlining. The following explanations provide insight to the proposed amendments: (References: C-Constitution, BL-Bylaw)

1. Qualifications as a "Cooperating Church" address the Baptist polity issue of local church autonomy by stopping the requirement of connectionalism with the Southern Baptist Convention as the only financial requisite to being allowed to seat messengers at the Tennessee Baptist Convention annual meeting. (C: II)
2. References to a "first day" or "second day" of the annual meeting have been changed to "first session" or "second session." This would allow for the annual meeting to be conducted in a single day if necessary. Multiple sessions may be held during one single period of the day (e.g., two sessions in the morning, separated by a break). (C: Article IX.A.)
3. Notification periods for amendments, publications, and resolutions have been reduced to reflect the faster and more efficient communications systems in use. This change will allow for faster response time when dealing with critical issues. (C: IX.A.)
4. Other changes are stylistic in nature, for consistency of terminology, and grammatical correctness. (C: VII, VIII)
5. Clarification to specify which provision of the TBC constitution defines a cooperating church and, therefore, the scope of the Committee on Credentials' duty. (BL-Bylaw IV)

FAQ Questions – Further questions to the committee may be directed to response@tnbaptist.org or 615-373-2255.

1. Does the amendment to TBC Constitution Article II change the definition of Cooperative Program?
   No. The proposed amendment does not redefine Cooperative Program. Cooperative Program is the joint missions fund whereby undesignated receipts are received from churches for the support of the combined entities and missions efforts of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Tenneessee Baptist Convention.

2. What is the Baptist polity issue of concern related to the Constitution Article II amendment?
   The historical and biblical Baptist principle of autonomy of the local church is the polity issue of concern. Every Baptist church and denominational organizational level is independent and autonomous. Local churches, associations, state conventions, and the SBC are not hierarchically connected, nor should there be an imposition from one over the other to join a third. Baptist work is done through voluntary cooperation, not imposition. Yet, current TBC Constitution, Article II unintentionally violates this fundamental principle when it requires that a church connect with the Southern Baptist Convention via Cooperative Program giving before that church is allowed to send messengers to the annual meeting of the TBC.

   The SBC Constitution and the majority of the Tennessee Baptist Associations do not require that a church give through the Cooperative Program at all to be able to send messengers to the SBC annual meeting or join the association, respectively, which follows the independence and autonomy Baptist polity.

3. Is the messenger qualification based only on giving?
   No. There are two alignment aspects that define a cooperating Baptist church in Tennessee for the purposes of sending messengers to the TBC annual meeting. One alignment aspect is financial and the other is programmatic. The financial aspect is the one being expanded to accept messengers from churches that give to the Cooperative Program as well as from churches that give to the TBC-portion only of the Cooperative Program.

4. When was the current TBC Constitution Article II adopted?
   In 2008, in an effort to encourage churches to give through the Cooperative Program, Article II of the Constitution was amended to introduce for the first time the requirement of giving through the Cooperative Program in order for a church to send messengers to the TBC Annual Meeting. It has not increased the number of cooperating churches.

5. Does the amendment to TBC Constitution Article II weaken TBC's support of the Cooperative Program?
   No. The proposed amendment does not weaken TBC's support of the Cooperative Program. TBMB's strategic planning continues to move forward with a solid belief in the Cooperative Program as the best approach to missions funding. TBMB also believes that increased participation in the Cooperative Program is best gained by demonstrable facts of its benefits and effectiveness, not by perpetuating the current inconsistency with Baptist polity and the negative impact on the local church autonomy.

6. What are the the two portions of the Cooperative Program?
   In Tennessee, Cooperative Program has two portions, SBC and TBC. Messengers to the TBC vote annually on a CP Allocation Budget, determining the percentages of the allocation between the SBC and the TBC. The proposed 2022-2023 CP Allocation Budget remains at 47.50% to the SBC and 52.50% to the TBC. The percentages of allocation to TBC causes are also voted by Tennessee messengers. The SBC allocation from Tennessee is disbursed according to the percentages voted by messengers to the SBC.

7. Why should members from a church that chooses to give only to the "TBC-portion of the Cooperative Program" be allowed to vote on the full Cooperative Program Allocation Budget?
   Voting on the CP Allocation Budget is a privilege and a responsibility of a messenger to the TBC Annual Meeting. Participation in the process by messengers from varying perspectives forges, enriches, and strengthens unity and collaboration.

8. What is included in the TBC-only portion of CP?
   TBC-only CP includes the combined TBC entities and causes: TBMB, Carson-Newman University, Union University, Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy, TN Baptist Adult Homes, TN Baptist Children's Homes, TN Baptist Foundation, and Convention Operations.

9. What are the major Operational Giving Categories used by TBMB?
   TBMB uses five major categories for the reporting of church giving. The proposed amendment allows for "CP" and "TBC-only CP" giving churches to be considered TBC cooperating churches. The amendment does not contemplate giving to a single TBC entity as qualifying for the seating of messengers to the TBC. SBC allows any giving to any single SBC entity to result in the seating of messengers to the SBC.

   Category = Entities / Allocation Basis

   a. CP = SBC + TBC entities for allocation at TBC-adopted bulk (SBC) and individual (TBC) percentages
   b. TBC-only CP = all TBC entities for allocation at TBC-adopted individual percentages
   c. SBC-only CP = all SBC entities for allocation at SBC-adopted individual percentages
   d. TBC-designated = any TBC entity at Church-designated percentages
   e. SBC-designated = any SBC entity at Church-designated percentages

10. Is there still a connectionalism imposed by requiring giving to all TBC entities through "TBC-only CP"?
    No. While TBC-only CP includes entities that are independent and autonomous from each other, they are identified by the TBC as the very entities through which the TBC implements its various ministries. Naturally, messengers may propose further amendments to the TBC constitution on this matter.

11. Will members from a church that chooses to give only to the "TBC-portion of the Cooperative Program" be allowed to serve on TBC committees and boards?
    TBC's governing documents do not have a specific requirement of CP giving before a church may have its members considered for service on TBC committees and boards. Yet, traditionally, the Committee on Boards and the Committee on Committees take it into consideration and publish on their reports to the Convention each year the CP church giving and rank based on the CP total dollar giving during the prior fiscal year. Likewise,the percentage of undesignated gifts is published based on the church-provided information on the annual church profile for the corresponding year. Other giving categories may be included in these reports to increase transparency.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

"I remember the days of old; I meditate on all that you have done; I ponder the work of your hands."
- Psalm 143:5

The Historical Committee met at the Church Support Center, Franklin, on March 8 at 10:00 AM. The committee members present were Vice Chair Jeff Owens, Marilyn Holmes, Doug Brown, Jesse Griggs, Carolyn Campbell, Scott Ingram, Lorri Skelton, Kathryn Stewart, and Clay Hallmark. The present staff were Randy Davis, William Maxwell, Sing Oldham, Bill Choate, and Jessica Couch. The absent committee members were Chair Ira Ginn, Clint Alley, Frank Webb, John Dent, Brooke Boone, Thomas Foy, and Marvin Downing.

In preparation for the Tennessee Baptist Convention's 150th Anniversary celebration to be held during the 2024 Annual Meeting in Murfreesboro, a steering committee was formed with the following members: Jesse Griggs, Doug Brown, Jeff Owens, and Thomas Foy.

James Porch, retired Executive Director for the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (now, Tennessee Baptist Mission Board), was invited and accepted to serve as Honorary Chair of the steering committee. However, Porch went home to be with the Lord later in August 2022. His insight will be missed, even as his service will be remembered.

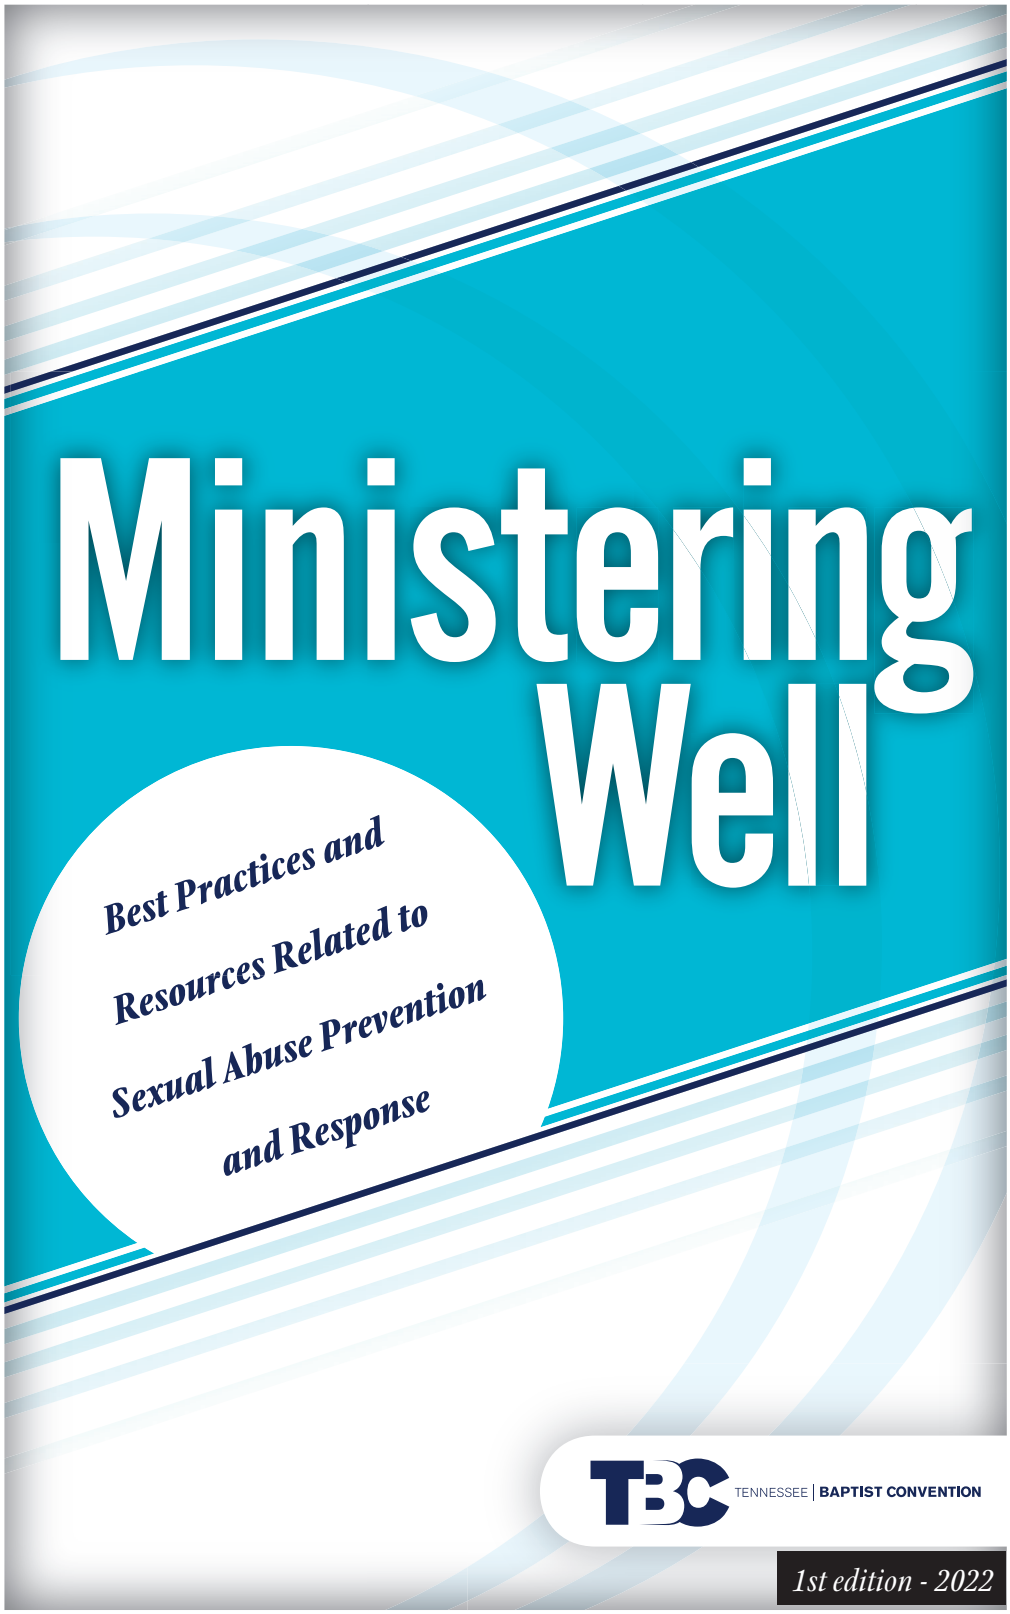

Following the formation of the steering committee, rotating-off members were recognized for their service.

Lastly, the committee unanimously elected Jeff Owens to serve as Chair for 2023 and Jesse Griggs to serve as Vice Chair for 2023.

May the Lord Jesus bless you and keep you,

In Christ,

A Letter from TBC President, Clay Hallmark

At the 2021 Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (TBC), messengers gave me the assignment of assembling a Sexual Abuse Task Force (SATF) with the purpose of being proactive in helping victims, churches, and Baptist people deal with the hurt, pain, and challenges of sexual abuse, allegations, and harassment. The SATF consisted of some of the finest Baptist leaders from across our state that has ever been assembled. Their focus, dedication, diligence, mercy, grace, and love have been evident throughout the process. Additionally, their expertise and education on the matters of sexual abuse have been unmatched. Each of the SATF members has a deep desire to make a difference in the lives of people and families who have endured or have suffered in any way related to sexual abuse. I believe you will sense their heart for ministry in these resources.

The goal of the SATF is not to just resource Tennessee Baptists, but to also equip them. Through Harvest Field team leaders, Association Mission Strategists, and churches, this booklet, along with our website www.tnbaptist.org/abuseresources, will give you the information and skills necessary to make a difference in the lives of others. Our prayer is that you will learn and implement these "Preventative Best Practices" and proactively know what to do if an occurrence of abuse takes place in your church or family.

Tennessee Baptists are a diverse group of God's people. There is strength in our diversity. There is also strength in our ability to unify this diversity for the purpose of Kingdom work. Together, we have the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of people all around us. Let us not forget the words of the Psalmist who reminds us "The LORD is near the brokenhearted; He saves those crushed in spirit (Psalm 34:18, CSB)." If this is the heart of God, then this must also be the heart of all Tennessee Baptists.

CONVENTION COMMITTEES

SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

TBC SATF Charter

On November 16, 2021, messengers to the 2021 Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, meeting at Brentwood Baptist Church, Brentwood, Tennessee, authorized the newly elected president

"to appoint a sexual abuse task force for the purpose of evaluating:

1) The process of how The Tennessee Baptist Convention (TBC) responds to allegations of sexual abuse occurring in churches and TBC entities and reported to TBC
2) The process of how Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) seeks to protect those it serves from sexual abuse and responds to allegations growing out of TBMB ministries and events
3) The resources and assistance provided by TBC and TBMB to cooperating churches to help educate church leaders on best practices to protect their congregants from the evil of sexual abuse."

The task force was charged to compile a report, including suggestions for improvements, for presentation to Cooperating Tennessee Baptist Churches no later than the 2022 annual meeting of the TBC in Cordova, TN. The TBC SATF published its initial report in the Baptist and Reflector on May 25, 2022. The TBC SATF concluded its charge with the publication of Ministering Well: Best Practices and Resources Related to Sexual Abuse Prevention and Response for presentation to the Convention on November 15, 2022.

PREAMBLE (with Addendum)

The members of the Tennessee Baptist Convention's Sexual Abuse Task Force (TBC SATF) believe that the best practices we are recommending need to be set within a clear understanding of Baptist polity. Doing so will allow us to do all we can to confront the evil of sexual abuse, within the parameters of our organizational polity. Looking to Scripture in concert with Article VI[1] and Article XIV[2] of the TBC's statement of faith, the Baptist Faith and Message 2000[3], we make the following observations about our polity:

1. We recommend widespread acceptance and implementation of the following best practices by all cooperating Tennessee Baptist churches as we seek wisely and prudently to address the issue of sexual abuse.
2. As an outgrowth of our collective duty to care for the abused, we strongly urge anyone who knows of or has reason to suspect that abuse has taken place to report it to law enforcement for inquiry into the incident and determination of whether abuse has occurred for the purposes of seeking justice and restoration for the abused, exoneration for the falsely accused, and strengthening of the churches for evangelism and missions. How can this take place with Baptist polity in view?
3. "A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel..." At a minimum, this means that Tennessee Baptist churches are autonomous. Further, it means that the TBC – as a network of churches – is not a "top-down" organization that can dictate the processes, procedures, or leadership in the life of a local church. Instead, the TBC is a "bottom-up" organization where like-minded Baptist churches voluntarily choose to cooperate with one another and with agencies, entities, and ministries."[4]

1 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article VI on "The Church."
2 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article XIV on "Cooperation."
3 Tennessee Baptist Convention Bylaw VIII prescribes that no person may serve on the specified leadership roles "unless the person has agreed that he or she will, if elected, covenant to serve in accordance with, and not contrary to, the Baptist Faith and Message 2000.
4 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article VI on "The Church."

CONVENTION COMMITTEES
SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

4. The "seat" of authority in Baptist polity is the local church, with the Lord Jesus Christ at the center of this autonomy, mediated through the centrality of Biblical authority.[5]

5. While the local church remains autonomous, the TBC may determine, as a body in session, that a local church is functioning contrary to and not in accordance with "principles, programs, and policies of the Convention."[6] In such cases, TBC can choose to disassociate from said church without violating that church's autonomy. This would be within the spirit of Article XV in the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 that we "should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick."[7]

6. However, local autonomous churches may at times "organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God."[8] For this reason, a local Baptist church may voluntarily associate with a local association, state convention, national convention, and their affiliate entities and ministries, or with none, any, or all of the entities and agencies that emerge out of this cooperation. These voluntary cooperative affiliations by no means usurp church autonomy.

7. Conversely, no single, autonomous church can dictate to an association or convention what it must do without the collective consent of the churches of the association or convention. Associations and conventions are autonomous as well. The boundaries and definitions of what it means to be a cooperating church within these affiliations are determined by the whole of the body.

8. It is within this framework that the TBC SATF can make recommendations, suggestions, and highlight best practices concerning this most important matter. While we can highly suggest, strongly recommend, and sincerely hope for widespread implementation of these best practices, we cannot mandate, require, or dictate what a local body of believers can or should do.

9. We recognize that churches and TBC ministries operate together,

5 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article I on "The Scriptures."
6 Tennessee Baptist Convention Constitution, Article II on "Composition."
7 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article XV on "The Christian and the Social Order."
8 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article XIV on "Cooperation."

"grounded in mutual trust for the purpose of common ministry."[9] Further, we recognize these important and sensitive issues can be divisive and need to be handled with great care, affirming that "Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth."[10]

10. Our goal in recommending these best practices is to be preventive rather than reactive.

11. We offer these best practices recommendations with sincere and well-intentioned hearts and minds in the hope of addressing the terrible scourge of sexual abuse. These recommendations reflect previous statements and suggestions adopted by the TBC.

ADDENDUM

SIX OBSERVATIONS

1. The TBC (Convention) is a single unit. The will of the majority of the messengers from the cooperating churches establishes "the principles, programs, and policies of the Convention."[11]

2. Stated another way, no individual church or small group of churches sets the parameters for cooperation; messengers from the churches, acting in harmony with one another and acting as a super majority of messengers (two thirds), set the parameters on behalf of the whole.

3. Messengers establish for the Convention its interpretation of its "principles, programs, and policies."[11] Three illustrations suffice:

a. Messengers to the Convention adopted that The Baptist Faith and Message (2000) establishes the doctrinal framework for serving in any leadership role of the Convention, whether "as a member of a standing committee, a director of TBMB, a trustee of a Convention institution, or in any other elected leadership

9 Tennessee Baptist Convention Bylaws, Bylaw VII, Section K on "Relationships of Institutions to the Convention."

10 Baptist Faith and Message 2000, Article XV on "The Christian and the Social Order."

11 Tennessee Baptist Convention, Article II on "Composition" roles in and with the Convention." Bylaw VIII [12]

b. Messengers to the Convention require a church (a) to subscribe to and support the principles, programs, and policies of the Convention; and (b) to give financially to the Convention in order to send messengers to the annual meeting.
c. The TBC has, from time to time, declared that a church is no longer considered a cooperating church with the TBC for a variety of reasons.

4. If messengers to the Convention determine that a church is no longer a "cooperating church" with the TBC, it is not exercising ecclesiastical jurisdiction[13] over the church since the church has the same right of self-determination whether or not it is deemed a "cooperating church" with the TBC.

5. If messengers to the Convention determine that a church is no longer a "cooperating church" with the TBC, it is not acting as advisory counsel in case of differences between the churches or associations;[13] it is determining for itself what constitutes acceptable practices to be deemed a "cooperating church" with the TBC.

6. If messengers to the Convention determine that a church is no longer a "cooperating church" with the TBC, it is not interfering with the constitution of any church[13] since no church constitution can impose the wishes or determination of that single church on any other Baptist body without approval on the part of both bodies.

12 THINGS A CHURCH CAN DO TO PROTECT MINORS

1. Institute the Two-Adult Rule: There must always be at least two adults in the room, in the car, in the van, or anywhere that minors are gathered. These two can NOT be husband and wife.

2. Institute the Six-Month Rule: An individual must be a member of the church for at least six months before being considered for work with minors in any way. Pedophiles and others looking to prey on minors will not likely stay at the church that long.

3. Carefully select all volunteers and staff who work with minors:

    a. Use an application process. Collect prior church membership, prior volunteer service, and references.
    b. Call prior churches, volunteer service entities, and references. Ask all for an additional reference not suggested by the applicant.
    c. Always ask prior churches and service entities, "Would you allow this person to work with minors at your church/service entity again?" A "no" answer requires more investigation.
    d. Conduct criminal background screening that includes sex offender registries. TBMB can connect you to a screening service.
    e. Conduct an interview with the applicant and ask tough questions.

4. Provide training to all volunteers and staff who work with minors:
    a. Teach age-appropriate interaction standards on how to physically and verbally engage with a minor.
    b. Teach how to spot abuse that may be happening elsewhere.
    c. Teach church policy on protecting the safety of minors.

REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

CONVENTION COMMITTEES

SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

5. Provide supervision of volunteers and staff. This is in addition to the two adults for all events including classes, outings, trips, recreation, and other activities. Their assignment is to ensure conformation to policy and procedures.

6. Institute a communication policy. This would include parental approval of any electronic communication between volunteers and staff with minors.

7. Develop a comprehensive security plan for the church:

    a. Make sure that the person who picks up the minor is the same person who dropped off the minor or has some form of specific permission to pick up the minor (e.g., tag given to person dropping off).
    b. Secure hallways and classrooms so that unauthorized adults can NOT come in contact with minors.
    c. Require that leaders wear photo ID badges.

8. Engage Parents as Partners in Ministry:

    a. Conduct an all-parents meeting at least annually where you talk about the ministry and what parents can expect to happen during the year.
    b. Review the procedures, protocols, and documents used by the church to keep children safe.
    c. Engage parents to serve as volunteers where appropriate.

9. Put windows in all classroom doors. Do NOT allow anyone to cover those windows up. Supervisor should be able to walk by classrooms and observe.

10. Avoid transportation in private vehicles: Rent or own vans or buses, so that the two-adult rule can be easily instituted. Set standards for approved drivers and conduct Motor Vehicle Registration (MVR) checks on all drivers.

11. Communicate policies to Church: Regular communication of policies and procedures within the church will not only reassure members and visitors of the safe environment, but it will create a culture of child safety so that everyone will notice when something is not right. It will also steer predators away from the church.

12. Prepare an allegation response plan. The plan should include calling the authorities to investigate, communicating with parents, communicating with church when appropriate, and dealing with news media.

For clarity, the following are some fundamental definitions:

The Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) is an autonomous unincorporated association composed of messengers who are members of, and have been chosen by, autonomous Baptist churches which have chosen to cooperate. Messengers determine Cooperative Program allocations and ministry priorities for the Convention, elect officers and standing committee members, appoint TBMB directors and Convention institution trustees, adopt recommendations and resolutions on matters of interest, and hear reports from related entities.

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) is a nonprofit, religious, public benefit corporation, and is governed by Directors appointed by the Convention. TBMB is responsible for conducting all activities on behalf of the Convention between the meetings of the Convention. (Convention Constitution Article VII and Bylaw VI)

Convention Institutions are those entities identified in the Convention Bylaws whose trustees (governing body) are appointed by the Convention. The Convention institutions are autonomous nonprofit corporations, neither owned nor operated by the Convention. Governance of the Convention institutions is vested in their respective boards of trust in all matters. (Convention Bylaw VII)

Galatians 5:22-26 "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other."

"THE FORGOTTEN PRACTICE OF CHURCH DISCIPLINE"

By Alan Stewart, Senior Pastor, Rechoboth Baptist Church

Several years ago, I had a pastor friend who was facing a serious situation in his church. He had made the discovery that his youth pastor had engaged in sexual misconduct with one of the young men in the youth group. As the situation was being investigated, it was discovered that the youth pastor had a long track record of the same behavior in five previous churches. However, each of those churches had passed him along to the next with a favorable and glowing recommendation. The story made headline news, and by the time the dust had settled, the damage had been done.

Stories like this have become all too commonplace. While it does not surprise us to hear such stories in secular society, we are left shocked and alarmed to hear that such behavior has infiltrated the house and family of God. Even God's people are not able to avoid the alluring images that bombard their lives on a daily basis on television, on the internet, in magazines, and on billboards as they drive down the road. In such a sex-saturated society, how can we help protect people in our churches from sexual sin and from being the victims of sexual abuse?

It may sound simple, but the biblical answer is a long forgotten practice known as church discipline. I'm sure that most have probably heard of church discipline, but few have ever seen it practiced. For some, the subject brings to mind negative thoughts of extreme legalism. But, of all the things that a church does, few things can demonstrate the love of God and the power of forgiveness like church discipline. Perhaps it is this lack of understanding that has left many churches vulnerable to the effects of scandal from within.

When I began serving as a pastor, church discipline was simply not practiced in most churches I knew. I do not recall any courses on church discipline in Bible College or Seminary, and resources to give guidance were very limited. I am grateful for the wisdom shared with me by Pastor Dr. Adrian Rogers and Greek Theologian Dr. Spiros Zodhiates. These men of God, under the direction of the Holy Spirit, provided strong teaching on the importance of this subject in Scripture. As a young pastor, I was greatly helped by their work.

SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

What I share with you is not an exhaustive list of "how-to," but rather a basic foundation for understanding the need and role of church discipline as we navigate through this challenging time together.

I. The Purpose Of Discipline

Galatians 6:1, "Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted."

In this passage of Scripture, Paul is writing to the church in Galatia to remind them of their role and responsibility in one another's lives, but also of their role and responsibility in maintaining a healthy, productive church environment.

In the twilight of civilization, Cain had asked the question of God, "Am I my brother's keeper?" Now, centuries later, the Holy Spirit would inspire Paul to pen an answer to that question as he would write, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

We do have a sense of responsibility in one another's lives, and there is a reason why. When one part of the body suffers, it will affect every part. The eye cannot boast that a tack is stuck in the foot and not the eye. Who knows but what an infection could set up in the foot and ultimately affect the eye. It is amazing how a simple sinus infection can bring fatigue to the rest of the body! In Matthew 16, Jesus warned of a leaven of moral and mental corruption that had a tendency to spread and infect others.

So, to state the purpose of church discipline very simply, church discipline is to stop and correct inappropriate and unacceptable behavior, and to seek to bring about repentance, forgiveness, and restoration. I like the way the King James words this word of wisdom in Romans 14: 22, "...Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth."

II. The Priority Of Discipline

Galatians 6:1, "Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted."

You will notice there is a priority to get to the bottom of a matter, and to deal with it accordingly. As Paul gives the instruction, he writes, "...if a man is overtaken in any trespass..." The word "overtaken" is describing a blind spot that someone is unaware of, a lapse of judgment, a deviation from truth and uprightness." But, further, this phrase carries the idea of "someone caught in the very act." You will recall the spiritual elite brought a woman to Jesus one day and said in John 8:4, "Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery, *in the very act." You see this similar concept presented in 1 John 5:16, "If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death..."

When it comes to dealing with correcting wrong in another's life, we must be sure to get to the facts. This will demand taking time to conduct interviews and a thorough investigation. Perhaps the best way to get to the facts is through the eyewitness accounts of others. The Bible speaks often of "in the mouth of two or three witnesses." (e.g., Deuteronomy 17:6, Deuteronomy 19:15, Matthew 18:16). This is great wisdom!

I believe it is imperative in our day that churches invest in a video security system. This is another means of gathering facts if the matter took place on campus. A few years ago, we had a child in attendance at our V.B.S. that made an accusation against one of the workers. It was not a sexual accusation, but it was a serious accusation nonetheless. We were able to sit down with the parents and watch every move their child made from room-to-room and discovered it had been a false accusation. The slight cost of the video security system saved us from a much greater loss.

However, if in the process of investigating, should the facts lead to the discovery that a crime has been committed, then the Bible tells us that we are to submit to the laws of the land. (See Romans 13:1-5). At that point, we have a legal obligation and responsibility to notify the findings to the appropriate authorities and follow all mandatory reporting laws.

III. The Parameters Of Discipline

None of us are perfect. If we go looking for imperfections and flaws in others, we are sure to find them. However, the Scriptures give us clear boundaries on those matters in which we are required to confront. When these issues are openly known and rebelliously practiced, we are to confront: heresy (1 Timothy 1:20, Titus 3:10-11), division & discord (Romans 16:17, 2

CONVENTION COMMITTEES

SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

Thessalonians 3:6, 14), and immorality (1 Corinthians 5).

While there are many issues that may fall under the umbrella of "immorality," the guidance given in 1 Corinthians 5 specifically deals with inappropriate sexual behavior. The Bible is very clear that we are to confront such offenses quickly when they happen in the church.

Another very important question to ask is, "Who should be involved in the discipline?" You will observe in all the other "one another" statements in the New Testament, each of us are commanded to carry them out. But, in Galatians 6, we find the only one with an exclusion. He limits who is qualified in verse one: "you who are spiritual…" So, who are the "spiritual"?

1. The word "spiritual" suggests those who have spiritual authority over you.
2. The word "spiritual" would indicate those who are Spirit-filled and Scripturally proficient. In the context of the closing verses of the previous chapter, Galatians 5:25 encourages those that "live in the Spirit" and "walk in the Spirit."
3. Those who are "spiritual" will possess redemptive hearts. The guidance given those who are spiritual is to "restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness."
4. Those who are "spiritual" are able to consistently demonstrate the love of Christ through forgiveness. That is, they understand Paul's words in Galatians 6:1, "…restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted."

Matthew 7:1-5 is a great reminder of why church discipline is limited to only those who are spiritual. It is as delicate as eye surgery! We wouldn't ask an electrician to perform eye surgery, and in similar fashion, church discipline should be practiced only by those with spiritual skills, knowledge, and sensitivity.

Depending on the church's structure of organization and government, the leadership is likely those who have already demonstrated the ability to handle such matters in a confident, caring, and confidential manner.

IV. The Process Of Discipline

There is an established pattern in Scripture that gives us a clear picture of how the process of church discipline should be carried out. In Titus 3:10, Paul writes, "Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition." In Matthew 18, Jesus also gives us the instruction of three steps. So, using Matthew 18 as a guide, I want you to consider those steps.

A. A Personal Confrontation

Matthew 18:15, "Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone..."

What Jesus is describing is a conversation that is one-on-one and face-to-face. (See 2 Samuel 12). In light of the evidence presented, the individual is to be removed from their active positions, and if they confess and repent, they are to be placed with an accountability partner to ensure full restoration. If there is no confession and repentance, then you proceed to step two.

B. A Private Conference

Matthew 18:16, "But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.'"

By taking witnesses, you strengthen the reproof. Again, if they confess and repent, they are to be placed with an accountability partner to ensure full restoration. If there is no confession and repentance, then you proceed to step three.

C. A Public Citation

Matthew 18:17, "And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector."

The word "hear" means "to disobey." The idea is the offender makes a conscious choice, and they choose their sin and lifestyle over their walk with God and their fellowship with the church. At this point, the church withdraws fellowship from the individual. (See 2 Thessalonians 3:14-15).

Should it come to this point, let me be very frank with you; this will be the most difficult thing you have ever done in ministry! Let me share with you what the experience of being involved in this third step of church discipline was like. During the public meeting, the charge was simply read without all of the graphic details, the dates when the first two steps of church discipline had occurred, and we issued a letter from the church giving the individual two more weeks to repent before officially withdrawing fellowship.

We then closed the service with every person on their knees at the altar in prayer. They were all asked at the conclusion of their prayer to quietly gather their belongings and go to their car without lingering around to talk. While no music was played, the sounds of weeping filled the air as they prayed for the individual. It was one of the most touching moments I've ever experienced in the house of God in my life.

V. The Perspective Of Discipline

In Galatians 6:1, Paul gives the perspective of church discipline when he writes, "restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness..." The very heartbeat of confrontation is to seek restoration, and glory is given to God when we are able to secure that in the life of both the offender and the victim!

The word "restore" is literally "restore gently." It is primarily a medical term that was used of a doctor setting a broken bone. The idea is, not only to set the broken bone, but to make sure that it is useful again. When we are able to do so, Paul calls it "fulfilling the law of Christ" in Galatians 6:2.

What is the law of Christ? It is bearing another's burden as if it was our own, and it is "to seek and to save." First and foremost, victims are owed our love and support. It takes courage to touch the wounds of others, but it takes Christ-like compassion and care to stop the bleeding, bind up the wounds, and to restore the wounded back to health.

Second, the glory of church discipline is the possibility of gaining rather than losing a brother. At any point or place when confession and repentance is received, we are to joyfully receive, release, and restore. Charles Spurgeon was once asked, "When a man falls in sin, when can he be used again?" He answered, "When his repenting is as notorious as his sin."

VI. The Product Of Discipline

Confrontation is a very difficult thing to do, but rightly and consistently practiced, church discipline will produce four things:

1. It will protect the purity of church body.
2. It will preserve the seriousness and fear of sin. That is, it becomes a deterrent to others as they understand there are consequences for actions and decisions. Paul would say in 1 Timothy 5:20, "Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear."
3. It will ensure that victims know they will find love, support, and encouragement from their church.
4. It will help to work toward the goal of restoring the fallen. Jesus went on to say in Matthew 18:15, "If he hears you, you have gained your brother."

I leave you with a quote from F.B. Meyer, "When we see a brother or sister in sin, there are two things we do not know: First, we do not know how hard he or she tried not to sin. And second, we do not know the power of the forces that assailed him or her. We also do not know what we would have done in the same circumstances."

APPENDIX

FIRST EXAMPLE OF GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

[SAMPLE] FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH POLICY ON ABUSE PREVENTION

SECTION E – PREVENTION OF PRESCHOOL, CHILDREN, AND STUDENT ABUSE

Date Approved: May 20, 2012 Approved By: Personnel Committee

Statement of Policy:

Members of [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church come from a variety of experiences, backgrounds and needs. Many of [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church ministries include young married and single adults who have children in our preschool, children and youth areas. Church leadership is committed to providing an environment which is as safe as possible for children and youth who attend the church or any sponsored programs or activities, and to take the necessary precautions to protect church leaders from accusations or suspicions.

Church leadership recognizes the need to have formal, written policies and guidelines to help prevent the opportunity for, or the appearance of, abuse to a minor. The following procedures are not based on a lack of trust in a particular worker but instead are needed to protect our preschoolers, children, youth, employees, volunteers, and the entire church body.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them." Mark 10:14, 16

"Now it is required that those who have been given trust must prove faithful." 1 Corinthians 4:2

Procedures:

1.0 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

.01 By fostering awareness of appropriate, as well as inappropriate, behaviors in the presence of minors, [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church, as part of the body of Christ, will demonstrate Christian love and respect for one another.

.02 Leadership recognizes that certain people have exceptional talents for teaching and supporting the growth and development of [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church children and youth, and we wish to encourage them to use their spiritual gifts. At the same time, however, we have set certain criteria for those adults who choose to serve in this capacity, so as to protect the well-being of our children and youth.

REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

CONVENTION COMMITTEES
SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

.03 Our intent is not to be judgmental, for we are all accountable to God. We rely on God's wisdom in developing, implementing and carrying out His will through these guidelines. Compassion and truth will be the guiding forces for any investigation, reporting, or follow-up action that results from the procedures as outlined in this policy.

.04 Congregational support is critical for adherence to this policy. The limited nature of our resources, and our desire to devote as much as possible to the work of the Lord, dictate that this policy be fully understood by every member of our congregation and extended family. This will enable staff and leadership to do what is within their power to preserve the church resources for the work of the Lord.

.05 In the context of these procedures, the words "worker" or "workers" can mean any of the following individuals who provide services or work support for the care and oversight of a minor in a ministry activity or event of [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church.

- Any full-time or part-time paid employee of [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church.
- Any self-employed individual who provides such care and support, and
- Any volunteer, no matter their age, which is not compensated for their services.

2.0 PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

.01 The following behaviors are prohibited for all workers. This list is not meant to be all-inclusive, but is intended to provide guidance as to what may constitute prohibited behavior.

- Threatening or inflicting physical injury upon a child or youth, other than by accidental means.
- Committing any sexual offense against a child or youth, or engaging in any sexual contact with a child or youth.
- Making any kind of sexual advance, or making a request for sexual favors, or engaging in other verbal, visual or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

[SAMPLE] FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH POLICY ON ABUSE PREVENTION

- The presence or possession of obscene or pornographic materials at any function of [SAMPLE CHURCH].

- The presence, possession, or being under the influence of any illegal or illicit drugs or alcohol while leading or participating in a function for minors at [SAMPLE] First Baptist Church.

.02 See Appendix A: (SAMPLE CHURCH) Safe Talk and Safe Touch Policies

3.0 WORKER ENLISTMENT AND SCREENING

.01 All workers with preschool, children, and youth will complete the Disclaimer and Authorization to Release Information, which will be used to initiate a background check. These forms will be placed in an appropriate confidential file maintained by the appropriate minister.

.02 Individuals will complete an application process, including an interview by the ministry representative, prior to approval. See Appendix B: Confidential Volunteer Application Form.

.03 Individuals considered for a volunteer position in the preschool, kids, or student ministries must be members of (SAMPLE CHURCH) for a minimum of 6 months with exception given to new staff, their spouses, and contracted ministry partners. All individuals serving in these ministries must have a cleared background check on file.

.04 All workers must be 18 years of age or older. Younger persons may assist adults, but they may not take the place of adult workers. The church may employ responsible teens (under the age of 18 years) in the nursery or other positions with and under the direct supervision of an approved adult worker.

.05 Names of all potential workers should be submitted to the immediate supervisor as an additional screening procedure.

.06 The steps listed above will be completed before the worker is allowed to serve in the preschool, children or youth ministries. Church leadership cannot assume that a person's prior behavior is proper without first verifying their past.

.07 Individuals who have been arrested for, charged with, under probation for, or convicted of either sexual or physical abuse cannot be used to serve nor will they be employed for any church sponsored activity or program for preschool, children or youth.

CONVENTION COMMITTEES
SEXUAL ABUSE TASK FORCE

.08 Adult survivors of child abuse will be asked to meet with the appropriate minister or director prior to working in the preschool, children, or youth areas.

.09 The use of adolescents must always be under the supervision and care of an adult teacher or adult worker.

.10 Workers shall be allowed to review his/her criminal records check and transcript at the church, but under no circumstances shall the church allow the worker to retain and/or copy his/her transcript.

4.0 GUIDELINES FOR VOLUNTEERS IN PRESCHOOL/CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

4.1 WORKER CONDUCT

.01 Under no circumstances shall a worker be alone with a child behind a closed door. Two adults must always be present in each room where children are present.

.02 Whenever possible the door to classrooms shall be kept open or, in the case of rooms with Dutch doors, the top half of the door shall be kept open.

.03 Classes shall remain in assigned spaces. If there is to be a change, the ministry director must be informed and approve the change.

.04 Each teacher/volunteer shall maintain a record/roll of children in their care. This record/roll shall be taken with the class in the event of a fire or other emergency requiring the evacuation of the room so that attendance can be taken after the evacuation.

.05 Care shall be taken that young children do not leave the ministry activity unattended.

.06 Classroom doors must never be locked while occupied. Teachers should be aware of the closest emergency exit in the classroom or hall should an emergency evacuation be required.

.07 Two adult workers must be in all preschool rooms at drop-off and pickup times. If one of the workers has not arrived, a parent must be asked to stay in the room until the second worker arrives.

.08 Touching to comfort or affirm a child in an age-appropriate manner is permitted. Children in first grade or older shall not sit in the lap of workers. Workers shall not touch children in genital areas except as necessary to change a diaper or to assist a child in the bathroom as noted below.

.09 Parents of preschool-age children are encouraged to change the diapers of their own children and can check on their children between services if they plan to leave their child for both services. Parents who expect workers to change diapers are encouraged to supply the diapers.

.10 The minister/director shall prescribe, and communicate to the workers, precautionary measures for dealing with dirty diapers, blood, vomit and the like, such as the use of protective gloves. Any items needed for the precautionary measures will be provided by the church. These rules will be updated as new knowledge becomes available.

.11 Either men or women may change diapers if it is done in the open and not behind closed doors.

.12 Only adult female workers may assist children in the bathroom and only where necessary in the case of handicapped individuals and small children.

Special arrangements, which may include a male worker assisting an older handicapped boy in the bathroom, may be made with the consent of the parents and the director. When a child is taken to a bathroom outside the room, someone must check the bathroom before the child is permitted to enter to ensure it is safe.

4.2 DISCIPLINE OF CHILDREN

.01 Physical disciplines, such as spanking, are never permitted. Using physical restraint to prevent a child from doing something disruptive or dangerous is permitted and may, in some instances, be necessary. Affirmation and encouragement is always appropriate.

.02 The minister or director shall advise workers on the best age-appropriate discipline methods.

.03 The behavior of a child who is a constant disruption to a class shall be discussed with his or her parents and the minister or director. In appropriate circumstances, the parents can be asked to attend class to observe or control the problem behavior. If the behavior persists, the child may be removed from the class. A child who is a danger to other children shall be removed immediately.

4.3 RECEIVING AND DISMISSING OF CHILDREN

.01 Children's facilities open fifteen minutes prior to church meetings and services. Parents are asked to call for their children immediately at the close of each session. Sometime even the well-adjusted child will become anxious if he is left after the other boys and girls are gone.

.02 Only the appointed and enlisted workers are to be in the classroom with the children.

.03 Preschool childcare workers are instructed to receive and dismiss children at the door of the classroom by the use of security tag stickers. When preschool children are brought to the preschool lobby, the parent or other authorized person will be asked to check their child in. The parent or authorized person will then be issued a security tag with the child's name and a unique ID number and a second pickup tag. The parent or authorized person will place the sticker with the child's name on the child and keep the other tag to present back to the worker when the child is picked up. The worker will verify that the unique security tag numbers match before releasing the child.

.04 Under no circumstances shall a preschool child be released from a classroom without the worker receiving the matching pickup tag from the parent or authorized person. In the event the parent's pickup tag is lost, the worker must ask for another form of ID/receive permission to release the child from the Preschool Director.

.05 With preschool and kindergarten children, only a parent or other authorized person may pick up children. Parents will be requested to provide the director with any special information regarding a possible child custody dispute.

Leadership shall pay particular attention to who picks up the child. All 1st-5th grade children are required to have a parent or authorized person pick them up from the classroom. There may occasionally be special circumstances where the Children's Minister or their designee releases children to their parents. Parents will pick up children immediately after worship services and before going to other activities.

[SAMPLE] FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH POLICY ON ABUSE PREVENTION

4.4 CONTINUING TRAINING FOR WORKERS

.01 The director shall encourage workers to take advantage of ongoing continuing education opportunities. Some classes may be mandatory.

.02 The director shall provide child abuse prevention material to help the worker gain appreciation for the real need for this policy. These materials will also assist workers in identifying possible child abuse in the future if they see signs of it.

.03 Mandatory training shall be provided on a regular basis for fire and building safety, first aid, the statutory requirements for mandatory reporting of child abuse, the definition of abuse and other operational guidelines. Workers who do not attend this training will be relieved of their service.

.04 Fire drills should be conducted for every classroom at least once each year.

4.5 COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTS

.01 Workers shall keep open lines of communication with parents.

.02 Parents shall always be permitted to observe in a classroom, although the worker may tell the parent that his or her presence may be disruptive to the child.

.03 Parents shall be advised that they must pick up their children no later than ten (10) minutes after the event is over unless special arrangements are made, with consent of the workers concerned.

.04 Parents shall be encouraged to change diapers and take children to the bathroom before class.

.05 Parents shall not leave a child if the child has a fever or other severe illness. Parents must advise the workers if the child is on medication.

4.6 STAFFING THE PRESCHOOL/CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

.01 There shall be a minimum of two adult, qualified workers assigned to each class, and a minimum of one assigned to each "break-out group" which is part of a larger class. In kindergarten and preschool rooms, at least one of the workers must be female.

.02 The ratio of workers to children shall never be less than 1:7 for preschool classrooms and 1:9 for school age classrooms.

.03 The director or minister shall make provisions for last-minute replacements of a worker who cannot be present on a given day. If the required number of workers cannot be obtained, the class must be combined with another class.

.04 Parents may be requested to work in children's rooms to fill in or substitute for other workers.

.05 To ensure that there shall be sufficient substitute workers available when regular workers cannot attend, the children's ministry shall develop a program to encourage parents to undergo the worker screening process and to screen these parents on a preliminary basis.

.06 Additional precautionary measures will be implemented for all off-site activities such as field trips and camping. The ratio of workers to children should be 1:4 for such activities. Furthermore, children will be grouped in pairs, the entire group must always be kept together, and a "roll call" will be made as needed.

4.7 USE OF VIDEO CAMERAS

.01 To further protect the children who have been placed in our care and the workers who so faithfully serve in this ministry, video cameras have been placed in the following strategic locations:

- Classrooms in preschool and children's areas
- Hallways in preschool and children's areas
- Playground

5.0 GUIDELINES FOR VOLUNTEERS IN YOUTH PROGRAMS

5.1 PHYSICAL CONTACT

.01 Back rubs, neck rubs, massages, kissing, or similar contact are not allowed. Side-by-side hugs are to be used instead of full body contact. Touching need not be completely avoided, but staff and workers must be aware of how it looks and how the person being touched may interpret the contact.

5.2 COMMUNICATION CONTACT

.01 Texting, emailing, or other means of communicating with youth individually without parental consent is generally not appropriate. As a rule, copy parents, staff, etc. if communication with an individual is necessary.

5.3 STAFFING CONSIDERATIONS FOR PLANNED ACTIVITIES

.01 A minimum of two (2) adults who have completed the required screening and training shall be present for all activities. A specific ratio of leaders to youth is not suggested; instead, the ratio shall be appropriate for the activity being undertaken. The youth's parent or guardian must grant any exceptions to the two-adult rule, and the appropriate minister shall be contacted in advance and advised that permission has been obtained.

.02 Any one-on-one meeting involving a youth must be conducted with the door open. Planned one-on-one lunches with members of the opposite sex must be held in public places and may only occur if (1) proper approval has been given by the parent or guardian. (2) the designated church official has been notified. (3) separate transportation is used. At no time shall a youth worker pursue a dating relationship with a student.

5.4 UNPLANNED MEETINGS BETWEEN MINISTER AND YOUTH

.01 Unplanned contacts between a youth and a minister or youth workers shall, insofar as possible, be conducted under the same rules, as are planned activities. It shall not be a violation of this policy, however, for the minister to talk with a youth in the minister's office with the door closed, when the youth has requested the closed meeting provided: (1) the door is closed for a relatively brief time, and, (2) the minister informs a fellow minister or ministry assistant at the beginning of the meeting. (3) the director informs fellow minister or ministry assistant at the end of the meeting. (4) the appropriate minister keeps a confidential record of the meeting, its duration and the identity of the youth involved, and (5) such meetings are infrequent.

5.5 DRIVING RULES

.01 All activities outside the church in which children and youth participate. require the completion of a Permission and Medical Consent Form and a Waiver and Indemnity Agreement.

.02 Only leaders or other qualified individuals may drive. Associational Report 2022

Carson-Newman University

Our partnership with Tennessee Baptists enables us to fulfill our mission as we serve our community, the marketplace, and the Church. Our distinctive Christ-centered approach to education is designed to equip students to leave C-N loving Jesus more and trusting the Scripture more.

This past year has included:

- The University completed our first year of a five-year strategic plan entitled Acorns to Oaks: Pursuing God's Preferred Future, marked by beginning construction of the Drama and Ted Russell Center, future home of C-N's nursing program.
- At the opening of the 2021-22 academic year, the University posted an enrollment of 2,835 students, the second highest in Carson-Newman's history.
- Carson-Newman was named a "Best Regional College" by Princeton Review. U.S. News & World Report ranked C-N's online graduate education program No. 2 in the state and No. 1 among Tennessee private institutions.

- The University's Board of Trustees approved the new College of Professional Studies which launched fall 2022. It's designed to serve adult and professional students with distinctive Christ-centered approach to education across the southeast.
- C-N changed the name of its "School of Religion" to "School of Biblical and Theological Studies," as well as launched a Master of Divinity degree this fall.
- Thankfully we saw God work by continuing to draw students to saving faith in Jesus Christ last year. This gave us the opportunity to hold a baptismal service in Mossy Creek.

- C-N's Campus Ministries partnered with GenSend, a North American Mission Board initiative, and sent three mission teams to Denver, Pittsburgh, and New Orleans during Spring Break. During summer 2022, students continued to serve in Denver and Pittsburgh, as well as missions in Jamaica, Nicaragua, and the Dominican Republic.
- More than 500 C-N students, faculty and staff participated in the University's annual Day of Service, taking part in projects across Jefferson, Hamblen, Blount, Grainger, and Knox counties.
- For the academic year, C-N students spent 21,500 hours involved in community service and outreach.
- C-N began a Delight Ministry chapter on campus, a nationwide organization with Bible studies and discipleship groups for college women.
- University renamed its "Appalachian Outreach Ministries" to "Appalachian Ministries of the Smokies" (AMOS).
- Carson-Newman honored Long Hollow Church Senior Pastor Robby Gallaty with the inaugural Ken Sparks Award. The presentation took place during the 2021 TBC Summit in Brentwood.
- Carson-Newman's Christ-centered education was the focus of an episode of The College Tour, Season 3. The series and C-N's 30-minute episode are featured on Amazon Prime, Roku, Apple TV, and other platforms.
- Chapel services are on Tuesdays at 9:30 during the fall and spring semesters. We would love to encourage Tennessee Baptists to worship with us when you can.

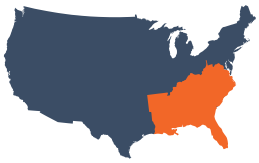

Highlights presented here are made possible because of the cooperation, support, and generosity of Tennessee Baptist Churches for whom we give thanks.

Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy celebrates 143 years as a distinctively Christian school, serving East Tennessee and the World. For the past 29 years, Tennessee Baptist's accredited Christian boarding and day school has operated as The King's Academy. The Academy continues to see God's hand of blessing as we enter into our second year after the global pandemic with a 16% enrollment increase from the 2019-2020 school year. Enrollment for the upcoming school year (2022-23) has eclipsed the previous year's numbers by 9%, and projections place the student body near the enrollment levels prior to the Covid-19 pandemic. We are incredibly grateful for the faithful support of the Tennessee Baptist Cooperative Program as we partner to continue to develop servant leaders who will change the world for Christ both locally and internationally.

This year, The King's Academy celebrates 90 years of ministry partnership with the Tennessee Baptist Convention. We are honored to serve alongside Southern Baptists across our state in the fulfillment of the Great Commission of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The King's Academy has served generations of students in the pursuit of a biblically-based, academically rigorous K3-12 education. While the heritage of The King's Academy is rich and deep, it is our belief that our best days as an institution remain ahead of us.

At the heart of all we do at TKA are three guiding principles: Faith, Family, Future. It is our desire that all that we do be done in the name of the Lord. Therefore, we unapologetically seek to develop the gifts and talents that the Lord has provided in each student. Through weekly chapels, small groups, and a biblically-based curriculum our students are exposed to the love of Christ in all we do. Secondly, we champion the fact that we are a family rooted in a love for one another. It is our desire that every student feels loved and welcomed at TKA. Finally, our goal as an institution is to prepare our students for the future that the Lord has prepared for them. Therefore, we seek excellence in academics, athletics, fine arts, and extracurricular activities to be able to fully hone and sharpen students' God-given gifts and preparing them for the future. It is a true honor to be your educational partner.

FAITH

2021-2022 will go down in the 142-year history of The King's Academy as a year of renewal in the face of change. While change can be difficult, it can also be fruitful. This past academic year saw some incredible blessings take place while coming out of a global pandemic that changed how education was done on our campus and throughout the world. This past year has been a healthy bridge from the past several years to the pending future of The Academy. Below is a brief look at The King's Academy by the numbers for the 2021-22 academic year:

1,000,070: This represents the faithful amount that has been raised collectively to the Legacy Fund and tuition assistance funds this year. These gifts represent the faithful support of so many.

77: The amount of faculty and staff who faithfully poured into our students on a daily basis.

43: This is our favorite number of all. This year 43 students accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior.

26: Number of Love Where We Live (LWWL) projects that served our community.

25: Average ACT score (State of TN Avg: 20, National Avg: 19)

17: Students who called our Residence Life Program Home (rebuilding the depleted numbers due to Covid-19)

9: The Academy ended the year at a 9% total increase in enrollment from the previous year.

7: TKA was blessed to start the year with a 7% increase in enrollment from the previous year.

1: The audience for which we do what we do: our Lord.

Thanks to partnerships like the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, The King's Academy is positioned to make an even larger impact on our community and world in our 143rd year of operation. We could not do what we do without the support of our families, communities, local and statewide churches, and so many alumni and friends of The King's Academy. Please continue to pray that the Lord will maximize the reach of this ministry as we strive to develop servant leaders who will change the world for Christ.

FAMILY

The King's Academy is more than a school and a mission field; it is a family. Through various programs and activities, The Academy has been able to minister to its stakeholders, East Tennessee community, and around the world. These programs and activities include the launch of the Love Where We Live service program, Big Buddy/Little Buddy program, the completion and dedication of the Dr. Carroll Reece Reagan Pavilion, and the Empukani Primary partnership in Kenya.

The Academy students and faculty began the Love Where We Live (LWWL) program as we sought to be the hands and feet of Jesus to Seymour and our surrounding community. Our faculty kicked off the campaign by serving our friends next door at Seymour Primary School. Student projects included clean-up work, playground preparation, providing meals for the hungry, serving our first responders, and so much more. This program will continue in 2022-2023 as we seek to develop servant leaders that will change the world for Christ.

This school year saw the beginning of the Big/Little Buddy program which paired up seniors with our kindergarten students. Participants participated in a variety of activities (field trips, programs, lunch visits, and so much more) throughout the year as they bridged the gap between the upper and lower grade levels. This program was a huge success and promises to be a fixture on campus for years to come.

The Dr. Carroll Reece Reagan Pavilion was completed in the winter of 2021 and dedicated on December 17th. The Reagan Pavilion was a gift of love from Mrs. Miriam Reagan in memory of her beloved husband, Dr. Carroll Reece Reagan. Dr. Reagan's legacy lives on as the pavilion is an integral part of the daily life on campus. We are thankful to Mrs. Reagan and the Reagan family for the incredible facility that will benefit our families for years to come.

Not only has The King's Academy ministered in East Tennessee, we have expanded our mission field by partnering with Empukani Primary School in Empukani, Kenya. This partnership began in October when October when President/Head of School, Jeremy Sandefur, visited Empukani. Upon his return, our students at The Academy began a Pen Pal program with the students of Empukani Primary. This summer, several teachers and administrators traveled to Empukani, Kenya, to serve at our ministry partner school. This trip provided The Academy faculty and staff opportunities to minister to students through Vacation Bible School, teachers through teacher training, and to the community by advocating for the Pen Pal Program. We are looking forward to expanding this partnership for many years to come.

These are a few highlights from the over twenty family and community events that took place at The King's Academy during 2021-2022. Through each event and program, The Academy was able to share the gospel as we continue to seek to develop servant leaders who will change the world for Christ.

FUTURE

The start of the 2022-2023 school year at The King's Academy has been an exciting time! The King's Academy has enrolled over 470 students, with 12 nations represented in our secondary school student body. Not only has enrollment increased by 9% from the previous year, but new additions to administration and grade level units have made this year exciting as well!

With the growth The Academy is experiencing, opportunities for additional class units and new academic offerings have become available. Additional class units were added to PreK4, 4th grade, and 5th grade. The new academic offerings include: French I (HS), Japanese I (HS), ACT Prep (HS), new middle school electives (Math Lab, Spanish, 7/8 Music History), and a math curriculum update for 1st and 2nd grade.

After much prayer, petition, and research, The King's Academy is elated to announce that the Board of Trustees has approved the upcoming J.T. Shen Science Center at Atchley Hall project. The J.T. Shen Science Center at Atchley Hall is the much-anticipated STEAM building project that has been in the planning stages for some time. The J.T. Shen Science Center at Atchley Hall will hold two state-of-the-art science labs, technology center, art studio, ten MS/HS classrooms, Lions' Den School Store, student study space, and an office suite. The J.T. Shen Science Center at Atchley Hall is poised to allow The King's Academy to continue to grow, as all classrooms are currently occupied and multiple grade levels are experiencing waiting lists. We covet your prayers and support as this exciting project will begin in the fall of 2022.

UNION UNIVERSITY

For 200 years, Union University has been renewing minds, shaping hearts and transforming lives. Many schools have come and gone over the last two centuries. Other schools, founded upon a commitment to the truth of God's Word, have long since abandoned that commitment.

But not Union University. Union remains as resolute and committed to its biblical foundation as ever. At Union, we believe God has spoken to us through the Scriptures. We believe the Bible is trustworthy, reliable and true. We believe Jesus Christ is our only hope for salvation. And we believe that pursuing Him and loving Him with our hearts, souls, minds and strength is what God has called us to do.

As we celebrate our bicentennial during this academic year, we do so with great gratitude to God for his faithfulness to Union University and to Tennessee Baptists for their years of generous support.

MISSION:

Union University provides Christ-centered education that promotes excellence and character development in service to Church and society.

Union celebrates 'Mission faithfulness and Christ-centered excellence' at bicentennial kick-off

With gratitude to God for his faithfulness over two centuries, Union University marked its bicentennial with a kick-off celebration Sept. 23 at the Carl Perkins Civic Center.

"Rarely has a Christian institution in this country maintained its mission and its relationship to its church constituency for this length of time," said former Union President David S. Dockery, who spoke briefly on the program about Union's history and legacy. "We can all agree that Union University in the fall of 2022 remains one of the premier Christian institutions in the country, with outstanding academics and wide-ranging programs in the arts, humanities, sciences, Christian studies, business, education, the social sciences and social work, engineering, nursing and pharmacy, among others."

The evening featured worship led by Union's vocal group Proclamation, with current students and alumni who sang with the group during their time at Union, in addition to stage band alumni. The program also included two panel discussions with trustees and current and former administrators who spoke about what Union has meant to them.

The Sept. 23 program was part of an entire weekend of activities that celebrated Union's bicentennial, including a chapel service, Buster's Bicentennial 5K Dash, a faculty and staff reception, a stage band alumni concert on the Great Lawn, a concert by David Crowder and a firework show.

At a Sept. 23 legacy luncheon, attendees heard a panel discussion with Union presidents Oliver, Dockery and Hyran Barefoot. Union also recognized the 100 people selected for inclusion in its Bicentennial Hall of Honor. Other bicentennial celebration events are planned throughout the 2022-2023 academic year.

"For 200 years, Union University has stood as a model of excellence in Christian higher education," Union President Samuel W. "Dub" Oliver said. "A place where learning is integrated with our faith in Christ, where it is infused with the hope of Christ and where it is transformed by the love of Christ.

"From a small-town academy to one of the nation's premier Christian universities, the story of Union University is one of faith, Christian commitment and dedication to excellence. And it is the story of how faithful people in faithful churches help sustain God's ongoing work of educating our young people."

As part of the weekend's festivities, Oliver on Sept. 24 prior to the Crowder concert announced a comprehensive fundraising campaign that will seek to raise $80 million by the end of 2026 to fund two new buildings on campus, to boost student scholarships and to enhance academics.

"Union 200: Tradition. Truth. Transformation." has already raised $31.6 million toward that goal through gifts that have been made and pledged.

One church's faithfulness through decades of scholarships leads to over 100 students attending Union University

In 1991, Paul Veazey, former director of planned giving at Union University, helped First Baptist Church in Paris, Tenn., create an annual church-matching scholarship for its students to attend Union University. In 30 years of faithful giving, FBC Paris has transformed over 100 students' lives by supporting their Union education.

As a first-generation Union University student, Trent Bullock ('88) first heard about Union through Veazey, a family friend. Today, Bullock serves as the senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Paris, Tenn., where the Veazey family remain active members. Bullock now helps continue Veazey's work in supporting and advocating for the FBC Paris Endowed scholarship.

"Paul Veazey was the first person who introduced me to Union," Bullock said. "I never knew that I would end up being his pastor one day, and to see how God has worked in all these years is incredible."

On staff with Bullock is Garrett Veazey ('19), Paul Veazey's grandson, who serves as the minister of students. Garrett Veazey said Union University helped him further discover and pursue his call to the ministry, and without the scholarships he received, he would not have been able to attend Union.

"The price of college keeps going up, so the scholarships I received help tremendously, and they helped equip me to be the student minister I am today," Garrett Veazey said. "None of the amazing experiences I had at Union would have been possible without the financial provision of so many who give generously to students like me."

As Garrett Veazey now mentors and continuously shares the gospel with students at FBC Paris, he sees how his four years at Union University helped shape him into the leader he is today

"For me, Union was much more than just earning a degree," Garrett Veazey said. "[The Union professors and staff] took me under their wings and loved me, and they taught me what it meant to be a Christ-like man."

Bullock encourages other churches to consider the great investment of supporting Union University students.

"Churches all around West Tennessee are served by Union graduates, not just as staff but as faithful church members and leaders," Bullock said. "I would certainly encourage all churches to take a step of faith and to create scholarships for these students, so that in years to come, they would see the impact it has on their students and their churches."

Alumni Profile: Brennan Kress, class of '22

A university that genuinely and actively upheld its Christ-centered values was the deciding factor for Brennan Kress ('22) to attend Union University for Christian studies with discipline-specific honors.

Feeling called to the ministry at the age of 15, Kress came to Union's School of Theology and Missions firmly believing that he was not called to preach. However, Kress said he could see God opening unexpected doors each step of the way, ultimately leading him to his current position as pastor of Harmony Baptist Church in Whiteville, Tenn.

"God — through Union — encouraged me to consider different paths and to try new things," Kress said. "I went from saying I don't ever want to preach to preaching twice a week."

As he began serving as pastor for Harmony Baptist Church while still a student at Union, Kress said the faculty and staff in Union's School of Theology and Missions and Office of University Ministries mentored, encouraged and guided him in ways he will always appreciate.

"The Union professors and staff really cared about me as an individual," Kress said. "When I started [at Harmony Baptist Church], I had professors continuously asking me how it was going, and the fact that they even cared like that was big."

Kress said being surrounded by fellow students who were grounded in their faith and passionately pursuing Christ challenged and strengthened his spiritual growth while at Union. To Kress, the people-focused atmosphere of Union as faculty, staff and peers walk alongside each other fosters a trusting atmosphere for deep relationships that can last beyond college.

As Kress pursues a Master of Divinity at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he knows the academic-excellence and personal mentorship he received at Union has prepared him well for the rigor of graduate school.

"I encourage prospective students to come to Union with a humble heart and a learning spirit because your faith and knowledge will be strengthened in ways you never expected," Kress said. "Your professors will challenge you academically, but the mentorships you can foster here are what will open the doors for you to learn and grow in a meaningful way. And that is the beautiful thing about Union."

REMARKS TO TBMB EXECUTIVE BOARD
September 13, 2022
Onward!

Thank you for the opportunity to share with you today.

We're celebrating our Bicentennial at Union.

For 200 years, Union University has stood as a model of excellence in Christian higher education. A place where learning is integrated with our faith in Christ, where it is infused with hope of Christ, and where it is transformed by love of Christ.

From a small-town academy to one of the nation's premier Christian universities – the story of Union University is one of faith, Christian commitment, and dedication to excellence. And, it is the story of how faithful people in faithful churches help sustain God's ongoing work of educating our young people.

Union stands as a testimony to God's faithfulness, and we remain committed to our mission of providing Christ-centered education that promotes excellence and character development in service to Church and society.

Our verse this year is Psalm 126:3, "The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad."

We invite you to join in praying this verse with us. This is the character we desire to have through all of our Bicentennial celebrations – thanksgiving to God who spoke the University into existence and Who sustains it day by day. We want to point not to us but to our great God and to Christ Whom we serve. And, we want our joy to be evident to all.

Union has an incredible history. Through fires and storms, changes and transformations, through wars and depression and pandemics; through good times and bad; through highs and lows, God has been faithful to His people and to this University.

Jackson Male Academy, the forerunner of West Tennessee College, opened on February 3, 1823. Madison County had been chartered by the Tennessee

CONVENTION INSTITUTIONS
UNION UNIVERSITY

General Assembly in 1821, and its county seat, Jackson, was created in 1822. As with other frontier communities, its people immediately began to establish the types of institutions that they had left behind, such as courts, banks, churches, and schools. Most of the trustees had gotten a good education for their day and wanted the same for their children. To obtain that objective, they established "a College of high standing and extensive usefulness," relying on the "cooperation and patronage of the citizens of West Tennessee."

The story of Union is the story of how two institutions – West Tennessee College and Union University at Murfreesboro – merged into one college, Southwestern Baptist University, and then Southwestern Baptist University changed its name to Union University and incorporated a third college, Hall-Moody Junior College of Martin.

It was by all accounts, a humble beginning. By 1844, West Tennessee College had a total of 24 students. The first graduating class had three students.

But God!

But God can do much with little that is yielded to Him!

From just a handful of students to over 3,000 students that will study at Union this year. From three in that first graduating class to now graduating about 1,000 each year.

This is your University, Tennessee Baptists.

It's a blessing to look back and see what God has done. Time only allows to tell of a few from those early days. Unionites like Tarleton P. Crawford who received an appointment as a missionary to China in January 1851, married Martha Foster in March, and graduated from Union in June. Tarleton and Martha went to China where they served as missionaries in education and evangelism for over 40 years. For a time, Crawford supervised the work of Lottie Moon, the great Southern Baptist missionary for whom our annual international missions offering is named.

And Unionite William H. Whitsitt, who served as President of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. And John W. Conger who founded two colleges in Arkansas – Searcy College (which no longer exists) and Ouachita Baptist University. And M. E. Dodd (a young man who grew up in West Tennessee and then came to Union) who originated the idea of the Cooperative Program that has funded SBC missions and institutions for almost 100 years now.

CONVENTION INSTITUTIONS

UNION UNIVERSITY

Or those called to public service like Unionite Howell E. Jackson who served as a Justice on the U.S. Supreme Court. And Benjamin B. Lindsey, judge of the juvenile court of Denver, who helped create the juvenile court system in the United States. And, you likely don't know that Union started a medical school in Memphis that is now the UT College of Medicine.

From the founding documents – "That we aim at the establishment of a University that shall be first class in all respects, that the standard be lifted high, and the course be thorough."

Tennessee Baptists – this is your school! It is you faithful giving that continues to propel the mission.

Bradley Kimbrough used the pages of the Tennessee Baptist to promote the cause of Union. In the November 1845 issue he raised two significant questions: Can [Tennessee Baptists] do anything without proper schools? And, can we have schools without expense? He then urged Tennessee Baptists to "think of this matter, pray over it, be united throughout the state." Finally, he challenged, "when you are called upon, be ready to act with [generosity] worthy of the great interest involved."

In December 1874, a committee of Tennessee Baptists reported, "Thus far the School has more than realized our highest expectations and the future is hopeful." Almost 150 years after that report and 200 years since our founding, we can say the same.

The minutes from that meeting go on to say something I want to emphasize today, "but let us not forget that in building up the University we are laboring not for our own selves alone but for the whole Baptist denomination...and let us hope that we are laying the foundation of an institution which we hope by the blessings of God to continue for the ages to come."

By God's grace we will soon a third century of partnership in the Gospel of Christ. May we never forget how important it is to continue to build up this institution for the glory of God and the good of mankind.

Showing What Love Is

I am happy to report that we have had only a few infections of Covid-19 in our homes. That is because of the faithful men and women who serve as direct care providers in our six group homes. As always, I remain grateful and appreciative for their diligence and vigilance as they joyfully "Show What Love Is." As of this date (July 21, 2022), Tennessee has the fifth lowest rate of vaccination, has a 25% infection rate, has a death rate from Covid that is double the national rate and we are again considered "high risk." So, we will remain vigilant as we continue to ride the roller coaster that is Covid-19.

The SOAR fund (Supplying Ongoing Aid to Residents) that was established through the Tennessee Baptist Foundation in 2019 has suffered losses, just as everyone who has investments anywhere. It is our hope and prayer that we will not need to invade the SOAR fund as we continue our development of Baptist Village Humboldt. Baptist Village Humboldt is well underway, and we are getting excited about opening our first two buildings in the coming months. When completed, Baptist Village Humboldt will have 10 duplex buildings (a total of 20 units) for financially needy seniors. We will give priority of placement in these units to retired Baptist pastors and missionaries.

We have had to cancel Special Friends Camp now for three years in a row due to our inability to find Counselors. Evidently, most camps everywhere are having the same difficulty in finding young people for staff. Due to these losses, TBAH has determined that we will not seek to have Special Friends Camp for the foreseeable future and possibly ever again.

Our Father's Day Offering receipts are pretty much on target to come in at a rate consistent with previous years. As always, we are hopeful that we will exceed our goal and avoid using any further reserves, thus allowing us to fund deferred maintenance projects at our locations. I cannot express strongly enough how important the proceeds from our Father's Day Offering are to our continued ability to provide the ministries of Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes.

Monthly video and Song at TBAH website: In an effort to get more traffic to our website (www.tnbaptisthomes.org), I started posting a new short video to the site each month way back in January of 2021. Each month of 2021, on the 21st day of the month, a new video posted. I called the series "The 21's of 21." All of those videos are archived at the site and they remain available.

I have continued to post a video each month this year. Quite unimaginatively, I am calling them "The 22's of '22." These videos are posting on the 22nd day of each month this year.

I am posting a new video each month for a few simple reasons.

- First, I sing a song each time (most often with the help of my son, Bryan) in hopes that the listener will find something they can identify with or appreciate.
- Secondly, by opening myself up a little to this vulnerability, I hope that visitors to the site may get to know me a little better.
- Finally, if reasons one and two above are successful, then it stands to reason a visitor is more likely to return to the site...and returning visitors are more likely to be "giving" visitors.

If you decide to visit the site to see one of these videos, please take a few minutes while you are there to see the wonderful ministries of TBAH.

Thank you, Tennessee Baptists, for your prayers and your financial support! Indeed, thank you for Showing What Love Is!

Real People, Real Testimonies

A child...

"When I came here three years ago I had nowhere to live. We would go from hotel to hotel and place to place just trying to survive. My grandparents rescued me from my homelessness and brought me to TBCH. Now I don't have to worry about what I will eat or where I'm going to lay my head at night. I feel safe thanks to TBCH."

A worker...

"The first kiddo that I ever worked with six years ago messaged me on FB this morning to tell me how he was doing now…just a good reminder that what we do matters even years down the road, and I was honored that he reached out to me to tell me his story of giving his life to Christ."

A family...

"The Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes helped to mold and shape my grandmother into the amazing person that she was. My family and I are grateful for the investment they made in my grandmother so long ago, and for the investment they continue to make each day in the lives of the children they serve."

A volunteer...

"God calls us to serve, and this is my community. I trust the Children's Homes. I believe that this is a group of people who love children with the love of Jesus, and that's a ministry I can get behind."

Plans for the Future...

We are excited that the city of Brentwood has approved our plan to build six new homes to safely care for children now and in the decades to come. These homes have been designed for safety with the needs of the children in mind. They include separate bedrooms and bathrooms for eight children, space for the houseparents and their children, and large family gathering spaces that will give the children a sense of belonging.

TBCH cannot do this without YOU! Each of these homes will cost about $1.7 million. Would you ask the Lord what part He might have you play in caring for Tennessee's children? If you have questions about our plans for the future, I would love to have a conversation with you!

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE FOUNDATION'S STEWARDSHIP IN 2022

FUNDS MANAGEMENT

We manage over 1100 funds totaling $162 million (As of June 30, 2022) that has been left by faithful Tennessee Baptists over the years to carry on the work of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and other Southern Baptists causes for the cause of Christ.

This year we have added 15 new funds. Of these 4 are NEW first-time clients of the TBF. Our goal each year is to broaden our relationships across our state will all our Tennessee Baptist churches.

As of June 30, 2022, we have contributed $333,000 to the Cooperative program and on track to give $500,000 by the end of 2022 as well as over $2 million to all charitable causes that include churches, associations, missions, scholarships and other ministries.

OPERATION LEGACY FOR TENNESSEE BAPTIST PASTORS

In March 2021, the TBMB and the TBF partnered together to launch OPERATION LEGACY. This program is targeted to Tennessee Baptist Pastors to help them complete their estate plans. We are also partnering with Philanthrocorp, Inc. of Colorado Springs to help us in this project. They are planned giving specialists that work with non-profits in the are of estate planning. As of June 30, 2022, we have had 26 pastors who had completed the process of planning, another 26 in process and 29 that are active leads that are getting ready to begin the process. From the completed plans, there is over $4.9 million that will be coming for Baptist causes through these estate plans. We are excited to see this many Tennessee Baptist Pastors take estate planning seriously and on the road to completion. We want to see as many pastors in this process as we can. We believe this is an act of stewardship and the pastor should take the lead for his congregation in this area of giving.

FAITH-BASED ESTATE PLANNING SEMINARS

So far in 2022, we have been able to hold 4 faith-based estate planning seminars in churches, with 4 more planned by year end. We also offer seminars to churches via Zoom as well. Our goal is to help Tennessee Baptists understand that planning your estate is a part of our stewardship as followers of Christ. We want to help them unleash the power of faith-based estate planning by allowing their assets to impact the future for the cause of Christ and leave a lasting legacy.

CHURCH LOANS

The Foundation partners with Waters Edge Ministry Services, part of the Oklahoma Baptist Foundation, in an effort to enhance and improve loan offerings at very competitive rates to churches of all sizes across Tennessee. As of June 30, 2022, they have worked with 5 churches in Tennessee on loans totaling $2.4 million.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST FOUNDATION

SPECIAL PROJECTS

This year we have helped 9 Tennessee Baptist Churches and organizations with a total of $63,000. Ministry opportunities included help with a handicap lift chair for a rural Tennessee church, flood relief efforts in Waverly TN, associational disaster relief and helping a Sudanese Baptist ministry. Because of the giving of faithful Tennessee Baptists through their estates, the Special Project Fund was able to meet the needs in our state.

SCHOLARSHIPS

This year we awarded 176 scholarships totaling $149,000 to deserving Tennessee Baptist students for the 2022-23 school year. Since 1987, the TBF has awarded over 8,400 scholarships totaling $6.1 million to Tennessee Baptist students from all walks of life helping them prepare for ministry in the church or ministry in the marketplace. Those people who left funds from their estates for scholarships did so in an effort to help future students make an impact on the world for Christ.

LEGACY MINISTRY

We believe that churches should develop Legacy Ministries as a part of the overall stewardship emphasis of the church. This year 3 Tennessee churches have established Legacy Funds with the TBF and are encouraging estate gifts from their congregations to benefit their church and other Baptist causes. We are also working with 3 other churches across the state to help expand the stewardship conversation to encompass Legacy gifts.

Because we are in the midst of the greatest transfer of wealth in our nation's history and we believe church ministries should be a part of the conversation as one generation passes the wealth to the next. Legacy ministries can have a tremendous impact on the future of the local church.

The fact is ALL of us will leave an estate, but NOT ALL of us will leave a legacy.

ESTATE PLANS COMPLETED OR REVISED

In 2022 we have worked with 35 families to complete a Faith-Based Estate Plan or revise an outdated plan, with several others still in the process of finalizing documents. Each one of these plans have a portion going to benefit a Baptist cause.

This year we launched an initiative called "10 for Tenn." We are encouraging all Tennessee Baptists to consider leaving at least 10% of there estate for Tennessee mission causes. This would include their local church ministries as well as ministries of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board.

CONVENTION INSTITUTIONS

Statistics show only 6% of Americans leave a gift to their church in their estate plan. What if every family within every Tennessee Baptist church made a commitment to give 10% of their estate for Tennessee mission work. Think of the exponential growth of these assets and the millions of dollars to aid the cause for Christ in the next 25, 50 or even 100 years! What a blessing this would be to the next generation. Psalm 145:4 says:

> One generation will declare your works to the next and will proclaim your mighty acts. (HCB)

Today's Plans. Tomorrows Impact! That is what the Foundation is all about and we will continue to help all Tennessee Baptists live-out their faith by leaving a legacy for Christ.

BAPTIST MEMORIAL HEALTH CARE SYSTEM

About Baptist Memorial Health Care

Baptist Memorial Health Care began as a 150-bed hospital in downtown Memphis in 1912. It was formed by the Southern Baptist Conventions of Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas because they recognized a tremendous need for a health care facility in this part of the country. Today, Baptist is one of the nation's largest not-for-profit health care systems, offering a full continuum of care to communities throughout the Mid-South. The Baptist system, which consistently ranks among the top integrated health care networks in the nation, comprises 22 affiliate hospitals, including 10 in Tennessee. Baptist Medical Group is a multispecialty physician group with more than 800 providers, and we offer home, hospice and psychiatric care; minor medical centers and clinics; a network of surgery, rehabilitation and other outpatient centers; and an education system highlighted by the Baptist Health Sciences University.

The Baptist system employs more than 19,000 people, and in fiscal year 2019 contributed more than $336 million in community benefit and uncompensated care to the communities it serves. According to the Sparks Bureau of Business and Economic Research at the University of Memphis, Baptist Memorial Health Care's annual economic impact is estimated at more than $2.6 billion.

Delivering the Good News of Jesus Christ

Our staff chaplains are a part of our health care team. Patients, family members or employees can ask that a chaplain be involved in spiritual or emotional care. In our hospitals, our chaplains represent their own faith but deal with spiritual issues that transcend denominational lines.

In August 2017, Baptist's Pastoral Care Department introduced the Rev. Jimmy Terry Preaching Series: It's All About Jesus. The series is named in memory of a beloved member of Baptist's Board of Trustees and the founder and former pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church in Clarksville, Tennessee. Each month, a speaker – usually an ordained Baptist minister – delivers an evangelical message to employees, physicians, patients and visitors at Baptist's flagship hospital. The message is also broadcast to all 22 of Baptist's hospitals in Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas, and it is promoted on Baptist's Facebook

Our Health Care Services

Baptist Memorial Health Care's 10 West Tennessee hospitals run the gamut from our flagship hospital – a 700-bed regional referral center in Memphis that's one of Tennessee's busiest hospitals – to a specialty women's and children's hospital, a behavioral health facility and three rural hospitals. They provide a variety of acute care and specialty services, including the area's only adult heart transplant program and epilepsy monitoring unit.

U.S. News & World Report ranked Baptist Memphis #1 in the metro-Memphis area and #3 in Tennessee in its 2022-23 Best Hospitals rankings. For this year's rankings and ratings, U.S. News evaluated more than 4,500 hospitals across 15 specialties and 20 procedures and conditions, and experts evaluated each hospital's performance using a variety of measures such as survival rates, complication rates, patient experience and level of nursing care. The Best Hospitals methodology factors in data from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, American Hospital Association, professional organizations and medical specialists. Baptist Memphis, along with Baptist Union City, earned several "High Performing" ratings.

Baptist Medical Group operates dozens of clinics in rural and urban areas throughout West Tennessee. Specialties range from primary care to oncology, obstetrics and gynecology and endocrinology. Several of our physicians provide much-needed services in rural West Tennessee, which has been losing hospitals at a rapid rate for the past decade. We have been able to maintain – and in some cases grow – our presence in this region, recruiting physicians in areas of need. Baptist Union City and Baptist Medical Group broke ground on Baptist Health Center, a new medical office building located on the hospital campus in Union City, Tennessee. Baptist Health Center will measure 24,000 square feet and contain space for up to three more tenants, providing specialized care for area residents.

McKenzie hospital: Baptist donated the former McKenzie Regional Hospital building and grounds, valued at $1.29 million, to the McKenzie Industrial Board. The property will help spearhead economic growth and development for the community.

Baptist Medical Group- The Woman's Health Center Union City will relocate to Baptist Health Center when it is completed.

The grand opening of our first freestanding emergency department (FSED) in Arlington, Tennessee, is scheduled for this fall. Ground was broken in September 2021 for the $16 million, eight-room freestanding ER, a department of Baptist Memphis that includes a lab, CT scan, X-ray and ultrasound imaging technology. A Baptist Medical Group primary care office and a helipad will be built next to the new facility. Together, they will serve a four-county area that includes two communities that lost hospitals and don't have convenient access to emergency care. Until now, many of these patients would travel up to an hour to come to Baptist Memphis. The new FSED cuts that commute in half. We'll also bring more than 30 high-wage, professional positions to the community.

Construction has also begun for our new outpatient medical campus in Jackson, Tennessee, in partnership with The Jackson Clinic, one of the state's largest and most prominent physician groups. The 134,966-square-foot, two-story medical office building will sit on a 59-acre parcel of land owned by Baptist. The Jackson Clinic will lease approximately 70,000 square feet of the medical office building and offer diagnostic imaging, laboratory, pharmacy and specialty services. Baptist will lease approximately 40,000 square feet of the building for an outpatient surgery center that will include eight operating rooms and four procedure rooms. The center will enhance access to care, not just for Jackson residents, but for people all over West Tennessee who travel to Jackson for their care.

Baptist Carroll County and Baptist Union City earned A's in the last two Leapfrog Hospital Safety Grade surveys. The Leapfrog Group is an independent national watchdog organization and has the only ratings program for hospitals that's based exclusively on hospital prevention of medical errors and harms to patients. Grades are updated in the fall and spring.

Leaders from Baptist Memorial Health Care joined their counterparts from The Jackson Clinic at "topping out" ceremony and beam signing to celebrate a major milestone for their outpatient medical campus. The two groups are building the facility, which will house diagnostic imaging, laboratory, pharmacy, specialty services and an outpatient surgery center.

Community Outreach

Our commitment to Tennessee extends far beyond health care. We also give back through community benefit activities. Generous Baptist team members helped raise $56,535 during our 2021 United Way Giving Campaign. The money will benefit the United Way Fund; the Baptist Memorial Health Care Foundation, Baptist's fund-raising arm; and other charities. Our employees also gave $5,816 to aid in disaster relief efforts following tornadoes in Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky last December. The Baptist Foundation matched that dollar for dollar and donated $11,632 to the Mid-South chapter of American Red Cross. More recently, Baptist team members, along with the Baptist Foundation and our Pastoral Care team, raised $30,431 for Ukrainian relief efforts. The money will go to Crosslink Memphis, a local ministry that is part of an international organization that equips medical mission teams with supplies and medicines.

In recognition of Baptist's involvement and commitment to our communities, the Lown Institute, a nonpartisan health care think tank, ranked Baptist seventh on its list of the top 25 nonprofit hospital systems (out of a total of 275 nonprofit systems nationwide) whose spending on charity care and community investment exceeds the value of their tax exemption. We were the only health care system in our three-state service area on the list.

The Baptist Cancer Center announced the Mid-South Miracle, an initiative aimed at reducing the lung cancer death rate by 25 percent by 2030. During the announcement news conference, a Baptist Cancer Center lung cancer patient spoke about her experience and said cancer patients do not need to travel out of the area to get the finest care. Baptist Memorial Health Care Foundation has donated $1.2 million to help develop several components of the program.

Baptist donated the former McKenzie Regional Hospital building and grounds, valued at $1.29 million, to the McKenzie Industrial Board. The property will help spearhead economic growth and development for the community. In 2018, Baptist purchased McKenzie Regional's buildings, land, equipment and ambulance service from Quorum Health Corporation to preserve health care in the region. Baptist maintained outpatient services in McKenzie and expanded services at Baptist Carroll County in nearby Huntingdon, Tennessee.

Baptist Health Sciences University received a $4.3 million grant to improve graduation rates among students. The five-year U.S. Department of Education grant will help the university boost student graduation rates, starting with the retention gap between first- and second-year students. All students at the university will have access to a dedicated resource center, academic success coaches and professional tutoring plans. Coaches will focus on teaching students how to learn, with the goal of ultimately improving student retention rates.

Health care is a ministry and a passion for us. We work hard to earn the trust of our patients, employees, physicians and communities. Our biggest reward is the effect we have on those we touch; the lives we save and improve, the cities that grow, and the community organizations that continue doing great work. Everything we do is guided by our mission – which mirrors the three-fold ministry of Christ – healing, preaching and teaching. That mission has sustained us for 110 years, and it will lead us as we continue meeting our communities' needs.

Baptist officials break ground on West Tennessee's first freestanding emergency department (FSED). The eight-room FSED is a department of Baptist Memorial Hospital-Memphis and will have laboratory, X-ray, ultrasound, CT and respiratory therapy services on-site. It will be open 24 hours a day and include space for future growth.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB) is a nonprofit corporation organized in and recognized by the State of Tennessee as a religious corporation. TBMB, incorporated in 1923, is organized for the purposes of establishing, maintaining and conducting home, state, and foreign mission enterprises and programs; of fostering, promoting, and supporting educational, religious, benevolent, and charitable enterprises, movements, and undertakings; and of serving as the corporate administrative agency of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (an unincorporated association of churches) in the coordination and cooperative pursuance of such enterprises and programs in the State of Tennessee, the United States of America, and foreign countries.

TBMB's board of directors are appointed annually at the annual meeting of the Tennessee Baptist Convention (the Convention). The Convention cooperates with certain institutions whose governing boards are also elected by the Convention.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements includes net assets and operations of TBMB and statewide activities conducted by TBMB on behalf of the Convention. Activities conducted by Convention institutions are not included in the TBMB financial statements. TBMB and each convention institution is independent and autonomous, with TBMB having no authority or control over any of the Convention institutions.

TBMB is charged with the responsibility of transacting all business for the Convention between sessions. It reviews all programs of work of all agencies and institutions for the Convention, and it initiates new programs and recommends programs and policies to the Convention which are included in this report.

Convention Institutions as identified by the Convention are:

Tennessee Baptist Mission Board
Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc.
Union University
Carson-Newman University
Tennessee Baptist Foundation
Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy
Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc.

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION, continued:

The Church Planting Loan Fund (CPLF) is a program of TBMB and is administered under the direction of a committee appointed by TBMB, through the Tennessee Baptist Foundation. CPLF's assets totaled $3,259,904 and $3,373,454 as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, and effected the change in net assets by ($113,551) and $52,606 for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. Loans under the CPLF are granted to those churches meeting certain eligibility requirements. Each new loan may not exceed $500,000 with interest and payments suspended for the first three years and full payment of loan principal required within 10 years of the original loan date.

TBMB is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (Code). TBMB is not considered to be a private foundation under section 509(a)(2) of the Code and contributions to it are tax deductible within limits prescribed by the Code. TBMB is subject to federal taxation on any unrelated business taxable income.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the statements to the reader.

ESTIMATES

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of TBMB and its wholly owned subsidiary corporations, the Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Memphis, the Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Martin, the Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Greater Nashville, the Knox Area Baptist Collegiate Ministries, Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Cookeville, Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Chattanooga, Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Northeast Tennessee, Baptist Collegiate Ministries of Middle Tennessee, and Mississippi River Ministry. The financial statements also consolidate the financial transactions of the following named ministries which are ministries of TBMB but whose accounting is disbursed to the location of the ministry. These named ministries are the Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Austin Peay State University, Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Cleveland State Community College, Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Walters State Community College, Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Lincoln Memorial University, and Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Motlow State Community College. The consolidated financial statements also include the financial transactions of Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union (TN-WMU) for which TBMB serves as the fiduciary agent with respect to all financial matters. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidation.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits in banks, and money market accounts. Cash equivalents also include, when applicable, short-term, highly liquid debt securities that are both readily convertible to cash and have an original maturity of three months or less. TBMB maintains cash and cash equivalents in financial institutions which may, at times, exceed federally insured limits; however, TBMB has not experienced any losses on such accounts. As of October 31, 2022 and 2021, TBMB had cash balances exceeding federally insured limits by approximately $10,441,000 and $10,740,000, respectively.

INVESTMENTS

Investments consist of investments in domestic and international equities, mutual funds, Tennessee Baptist Foundation (TBF) common funds, and fixed income funds, and are stated at fair value. If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on quoted market prices of comparable instruments. Cash and cash equivalents and certificates of deposit are recorded at cost plus accrued interest. Interest and dividend income and the realized and unrealized gains or losses on investments are reported in the consolidated statements of activities as investment income without donor restriction unless a donor or law restricts its use. Donated investments are recorded at fair value on the date of donation and thereafter carried in accordance with the above provisions.

BELMONT SETTLEMENT RECEIVABLE

In November 2007, TBMB entered into a settlement agreement with Belmont University. As consideration, TBMB received $1,000,000 in January 2008 and is scheduled to receive annual payments of $250,000 for 40 years commencing in January 2009. The respective scheduled remaining annual payments at October 31, 2022 and 2021, net of unamortized discount of $3,339,179 and $3,541,024 using a 6.29% discount rate, is reported as a note receivable. Management has not established an allowance for this amount as they feel it is fully collectible. Per the settlement agreement, income from this fund is allocated on a proportional basis to entities included in the TBC portion of the annual Cooperative Program allocation budget.

CHURCH PLANTING LOANS RECEIVABLE–NET

Church planting loans receivable consist of loans receivables that are reported net of any anticipated losses due to uncollectible accounts. An allowance is established for receivables that are deemed to be uncollectible. As of October 31, 2022 and 2021, an allowance of $50,000 and $100,000 was booked on the CPLF loan receivables shown net with the receivables in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position, respectively.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT–NET

The TBMB capitalizes all assets with a cost or value over $1,000 and an estimated useful life over one year. Land, buildings, improvements, and equipment are recorded at cost or, if donated, fair value on the date of donation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset. Estimated useful lives are 30 to 50 years for buildings and building improvements and 3 to 10 years for furniture and equipment.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN TRUSTS HELD BY OTHERS
Beneficial interests in trusts held by others represent resources neither in the possession or under the control of TBMB, but held and administered by third parties for the benefit of Tennessee Baptist mission causes.

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS
The consolidated financial statements report amounts separately by class of net assets.

Net assets without donor restrictions are currently available for ministry purposes under the direction of TBMB, designated by management or board committees for specific use, or resources invested in property and equipment.

Net assets with donor restrictions are contributed with donor stipulations for specific operating purposes or programs, time restrictions, or not currently available for use until commitments regarding their use have been fulfilled or lifetime beneficiary interests have ceased. These net assets include contributions with donor restrictions that they be held in perpetuity.

SUPPORT, REVENUES, AND RECLASSIFICATIONS
TBMB recognizes revenue when earned and support when contributions are made, which may be when cash is received, unconditional promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to TBMB. Conditional promises to give with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met, promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to TBMB.

TBMB reports gifts of cash and other assets as support in net assets with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated amounts. When a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as satisfaction of purpose restrictions.

TBMB reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as net assets without donor restrictions support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, TBMB reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

TBMB recognizes registrations, fees, and other revenue when earned. These revenue streams represent revenue from events, conferences, and other services provided.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

EXPENSES

The costs of providing the various program services and supporting activities of TBMB have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program services and supporting activities benefited.

Promotion and advertising costs are expensed when incurred and were $1,030,987 and $645,544 for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

ECONOMIC DEPENDENCY

TBMB is dependent upon contributions from participating Baptist churches located in Tennessee. The churches' contributions are primarily dependent upon the economic conditions of Tennessee and the churches' desire to support the ministry of TBMB.

3. LIQUIDITY AND FUNDS AVAILABLE:

As part of the TBMB's liquidity management policies and practices, TBMB maintains financial assets to be available for general expenditures and other obligations as they come due. The following reflects the TBMB's financial assets as of the consolidated statement of financial position date, reduced by amounts not available for general use because of contractual or donor-imposed restrictions within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date. Amounts not available include amounts set aside for reserves designated by the board that could be drawn upon if the governing board approves that action.

12. RETIREMENT PLAN:

TBMB provides the opportunity for employees to participate in the 403(b) retirement program provided by GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention (GuideStone). The retirement plan is a defined contribution plan. TBMB makes a contribution on behalf of full time employees which totaled $658,252 and $537,510 for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

The Convention through TBMB encourages ordained ministers and other salaried employees of cooperating churches to participate in the Church Retirement program with GuideStone. Part of this plan is a protection benefits section that is paid by TBMB. This section provides life insurance and disability benefits to church staff that participate in the Church Retirement Program. For the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, $159,560 and $162,497 was paid for these benefits for church staff, respectively.

13. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. TBMB uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, TBMB measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs are not available.

The following table presents the fair value measurements of assets and liabilities recognized in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position measured at fair at October 31, 2022 and 2021:

	October 31, 2022
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investments, at fair value:
Interest in TBF common funds	$ -	$ 13,669,424	$ -	$ 13,669,424

13. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS, continued:

	October 31, 2021
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investments, at fair value:
Interest in TBF common funds	$ -	$ 16,856,808	$ -	$ 16,856,808
Domestic equities	2,949,479	-	-	2,949,479
International equities	250,092	-	-	250,092
Mutual funds	5,422,861	-	-	5,422,861
Fixed income funds	73,975	-	-	73,975
	$ 8,696,407	$ 16,856,808	$ -	$ 25,553,215
Beneficial interest in trusts	$ -	$ -	$ 772,727	$ 772,727

Methods and assumptions used in estimating fair values are as follows:

Valuation techniques: Fair values for domestic equities, international equities, fixed income funds and mutual funds are based on quoted market prices in an active market. Investment in TBF common funds are carried at the fair market value of the underlying investments.

Beneficial interest in trusts –The fair value of perpetual trusts held by others is estimated based upon the proportionate share of the trust's assets as represented by the trustee.

Change in valuation techniques –None.

14. ENDOWMENTS:

TBMB's endowment consists of several individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the board of directors to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the board of directors to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The board of directors of TBMB has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift, as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, TBMB classifies as with donor-restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment in perpetuity, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment in perpetuity, and (c) accumulations to the donor-restricted endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified as with donor-restrictions net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by TBMB in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, TBMB considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of TBMB and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the TBMB
7. The investment policies of the TBMB

Funds with Deficiencies –From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires TBMB to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with GAAP, there were no deficiencies of this nature that are reported in net assets with donor restrictions as of October 31, 2022 and 2021.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters –TBMB has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that TBMB must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the board of directors, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce an inflation adjusted income stream to grow the corpus above the inflation rate. TBMB expects its endowment funds, over time, to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of selected markets and comparative indices, while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives– To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, TBMB relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). TBMB primarily relies on the diversification policies of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Related to Spending Policy –TBMB's current policy of appropriating for distribution annually from its endowment fund is at the discretion of TBMB, based on each years' institutional objectives and donor directives. In determining this amount, TBMB considers the long-term expected return on its endowment. The TBMB's objective is to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

15. CONSTRUCTION COMMITMENTS:

TBMB is currently involved in multiple construction projects, both upgrades of deferred maintenance items and new construction for the replacement of deteriorating existing structures. In Spring 2021, the board of directors approved $6.2 million for use in the construction of new facilities at Conference Centers. Due to volatile construction markets, several of those projects were postponed. In Fall 2022, the board of directors authorized instead $1.9 million in new construction at Linden Valley Baptist Conference Center and another $232,000 in infrastructure improvement all of which is currently in progress. Previously reported plans for facility construction at University of Memphis have been placed on hold as well. As of the date of this report no significant changes from the above position has occurred.

16. RELATED PARTY DISCLOSURE:

TBMB receives and remits designated funds from and on behalf of the churches in Tennessee. These funds constitute an agency relationship. There was no liability related to these funds at October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Trustees
Union University
Jackson, Tennessee

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Union University, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Union University as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Union University and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Union University's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Union University's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Union University's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

UNION UNIVERSITY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

July 31, 2022 and 2021

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Union University (the "University") is a private, religious not-for-profit corporation of higher education fostered by the Tennessee Baptist Convention (the "Convention"), equipping persons to think Christianly and serve faithfully in ways consistent with its core values of being excellence-driven, Christ-centered, people-focused, and future-directed. These values shape its identity as an institution that prioritizes liberal arts based undergraduate education enhanced by professional and graduate programs. The academic community is composed of quality faculty, staff, and students working together in a caring, grace-filled environment conducive to the development of character, servant leadership, and cultural engagement. The University's primary sources of revenue are tuition, fees, auxiliary enterprise income, and contributions from the public.

The Convention is a network of churches that choose to cooperate together to further the gospel of Christ through joint missions activity, ministries of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and the ministries of institutions such as the University. The Convention acts through messengers from cooperating churches to the annual meeting of the Convention. During this meeting, the Convention elects the University trustees and determines the allocation of Cooperative Program funding to the University. The University records the Cooperative Program gifts as being given without donor restrictions. The Convention is an unincorporated association.

The Tennessee Baptist Foundation is a Tennessee nonprofit religious public benefit corporation that holds certain investments and charitable gift annuities for the benefit of the University.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements of the University have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and include the accounts of the Union University Foundation, LLC. The University is the beneficiary of the foundation and controls their activities through a majority voting interest in their boards of directors. All balances and transactions between the University and the foundation have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements and are collectively referred to as "the University."

The University classifies its revenue, expenses, gains, and losses into two classes of net assets based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Net assets of the University and changes therein are classified as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions –Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations and may be expended for any purpose in performing the mission and primary objectives of the University. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the University's management and those charged with governance.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION, continued

Net assets with donor restrictions –Net assets that are subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the University or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the University to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes. The amount for both of these classes of net assets is displayed in the consolidated statements of financial position and the amount of change in each class of net assets is displayed in the consolidated statements of activities.

CONTRIBUTIONS

The University reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose of the restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

The University reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as net assets without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as net assets with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the University reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Contribution of services are recognized if the services received (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation.

In the event a donor makes changes to the nature of a restricted gift which affects its classification among the net asset categories, such amounts are reflected as reclassifications in the consolidated statements of activities.

The University has elected the simultaneous release option for conditional grants so that when the conditions are met, any donor-imposed restrictions are also simultaneously released, thereby allowing presentation within grant revenue without donor restrictions on the consolidated statements of activities.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the University considers all cash and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents except for amounts held as part of the University's long-term investment policy. The University maintains cash balances in financial institutions that it considers to be high-quality financial institutions.

At July 31, 2022 and 2021, the University's cash balances exceeded federally insured limits by approximately $3,200,000 and $6,700,000, respectively. The University does not believe these funds to be at substantial risk of loss due to the lack of federal insurance coverage.

Funds with limited use were restricted cash that consisted of money market funds and were funds that were to be applied to certain debt obligations of the University as payments are due.

INVESTMENTS

Investments are carried at fair value (generally at quoted market prices) with gains and losses included in the consolidated statement of activities.

The estimated fair value of certain alternative investments, such as private equity and limited partnership interests, is determined by reference to the net asset values allocated to the University at the measurement date. The University believes the carrying amount of these financial instruments is a reasonable estimate of fair value. Because alternative investments are not readily marketable, their estimated value is subject to uncertainty and, therefore, may differ from the value that would have been used had a ready market for such investments existed. Such difference could be material.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE, NET

Estimated allowances for credit losses are maintained at levels that, in the judgment of management, are adequate to meet the present and potential future risks of uncollectible receivable balances. Management's judgment is based on a variety of factors, which include experience related to charge-offs and recoveries and scrutiny of individual accounts and notes receivable. Receivables are unsecured and considered past due based on contractual terms. Amounts deemed by management to be uncollectible are charged to expense. Recoveries on receivables previously charged-off are credited to expense. Provisions for credit losses are charged to expense and credited to the allowance for credit losses. Past due receivables are not placed on nonaccrual status, and payments received on past due receivables are applied to principal and interest according to contractual terms.

DEBT ISSUE COSTS

Costs incurred in connection with the issuance of the University's notes payable have been capitalized and are being amortized using the straight-line method, which approximates the interest method, over the term of the loans. Debt issuance costs are shown as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of the related liability.

UNION UNIVERSITY

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

PROPERTY, BUILDINGS, AND EQUIPMENT

Property, buildings, and equipment are stated in the consolidated statements of financial position at cost, or if contributed, at fair value at date of receipt. All library holdings have been valued at $25 to $60 per item (except those acquired before fiscal year 1993 which have been valued at $5 per item), which approximates actual cost. The quantity of library holdings is based on a physical count of volumes on hand. Purchases and gifts of property and equipment valued at $1,000 or more are capitalized.

Depreciable assets are being depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Buildings	50 years
Improvements	20 years
Library holdings	15 years
Equipment	3-10 years

BENEFICIAL INTERESTS IN TRUSTS

Beneficial interests in trusts represent arrangements in which a donor establishes and funds a trust administered by an individual or organization other than the University. Beneficial interests are recorded at their fair value.

DEFERRED REVENUE

The University preregisters students for the fall term during the preceding semester. The University's policy is to record as deferred revenue student fees collected prior to year-end, which relate to tuition and fees for the fall term.

USE OF ESTIMATES IN THE PREPERATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Judgment and estimation are exercised by management in certain areas of the preparation of consolidated financial statements. The more significant areas include the recovery period for property, buildings, and equipment, valuation of the derivative instrument, the allocation of certain operating and maintenance expenses to functional categories, the collection of receivables, and the valuation of annuities payable. Management believes that such estimates have been based on reasonable assumptions and that such estimates are adequate. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVABLE, NET

Contributions receivable are recorded at their estimated fair value and reflect discounts for payment terms greater than one year. Contributions receivable are considered to be either conditional or unconditional promises to give. A conditional contribution is one that depends on the occurrence of some specified uncertain future event to become binding on the donor. Conditional contributions are not recorded as revenue until the condition is met, at which time they become unconditional. Unconditional contributions are recorded as revenue at the time verifiable evidence of the pledge is received.

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The University accounts for its derivative instruments under Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 815, Derivatives and Hedging, which establishes accounting and reporting standards requiring that derivative instruments be recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position at estimated fair value. Changes in a derivative's fair value are included in the consolidated statements of activities as a component of the change in net assets in the period of change. As described in Note G, the University had interest rate swap agreements which are considered to be derivatives. The University's interest rate risk management strategy is to stabilize cash flow requirements by maintaining interest rate swap contracts to convert certain variable-rate debt to a fixed rate.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Assets and liabilities recorded at fair value in the consolidated statements of financial position are categorized based on the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their fair value. Level inputs, as defined by ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements, are as follows:

Level 1 - Values are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets accessible at the measurement date.

Level 2 - Inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices from those willing to trade in markets that are not active or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by market data for the term of the instrument. Such inputs include market interest rates and volatilities, spreads, and yield curves.

Level 3 - Certain inputs are unobservable (supported by little or no market activity) and significant to the fair value measurement. Unobservable inputs reflect the best estimate of what hypothetical market participants would use to determine a transaction price for the asset or liability at the reporting date.

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

REVENUE AND EXPENSES

Revenue is recognized when earned and support when contributions are made, which may be when cash is received, unconditional promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to the University.

Tuition and fees are recognized in the fiscal year in which the academic programs are delivered. Auxiliary income is recognized when the goods are delivered or services are performed. Payments received for future periods are reported as deferred revenue. Institutional scholarships awarded to students reduce the amount of revenue recognized.

Expenses are recorded when incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting. The costs of providing the program services and supporting activities of the University have been summarized on a natural classification basis.

OPERATING AND NON-OPERATING ACTIVITIES

The University classifies all activities that relate to its normal course of operations as operating activities on the statement of activities including appropriated earnings on endowment investments. All gifts received for long-term purposes, such as capital acquisitions and endowment activity, are considered outside the normal course of operations and are classified as non-operating activities.

ACCOUTING STANDARDS ADOPTED

During fiscal year 2022, the University adopted ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This ASU was designed to increase transparency and comparability among organizations by recognizing lease assets and liabilities on the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. The new guidance was adopted by the University effective August 1, 2021, (transition date) using the modified retrospective transition method that allows for application of the standard at the adoption date rather than at the beginning of the earlier comparative period presented in the consolidated financial statements. Leases are classified as either operating or finance.

The University elected the transition practical expedient package by applying previous accounting conclusions under ASC Topic 840, Leases (ASC 840), to all leases that existed prior to the transition date. As a result, the University did not reassess whether existing or expired contracts contained leases; lease classification for any existing or expired leases; or whether lease origination costs qualified as initial direct costs. The ASU and subsequent amendments require lessees to recognize assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases with a term of greater than 12 months and disclosure of certain quantitative and qualitative information pertaining to an entity's leasing arrangements. The University also elected the hindsight practical expedient, which permits the use of hindsight when determining lease term and impairment of right-of-use assets, and the land easement reassessment practical expedient. These practical expedients were elected for all classes of underlying assets.

The adoption of the standard resulted in the recognition as of August 1, 2021, of operating and financing right-of-use assets and liabilities. Refer to Note E for disclosures about leases.

In 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU No. 2020-07, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 58)–Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets. The University adopted the presentation and disclosure of this new standard during the year ended July 31, 2022, on a retrospective approach. There was no material effect on the presentation and disclosures of the University's consolidated financial statements as a result of this adoption.

E. RIGHT-OF-USE ASSETS AND LIABILITIES:

The University leases equipment under seven noncancelable finance leases expiring at various dates through fiscal year 2026. The discount rate represents the risk-free discount rate using a period comparable with that of the individual lease terms. The leases require various monthly and quarterly payments ranging between approximately $500 and $13,000. One of the leases requires monthly payments that are based on usage rates, which fluctuate from month-to-month. For these leases, an average of the current fiscal year's monthly payments was used to estimate the future monthly payments. The University has elected to treat both lease and nonlease components as a single lease component. The discount rates used ranged from 0.55% to 0.675%.

The University leases equipment under four noncancelable operating leases expiring at various dates through fiscal year 2026. The discount rate represents the risk-free discount rate using a period comparable with that of the individual lease terms. The leases require various monthly and quarterly payments ranging between approximately $250 and $1,600. Two of these leases require monthly payments that are based on usage rates, which fluctuate from month-to-month. For these leases, an average of the current fiscal year's monthly payments was used to estimate the future monthly payments. The University reported right-of use assets and lease liabilities as of their implementation date of August 1, 2021, and will not go back and restate their fiscal year 2021 or 2020 consolidated financial statements. For leases that began prior to August 1 2021, right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are calculated based on payments from August 1, 2022, and after.

The University used the risk-free rate to calculate the present value. The risk-free rate is determined using the US Treasury tables. For leases that began prior to the implementation date of August 1, 2021, the rate selected is the rate on the date of implementation for the term of the agreement. For leases that began after the implementation date of August 1, 2021, the rate selected is the rate on the date of commencement for the lease for the term of the agreement. When an agreement is for a period other than a period for which a treasury rate exists, the rate selected is for the period just less than the rental agreement (e.g. the three-year rate for a lease with a four-year term).

INSTEREST RATE SWAPS

The University entered into interest rate swap agreements with a financial institution which had an original notional principal amount of $15,150,000 to reduce or eliminate the risk associated with debt interest rate fluctuations on the Series 2010A notes payable, respectively. In prior years, the University redeemed the related bond issues; however, the interest rate swaps were not unwound as a result of this transaction. The University does not engage in trading these derivatives. These financial instruments are used to manage interest rate risk. The notional principal amounts were amortized over the life of the agreements and at July 31, 2021, the remaining notional amounts totaled $2,790,000. The University terminated the interest rate swap agreement during the year ended July 31, 2022. The University paid $45,546 to terminate the swap.

At July 31, 2021, the terms of the remaining interest rate swap agreement provide for the University to receive interest at the variable rate of 0.07% on the remaining notional principal amounts and to pay interest at a fixed rate of 3.34% with the agreement expiring October 2024.

The fair value of the interest rate swap at July 31, 2021, was ($116,571). The aggregate fair value of ($116,571), is included in notes payable as reported on the consolidated statement of financial position for the year ended July 31, 2021. H. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS:

The University provides retirement benefits through Guidestone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention and TIAA. The plan is a defined contribution annuity plan that covers substantially all full-time employees. The University contributes an amount up to 4% of the participants' compensation depending on the level of contribution made by the participants. Full vesting occurs immediately. The University's net pension expense was $1,118,267 and $1,100,071 for fiscal years 2022 and 2021, respectively.

I. CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK:

Cash at July 31, 2022, includes demand deposits at high credit quality financial institutions. The deposits possess credit risk to the extent they exceed federally insured limits. The exposure to concentrations of credit risk relative to securities is limited due to the University's investment objectives and policies of maintaining a variety of quality investments. Credit risk also extends to uncollateralized receivables and net of allowances.

J. ANNUITY TRUST AGREEMENTS:

The University has entered into certain annuity trust agreements with donors whereby the University has received contributions. Upon termination of the trusts, the remaining assets will be remitted to the University or other beneficiaries named by the donors. As of July 31, 2022 and 2021, annuity trust assets, at fair value, totaled $774,644 and $865,971, respectively, and are included in investments in the consolidated statements of financial position. The liabilities to the annuitants are recorded at the net present value of estimated future cash flows. The change in values for fiscal years 2022 and 2021, were ($4,966) and $99,579, respectively.

K. ENDOWMENT FUNDS:

The University's endowment consists of approximately 450 individual funds established for scholarships and educational programs, and funds held in trust by others that are outside the control of the University. As required by generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

INTERPRETATION OF RELEVENT LAW

The Board of Trustees of the University has interpreted state law as requiring the preservation of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the University classifies as net assets with donor restrictions that are perpetual in nature (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor restricted endowment fund that is not to be held in perpetuity is classified as net assets with donor restrictions that are purpose and/or time restricted until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by applicable state laws. In accordance with applicable state laws, the University considers the following factors in deciding to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

a. The duration and preservation of the fund
b. The purposes of the University and the donor-restricted endowment fund
c. General economic conditions
d. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
e. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
f. Other resources of the University

FUNDS WITH DEFICIENCIES

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or state law requires the University to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are reported in net assets with donor restrictions. The aggregate deficiencies in fair value relative to historical cost for underwater endowments at July 31, 2022 and 2021, were as follows:

	July 31,
	2022	2021
Aggregate fair value	$ 2,236,330	$ 1,533,118
Aggregate historical value	4,859,726	4,047,874
Aggregate deficiency	$ (2,623,396)	$ (2,514,756)

RETURN OBJECTIVES AND RISK PARAMETERS

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that are designed to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by the endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the University must hold in perpetuity or for donor-specified periods. Under this policy, the endowment assets under the University's control are invested in a manner that is intended to achieve a total annual return, measured on a three-year moving average basis, equal to the spending rate, plus the inflation rate (CPI as calculated and reported by the U.S. Department of Commerce). Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount. At July 31, 2022 and 2021, endowment assets under the University's control consisted of investments in marketable securities and interfund notes receivable from current operations of $5,252,194 and $5,682,469, respectively. The interfund notes bore interest at 4% for both years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021.

STRATEGIES EMPLOYED FOR ACHIEVING OBJECTIVES

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the University relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The University targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

SPENDING POLICY AND HOW INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES RELATE TO SPENDING POLICY

The University's spending policy is reviewed and approved by the Foundation Board annually. The amount to be spent is calculated each December 31 for the next fiscal year and will not exceed 4 percent of a trailing 12 quarter rolling average of the fair value of the University's endowment. In establishing this policy, the University considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the University expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average rate equal to the inflation rate (CPI). This is consistent with the University's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Carson-Newman University, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Carson-Newman University as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Carson-Newman University and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Carson-Newman University's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Carson-Newman University's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Carson-Newman University's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

July 31, 2022 and 2021

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

Carson-Newman University (University) is a private, not-for-profit institution of higher education which is operated under the auspices of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board.

The Eagle Foundation was formed on November 9, 2004, as a 501(c)3 supporting organization to the University, and to operate as a fundraising organization to benefit the University. The significant accounting policies followed by the University are presented below to assist the reader in evaluating the consolidated financial statements.

The University is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and comparable state law. The University is classified as a publicly supported organization, which is not a private foundation, under Section 509(a)(1) of the Code. The University accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a more likely than not threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under examination by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a cumulative probability assessment that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. Tax positions for the University include, but are not limited to, the tax exempt status and determination of whether income is subject to unrelated business income tax; however, the University has determined that such tax positions do not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The significant accounting policies followed by the University are described below to enhance the usefulness of the consolidated financial statements to the reader. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements and footnotes include the accounts of Carson-Newman University and its supporting organization. They are presented on a consolidated basis with all significant inter-organization balances and transactions eliminated in the consolidation. The University refers to Carson-Newman University and the Eagle Foundation, collectively.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash available for the general use of the University and all highly-liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Short-term liquid investments that are not available for the general use of the University (such as those restricted for endowments under the University's investment policy) are not considered cash and cash equivalents. The University maintained cash and cash equivalents in financial institutions which exceeded federally insured limits by $8,692,032 and $16,096,427 as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The University has not experienced any losses on such accounts.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

RESTRICTED CASH
Restricted cash consists of cash held in escrow and other depository accounts at financial institutions for future capital projects.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE–NET
Accounts receivable consists of tuition and fee charges to students and auxiliary enterprise services provided to students, faculty, and staff. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual student accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written-off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable.

STUDENT LOANS RECEIVABLE–NET
Student loans receivable consists of amounts due from the Federal Perkins Loan Program and other student loan receivables. Interest income on Federal Perkins Loans begins accruing six months after the student graduates or is no longer enrolled at the University. The University recognizes the income as the interest accrues. Any associated fees and costs are expensed as they are incurred. Loans receivable are considered past due if full principal payments are not received in accordance with the contractual terms.

U.S. government loan funds refundable under the Federal Perkins Loan Program are distributable to the federal government upon liquidation of the loan program and thus are reflected as a liability in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position. Under federal law, the authority for schools to make new Perkins loans ended on September 30, 2017.

INVESTMENTS
Investments in debt securities and equity securities with readily determinable fair values are reported at fair value with gains and losses included in the consolidated statements of activities. Investments in real estate and limited partnerships are reported at their carrying value and evaluated for impairment annually.

PROPERTY HELD FOR SALE
Property held for sale consists of land owned by the University that is in the process of being sold. The property is reported at its carrying value on the consolidated statements of financial position.

ANNUITY AND TRUST AGREEMENTS
The University holds annuity and trust arrangements whereby donors contributed assets to the organization in exchange for the right to receive an annual return during their lifetimes. Upon the death of donors under those agreements, any remaining assets will be remitted to the University for endowment and general use as designated by the donor. The annuity and trust liability is revalued annually based upon actuarially computed present values. Resulting actuarial gain or loss is recorded as change in value of annuities and trusts. The annuity assets are included with investments and there are no state required annuity reserves.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN PERPETUAL TRUSTS

Beneficial interests in perpetual trusts represent arrangements in which a donor establishes and funds a trust administered by an individual or organization other than the University. Beneficial interests in perpetual trusts are recorded at their fair value. The arrangements are held and administered by third party trustees; however, the University is entitled to receive income therefrom. As of July 31, 2022 and 2021, the University has beneficial interest in perpetual trusts totaling $5,494,583 and $6,126,587, respectively.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property, buildings, and equipment are stated in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position at cost, or if contributed, at fair market value at date of receipt. It is the University's policy to capitalize expenditures for these items in excess of $1,000. Library holdings have also been capitalized at actual cost. Depreciation is provided for plant assets using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings and building improvements	15-50 years
Furnishings and equipment	7-15 years
Vehicles	5 years

COST OF BORROWING

Interest costs incurred on borrowed funds during the period of construction of capital assets, net of investment income on proceeds of borrowing that are held by a trustee, are capitalized as a component of the cost of acquiring those assets. There was no interest costs capitalized during the year ended July 31, 2022. Debt issuance costs are amortized over the term of the loan using the straight-line method.

DEFERRED REVENUE AND DEPOSITS

During the spring semester, the University routinely registers students returning for the following fall semester. Accordingly, any tuition and fees collected during the fiscal year in which these early registrations occur are included in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position as deferred revenue and deposits. This deferred revenue will be recognized as revenue when earned during the succeeding fiscal year.

Deferred revenue also includes arrangements with an on campus food-service provider in which they periodically finance related facilities renovations and food-service equipment additions/replacements on behalf of the University. The costs are amortized over 10 years using the straight-line method. In the event that the contract is terminated, the University will owe the food-service provider the unamortized balance at the date of termination plus accrued but unbilled interest on the declining balance at two percent over the prime rate from the time that the facilities renovations and food-service equipment additions/replacements were completed or placed in service. The unamortized balance at July 31, 2022, was $1,017,921.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS

The University classifies its support, revenue, gains, and losses, into two classes of net assets based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Net assets of the University and changes therein are classified as follows:

Net assets without donor restriction are free of donor-imposed restrictions and may be designated for specific purposes by action of the board of trustees or may otherwise be limited by contractual agreements with outside parties or invested in property and equipment. Support, revenue, gains, and losses that are not restricted by donors are included in this classification. Expenses are reported as decreases in this classification.

Net assets with donor restriction are subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the University or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity but may permit the University to use or expend part or all of the income derived from the donated assets. Net assets with donor restrictions that are held in perpetuity include the University's permanent endowment funds and beneficial interest in perpetual trusts.

REVENUE AND SUPPORT

Exchange revenue is recognized when earned and support is recognized when contributions are made.

The University reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restriction are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

The University reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the University reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

In the event a donor makes changes to the nature of a restricted gift, which affects its classification among the net asset categories, such amounts are reflected as reclassifications in the consolidated statements of activities in the year of the change.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

EXPENSE ALLOCATION

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis (Note 16). Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. Maintenance expenses totaling $6,845,215 and $5,992,050 have been allocated to functional categories using square footage of facilities for the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. For the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, depreciation and amortization of $3,120,951 and $2,794,430, and interest expense of $718,355 and $738,507 have been allocated to functional categories based on specifically identified facilities and indebtedness, respectively.

GRANT REVENUE

The University receives grants for student financial aid and other purposes whereby the revenue is recognized once all conditions are met. During the year ended July 31, 2022, the University applied for and received the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) grants under three legislative acts enacted since March 13, 2020, related to the disruption of campus operations due to the coronavirus (COVID-19).

The grants awarded to the University and related activity as of July 31, 2022:

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM

In April 2020, the University qualified for and received a loan pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program, a program implemented by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, from a qualified lender (the "PPP Lender"), for an aggregate principal amount of $3,934,902 (the "PPP Loan") bearing interest at a fixed rate of 1.00% per annum. The principal amount of the PPP Loan was subject to forgiveness under the Paycheck Protection Program upon the University's request to the extent that the PPP Loan proceeds are used to pay expenses permitted by the Paycheck Protection Program, including payroll costs, covered rent and mortgage obligations, and covered utility payments incurred by the University. The entire amount of the PPP loan was forgiven by the SBA in June 2021. The forgiven loan is recorded as debt forgiveness of federal loans in the accompanying consolidated statement of activities for the year ended July 31, 2021.

STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

The University participates in various programs administered by the Department of Education and state boards, and the University acts as an agent for the respective agencies. The governmental grants and contracts amounts reported exclude funds directly awarded and credited to students under the various federal and state programs; however, substantial portions of the tuition and fees revenue and collection of accounts receivable as of July 31, 2022 and 2021, are dependent upon the University's continued participation in the various programs.

The University manages its liquidity and reserves following three guiding principles: operating within a prudent range of financial soundness and stability; maintaining adequate liquid assets to fund near-term operating needs; and maintaining sufficient reserves to provide reasonable assurance that long-term obligations will be discharged. The University monitors year-end balances of undesignated net assets without donor restrictions to meet 15 to 30 days of expected expenditures. To achieve these targets, the University forecasts its future cash flows and monitors its liquidity quarterly, and monitors its reserves annually. The University considers all expenditures related to its ongoing mission-related activities as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities to be general expenditures. Although the University does not intend to spend from board-designated endowment, these amounts could be made available, if necessary. The University also has a $3,500,000 line of credit that is available for operations. This line of credit has historically not been used throughout the year.

7. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The University uses appropriate valuation techniques to determine fair value based on inputs available. The levels are defined as follows: Level 1 – based on quoted prices for identical assets in active markets; Level 2 – based on observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets; Level 3 – based on significant unobservable inputs. When available, the University measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs are not available.

Fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis as of July 31, 2022, were as follows:

	Fair Value Measurements
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

7. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS, continued:

Fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis as of July 31, 2021, were as follows:

	Fair Value Measurements
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Trust assets:
Mutual funds	$ 30,108,160	$ -	$ -	$ 30,108,160

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Mutual funds and stocks –The fair value of these financial instruments is based upon quoted market prices or dealer quotes in an active market.

Fixed income –The fair value of these financial instruments is based upon yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings.

Tennessee Baptist Foundation Endowment Fund– This fund consists of a diversified portfolio of U.S. and international mutual and equity funds, and U.S investment grade fixed income assets that are reported to the Foundation at fair value, and the University owns shares of the fund valued at net asset value.

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts –The University's beneficial interest in perpetual trusts administered by third parties are classified as Level 3. The fair value is the underlying net asset value of pooled funds for beneficial interests to be held in perpetuity.

Changes in valuation techniques –None.

9. ENDOWMENT FUNDS:

The University's endowment consists of individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted and board-designated endowment funds. As required by generally accepted accounting principles, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the board of trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The board of trustees of the University has interpreted the Tennessee Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (TUPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift, as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. For accounting purposes only and without any implication for the University's legal obligations for administering its endowment funds, the University has classified as net assets with donor restriction into perpetuity, the following: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified as net assets with donor restriction by time, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by TUPMIFA.

FUNDS WITH DEFICIENCIES

Because TUPMIFA does not establish a fixed level below which an endowment fund is permitted to fall, there are no deficiencies in the endowment funds held by the University. However, the University maintains records of the sum of: (a) the original value of gifts donated to each endowment fund, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to each endowment fund, and (c) accumulations to each such endowment fund made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. In accordance with GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are reported in net assets with donor restrictions. The endowment funds that have fallen below such recorded values have an original gift value of $25,265,629, a current fair value of $23,896,132, with deficiencies of $1,369,497 as of July 31, 2022.

9. ENDOWMENT FUNDS, continued:

RETURN OBJECTIVES AND RISK PARAMETERS

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the University must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period, as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the board of trustees, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of selected benchmarks for each investment asset class, while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The University expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 7.5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

STRATEGIES EMPLOYED FOR ACHIEVING OBJECTIVES

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the University relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The University targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

SPENDING POLICY AND HOW THE INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES RELATE TO SPENDING POLICY

In developing its spending policy, the University considers certain of the following factors, which it determines relevant:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of the University and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the University
7. The investment policies of the University

The University has a policy of appropriating for distribution annually from its endowment funds up to 4% of the previous year's weighted average corpus balance at the discretion of the board of trustees, based on each year's institutional objectives. In establishing this policy, the University considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long-term, the University expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average rate of approximately 3.5% annually. This is consistent with the University's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

In previous years, the University elected to initiate interfund loans from the endowment fund to meet the cash flow needs and fund capital projects. The balance of all interfund borrowings from the endowment fund was $6,706,120 as of July 31, 2021. The University intends to repay the balance of the loan as the availability of operating funds permit.

In August 2020, USDA committed $14,500,000 in new community facilities loans to the University and as part of this agreement, the University obtained interim financing from a bank in July 2022. As of July 31, 2022, $39,052 has been drawn on the interim financing.

12. LIABILITY FOR PENSION BENEFITS:

The University has a post-retirement defined benefit pension plan which is not subject to ERISA, as it is a church plan. Effective October 15, 2007, the University suspended the plan so that employees do not earn additional benefits for future services, resulting in a curtailment of the plan. In doing so, participants received credit for additional years of service based on participants' years of service at the date of the plan freeze (1 if under 10; 2 if 10 or more but less than 20; 3 if 20 or more but less than 30; 4 if 30 or more). Vesting continues under this plan.

The plan covers employees who completed six months of service and are 21 years of age or older. Employees became fully vested after seven years of participation. Benefits are based on 1.5% of the average compensation over the employee's credited service term for each year of benefit service and .5% of average compensation over the employee's credited service term in excess of $10,000 for each year of benefit service up to a maximum of 35 years. The University's funding policy is to annually contribute the amounts as determined by the plan's actuary to satisfy the funding requirements.

The University's expected long-term return on plan assets assumption is based on a periodic review and modeling of the plans' asset allocation and liability structure over a long-term horizon. Expectations of returns for each asset class are the most important of the assumptions used in the review and modeling and are based on comprehensive reviews of historical data and economical/financial market theory. The expected long-term rate of return on assets was selected from within the reasonable range of rates determined by (a) historical returns, net of inflation, for the asset classes covered by the investment policy, and (b) projections of inflation over the long-term period during which benefits are payable to plan participants.

The objectives of the target allocations are to maintain investment portfolios that diversify risk through prudent asset allocation parameters, achieve asset returns that meet or exceed the plan's actuarial assumptions, and achieve asset returns that are competitive with like institutions employing similar investment strategies.

The investment policy is periodically reviewed by the University and a designated third-party fiduciary for investment matters. The policy is established and administered in a manner so as to comply at all times with applicable government regulations.

During the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively, the University contributed $1,838,330 and $1,675,520 to its defined-benefit pension plan. The plans contribution requirements for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2023, have not been determined.

17. DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN:

The University has a defined-contribution retirement plan. To be eligible, employees must be 21 years of age, have completed three months of employment and have completed at least 500 hours of service during that period. The University makes matching contributions equal to a discretionary percentage. Benefits relating to contributions by the University vest for employees after three years of service. For the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, the University made no contribution to the plan.

18. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

Activity related to student financial assistance programs is subject to audit both by independent certified public accountants and by representatives of the administering agencies regarding compliance with applicable regulations. Any resultant findings of noncompliance could potentially result in the required return of related funds received and/or the assessment of fines or penalties, or the discontinuation of eligibility for participation. In the opinion of management, audit adjustments, if any, will not have a significant effect on the financial position or result of activities of the University.

The University has entered into a construction contract related to a capital project. The project began in 2021 and is expected to be completed during fiscal year 2023. As of July 31, 2022, unexpended commitments related to this contract was approximately $12.6 Million.

19. RELATED PARTIES:

During the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, the University received $195,954 and $143,219, respectively in contributions from board of trustee members and companies those members own.

The Tennessee Baptist Foundation is an institution of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, an affiliate of the University, designated for the management of trust and endowment funds. The University participates in these trust funds and holds endowment investments with the Foundation. As of July 31, 2022 and 2021, the Tennessee Baptist Foundation administered $2,475,580 and $2,483,473 of beneficial interest in perpetual trusts and the University held $6,306,942 and $6,954,972, respectively in endowment investments with them.

The Tennessee Baptist Mission Board contributed $1,696,133 and $1,941,500 to the University during the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, of which $132,904 and $155,622 was due from the Mission Board at July 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

20. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES:

In January 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of coronavirus (COVID-19) as a pandemic which continues to spread throughout the United States. COVID-19 has caused a severe negative impact on the world economy and has contributed to significant declines and volatility in financial markets. The duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic remains unclear at this time. It is not possible to reliably estimate the duration and severity of these consequences, as well as their impact on the consolidated financial position and results of the University for future periods. Management is carefully monitoring the situation and evaluating its options as circumstances evolve.

21. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 7, 2023, which represents the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued. Subsequent events after that date have not been evaluated.

In November 2021, the Pedersen Nursing Building was destroyed by fire and deemed a total loss. The cause of the fire is currently unknown. The 6,100 square foot building is located at 620 Davis St. and serviced the nursing classrooms and simulation labs. As of July 31, 2021, the net book value after accumulated depreciation of the building was $403,927. The University insurance property coverage is full replacement value of the building and all included equipment. As of July 31, 2022, the asset and accumulated deprecation has been disposed of and placed as a receivable until insurance proceeds have been finalized.

As of the date of this report, no insurance proceeds have been recognized. The University may elect to construct a general education building that will service multiple departments, but no formalized plans have been made.

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Trustees
Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy
Seymour, Tennessee

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy (the "Academy") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of July 31, 2022, and the related statements of activities, statements of functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Academy as of July 31, 2022, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Academy and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Prior Period Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Academy as of July 31, 2021, were audited by other auditors whose report dated April 21, 2023 expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Academy's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Academy's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Academy's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

HARRISON-CHILHOWEE BAPTIST ACADEMY
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JULY 31, 2022 AND 2021

A. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy (the Academy) was incorporated in 1932 as a Tennessee not-for-profit corporation and is exempt from federal income tax on related activities under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and comparable State law. Harrison-Chilhowee Baptist Academy is classified as a publicly supported Academy, which is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1) of the Code, and contributions to it are tax deductible within the limitations prescribed by the Code.

The Academy is a private, day and boarding school that prepares students academically, spiritually, and socially to face life's challenges as productive, service-oriented citizens. The day school is for preschool through 12th grade while the boarding school is for grades 7 through 12. Its mission is to inspire and equip students of all cultural backgrounds to fulfill their God given potential in a nurturing, college preparatory community.

B. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Academy maintains its accounts and prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash, checking, and savings accounts, and highly liquid investments with original maturity dates of less than three months. These accounts may, at times, exceed federally insured limits. The Academy has not experienced any losses in such accounts, and management believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents. At July 31, 2022 and 2021, the Academy's cash balances exceeded federally insured limits by $1,292,407 and $1,817,247, respectively.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2021 financial statement presentation to correspond to the current year's format. Net assets and changes in net assets are unchanged due to these reclassifications.

B. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

STUDENT ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE–NET

Student accounts receivable–net represent tuition and fees which have been billed to families of students in accordance with the Academy's policy, and are reported net of any anticipated losses due to uncollectible accounts. Amounts are past due when not paid by the end of the following month. Accounts over 30 days past due are assessed a late fee of $15 per month until the accounts are paid in full. Management's policy regarding unpaid balance states that the Academy reserves the right to refuse a student to participate in certain activities and academics. Student accounts over 60 days past due are subject to dismissal. Additionally, students are not allowed to receive a diploma upon graduation until any remaining balance is paid.

The allowance for doubtful accounts receivable is maintained at a level that, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb probable losses. The amount is based upon an analysis of overall receivables by management. Management's evaluation of the allowance for doubtful accounts includes, but is not limited to, the historical experience of payment patterns from the student, financial condition of the family, other known facts and circumstances, and general economic conditions. This process is based on estimates and ultimate losses may vary from current estimates. As changes in estimates occur, adjustments to the level of the allowance are recorded in the provision for doubtful accounts in the period in which they become known. Accounts receivable are written off when they are deemed uncollectible due to known financial issues.

Pledges Receivable–Net

Pledges receivable include unconditional promises made by donors wherein the donor has unconditionally promised to contribute funds to the Academy in future periods for various capital projects. Unconditional promises expected to be collected within one year are recorded as support and a receivable at net realizable value. Unconditional promises expected to be collected in future years are recorded as support and a receivable at the present value of the expected future cash flows. Discounts on those amounts are computed using risk adjusted interest rates applicable to the years in which the promises are received. There were no new pledges received during the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021. Amortization of discounts is included in contribution revenue. Conditional promises to give are not included as support until the conditions are substantially met.

Investments And Investments Held for Long-Term Purposes

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all debt securities are recorded at fair value with gains and losses reported in the statements of activities. Other investments are reported at the lower of cost or fair value. Donated investments are recorded at market value at the date of donation and thereafter carried in conformity with the stated policy.

Property and Equipment–Net

Items capitalized as property and equipment are recorded at cost or, if donated, at fair market value on the date of the gift. Purchases and donations of equipment in excess of $1,000 are capitalized if the expected useful life exceeds one year. Donations are reported as support without donor restrictions unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, expirations of donor restrictions are reported when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets ranging from 3 to 50 years.

Beneficial Interest in Perpetual Trusts

Beneficial interests in perpetual trusts represent resources neither in the possession or under the control of the Academy but held and administered by third parties for the benefit of the Southern Baptist and Tennessee Baptist mission causes. Net earnings on these funds are recorded as investment income in the accompanying statements of activities.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents tuition revenue for the following semester classes that have not yet begun as of July 31 of each year. Such amounts will be recognized as revenue in the subsequent fiscal year.

Net Assets

Net assets without donor restrictions are currently available at the discretion of the board for use in operations, designated by the board for other specific projects determined by the board, or invested in property and equipment net of accumulated depreciation and related debt.

Net assets with donor restrictions amounts are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes, with time restrictions, or requiring that they be held in perpetuity with investment return used for operations and scholarships.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

Tuition revenue is recognized in the reporting period in which the academic programs are delivered. Programs are delivered in the Fall (August to mid-December) and Spring (January to mid-May) academic terms. Merit and need-based institutional scholarships are awarded to students to defray the costs of the academic programs, which reduce the amount of revenue recognized. Payments for tuition are due at the time of approval for admission or enrollment or in installment plans of two equal installments or a number of monthly installments.

	Year Ended July 31,
	2022	2021
Tuition and fees	$ 4,251,735	$ 4,147,239
Less scholarships and assistance	(276,256)	(283,991)
Less tuition discounts and waivers	(595,212)	(395,165)
	$ 3,380,267	$ 3,468,083

The Academy recognizes support when contributions are made, which may be when cash is received, unconditional promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to the Academy. Conditional promises to give with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met. Consequently, at July 31, 2022 and 2021, contributions approximating $-0- and $50,000, respectively, have not been recognized in the accompanying statements of activities because the condition on which they depend has not yet been met.

The Academy reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted revenue if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. All contributions are considered to be available for use without donor restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor.

The Academy reports donations of property and equipment as support without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash and other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as support with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Academy reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Gains and losses on investments are reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or law.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or supporting functions of the Academy. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. These expenses include salaries and benefits, depreciation, facilities operations, and other expenses. Salaries and benefits are allocated on a departmental basis or based on an estimate of the employees time spent in each function. Depreciation and facilities expenses are allocated based on square footage of buildings. Other expenses are allocated based on the department incurring the expense.

H. PPP LOAN FORGIVENESS

On February 2, 2021, the academy received loan proceeds in the amount of $664,620 under the Paycheck Protection Program (the "Program"). The Program, established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act"), provides loans to qualifying businesses for amounts up to 2.5 times of the average monthly payroll expenses of the qualifying business. The note payable and accrued interest are forgivable as long as the organization uses the proceeds for eligible purposes, including payroll, benefits, rent and utilities, and maintains its payroll levels. The amount of forgiveness will be reduced if the organization terminates employees or reduces salaries during the applicable period. The unforgiven portion of the note payable is payable over two years at an interest rate of 1% and the organization's monthly principal and interest payments would begin seven months from the date the notes payable were dated. The Academy was notified in September 2021 their loans totaling $664,620, respectively, were forgiven in full. These forgiven loan amounts are included in other income in 2021.

K. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. the Academy uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, the Academy measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs are not available.

The following tables presents the fair value measurements of assets and liabilities recognized in the accompanying statements of financial position measured at fair value on a recurring basis and the level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements fall at July 31, 2022 and 2021:

		Fair Value Measurements Using
	Assets Measured at Fair Value	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)

Beneficial interests in perpetual trusts held by others	$ 836,222	$ -	$ -	$836,222

Valuation techniques used in estimating fair values are as follows:

Domestic equities and fixed income funds - The fair value of these financial instruments is based upon quoted market prices in an active market.

Interest in TBF common funds - The value of investments in common funds are based on the value of the Academy's per share interest in the pooled fund as reported by the Tennessee Baptist Foundation. The Academy is able to redeem its investment in the pool at the reporting date.

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts - The fair value of interest in trusts held by others is estimated based upon the proportionate share of the trust's assets as represented by the trustee.

Changes in valuation techniques - None.

L. ENDOWMENTS

As required by the Endowment and Disclosure topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. The Academy's endowments consist of approximately five donor-restricted endowment funds established for student financial assistance as well as other various purposes.

The board of trustees of the Academy has interpreted the Tennessee Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (TUPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Academy includes as net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not included in perpetuity is included as net assets with donor restrictions, restricted by purpose or time, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Academy in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by TUPMIFA. In accordance with TUPMIFA, the Academy considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- The duration and preservation of the fund
- The purposes of the Academy and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- General economic conditions
- The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- Other resources of the Academy
- The investment policies of the Academy

L. ENDOWMENTS - Continued

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters - The Academy has adopted investment and spending policies for these particular endowment assets that attempt to provide a balance of yield and capital appreciation while distributing funds in a manner that meets the intent of the donor. These endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Academy must hold in perpetuity. Under this policy, the assets of this particular endowment are invested in a manner that is intended to preserve the balance of the endowment. Actual returns in any given year may vary.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives - To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Academy relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Academy targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Related to Spending Policy - The Academy has no formal spending policy. Annual appropriations for expenditure are made at the discretion of the board of trustees when determining the annual budget. In determining this amount, the Academy considers the long-term expected return on its endowment. The Academy's objective is to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

Endowment Loan

During the years ended June 30, 2009 to 2011, the Academy borrowed $675,000 in endowment funds as a noninterest bearing loan receivable agreement for operating and capital purchase purposes. As of July 31, 2022, the Academy paid $450,000 of the loan. The remaining loan receivable from the operating fund is considered to be an endowment asset.

During the year ended July 31, 2021, three donors gave 49% of the Organization's total cash contributions. The implications of this concentration are recognized by the Organization; however, in the near term, the Organization believes these major donor relationships will be maintained.

N. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention): The Convention is comprised of messengers from cooperating churches seeking to minister together for the purpose of carrying out the Great Commission. Tennessee Baptists, acting in Convention in 1894, by unanimous action, made HCBA an institution of the Convention, thereby committing the Convention to ministering to students. Since making this commitment, Tennessee Baptists have provided prayer support and financial resources to support TBCH in meeting the growing needs of students and families. The entities have entered into a covenant, committing to each other their mutual goals, aspirations, and desire to spread the gospel of Christ throughout Tennessee, North America, and the world.

The Convention supports HCBA through the Cooperative Program. HCBA relates to the Convention through the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board's Partner Ministries Committee, or its successor committee. HCBA supports the ministries of the Convention through promotion of Cooperative Program and through participation in those ministries. HCBA commits to the process of trustee selection established by the Convention.

HCBA is an autonomous nonprofit corporation, neither owned nor operated by the Convention. Governance of HCBA is vested in its board of trust in all matters.

HCBA received from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board $340,396 and $342,252 in Cooperative Program and contributions for HCBA for the years ended July 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

O. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In December of 2022, the Academy's location suffered damage resulting from freezing weather. Subsequent to the year ended July 31, 2022, the Academy received $380,317 in insurance proceeds related to the freeze damage that occurred. The Academy intends to use all proceeds for repairs and restoration to the Academy's campus.

Subsequent events have been evaluated through June 5, 2024, which represents the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Subsequent events after that date have not been evaluated.

(a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tennessee Baptist Foundation, Inc. as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tennessee Baptist Foundation, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Foundation, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

The Tennessee Baptist Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation) was incorporated in 1938 as a Tennessee religious not-for-profit public benefit corporation and is exempt from federal income tax on related activities under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and comparable state law. Though a separate entity, the Foundation supports the work of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board (TBMB), the Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention), and institutions and churches of the Convention, in the objective of reaching others with the gospel by offering dependable and prudent investment service consistent with the highest ideals of prudent, Christian stewardship. The Foundation is classified as a publicly supported organization, which is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1) of the Code, and contributions to it are tax deductible within limitations prescribed by the Code.

The Convention is a network of churches that choose to cooperate together to further the gospel of Christ through joint mission activity, ministries of TBMB, and the ministries of institutions such as the Foundation. The Convention acts through messengers from cooperating churches to the annual meeting of the Convention. During this meeting, the Convention elects the Foundation trustees and determines the allocation of Cooperative Program funding to the Foundation. The Foundation records the Cooperative Program gifts as being given without donor restrictions. The Convention is an unincorporated association.

In fulfillment of its mission, the Foundation manages investment funds, endowments, charitable gift annuities and qualified charitable trusts for the benefit of churches, associations, institutions, and individuals affiliated with the Convention. While a trust may have a non-Baptist beneficiary, a Convention or Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) institution or cause must also have a beneficial interest in the trust. The Foundation's primary revenue source is income from investments, fess charged for management of investments, Cooperative Program, and contributions from donors.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held in checking, savings, money market accounts, cash held in investment accounts and all other highly liquid accounts with original maturities of less than 90 days. The Foundation maintains its cash and cash equivalents with high credit, quality financial institutions, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Foundation has not experienced any losses in such accounts, and management believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents. At October 31, 2022 and 2021, the Foundation's cash balances exceeded federally insured limits by $19,349,774 and $19,783,254, respectively.

INVESTMENTS

Investments, assets held for others and in trust, (collectively hereafter referred to as "Investments"), held in equity securities with readily determinable fair values, mutual funds and all debt securities are reported at fair value.

Other investments and assets, such as cash surrender value of life insurance policies and property held for sale, are reported at the lower of cost (fair value at the date of donation) or current fair value. Adjustments to the carrying value of other investments, only to the extent the aggregate fair value of the pool drops below its aggregate carrying value, are reported in the statements of activities as a component of investment income or as direct entries to representative liability accounts for amounts held for others.

Alternative investments have been stated at fair values based on the Foundation's share of net asset values derived from the values of the underlying investments as reported by the fund managers. Management obtains and considers the most recent audited financial statements of such investments when evaluating the overall reasonableness of carrying value. Management believes this method provides a reasonable estimate of fair value. Due to the inherent uncertainty of valuation of such investments, the estimated values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for such investments existed.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT–NET

Items capitalized as property and equipment are stated at cost or, if donated, at market value on the date of donation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from three to five years. Repairs and maintenance and small equipment purchases are expensed as incurred. Expenditures that significantly increase asset value or extend useful lives are capitalized. Acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $1,000 that meet the capitalization requirements are capitalized. Upon retirement, sale or other disposition of property and equipment, the cost and accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts and gains or losses are included on the statements of activities.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

AMOUNTS HELD FOR OTHERS

The Foundation was formed to administer funds and receive property on behalf of the TBMB and other Baptist entities. In its capacity as trustee, administrator, custodian or agent, the Foundation holds assets for these organizations. In addition, the Foundation acts as trustee under revocable and irrevocable agreements in which donors have retained interest in income, principal or both.

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS

The financial statements report amounts separately by class of net assets:

Net assets without donor restrictions are not subject to donor imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Foundation. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Foundation's management and the board of trustees.

Net assets with donor restrictions are subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Foundation or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity, but may permit the Foundation to use or expend part or all of the income derived from the donated assets.

All contributions are considered available for use without restriction unless specifically restricted by the donor or subject to other legal restrictions.

SUPPORT AND REVENUE, RECLASSIFICATIONS, AND EXPENSES

Contributions are recognized when cash, securities or other assets; an unconditional promise to give; or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. Conditional promises to give-that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return-are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

The Foundation recognizes revenue from fees during the year in which the related services are provided. The performance obligation of delivering events is simultaneously received and consumed by the recipients of the services. All amounts received prior to the service being provided are deferred to the applicable period. All other exchange revenue is recognized when earned.

The Foundation reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated amounts. When a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as reclassifications.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

SUPPORT AND REVENUE, RECLASSIFICATIONS, AND EXPENSES, continued
The Foundation reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as support without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash and other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as support with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Foundation reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Donated goods (including securities) are recorded at fair value at the date of the gift.

Expenses are reported when costs are incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting. The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or supporting functions of the Foundation. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. These expenses include salaries and benefits. Salaries and benefits have been allocated based on the programmatic purpose of the employee incurring the expense.

3. LIQUIDITY AND FUNDS AVAILABLE:
The following reflects the Foundation's financial assets as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, reduced by amounts not available for general expenditure within one year. Financial assets are considered unavailable when illiquid or not convertible to cash within one year. The Foundation considers general expenditures to be all expenditures related to its ongoing activities to achieve its vision as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities to be general expenditures.

As trustee, the Foundation administers irrevocable trusts that provide for the payment of lifetime distributions to the grantor or other designated beneficiaries. At the death of the lifetime beneficiaries, the trusts provide for the distribution of assets to designated remaindermen. The portion of the trusts attributable to the remainder interest of the Foundation is reported as contributions with donor restrictions in the period received. The portion of the trusts attributable to the present value of the life interest payable to the trust recipients and any remainder interest due other remaindermen is recorded as a liability. The present value of future cash flows to income beneficiaries is computed using published mortality rate tables adopted by the IRS at assumed rates of return ranging from 5.0% to 9.0% to determine the present value of the actuarially determined liability. The resulting actuarial gain or loss is recorded as a component of the change in value for agreements where the Foundation has an irrevocable interest.

10. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The Fair Value topic of the FASB ASC establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. The Foundation uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, the Foundation measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 and Level 2 inputs were not available.

The following table presents the fair value measurements of assets and liabilities recognized in the accompanying statements of financial position measured at fair value on a recurring basis and the level within the fair value hierarchy at October 31, 2022 and 2021:

	October 31, 2022
	Total	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)
Investments, at fair value:
Fixed income securities	$ 27,621,363	$ -	$ 27,621,363	$ -
Equity securities	48,735,630	48,735,630	-	-
Mutual funds	43,980,267	27,545,685	16,434,582	-
	120,337,260	$ 76,281,315	$ 44,055,945	$ -

REITs and private equity	16,311,931
	$136,649,191

10. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS, continued:

	October 31, 2021
	Total	(Level 1)	(Level 2)	(Level 3)
Investments, at fair value:
Fixed income securities	$ 63,989,460	$ -	$ 63,989,460	$ -

	154,445,349	$ 49,187,148	$ 105,258,201	$ -
Alternative investments, measured at net asset value:
REITs and private equity	6,687,924
	$161,133,273

Valuation techniques used by the Foundation in estimating fair value are as follows:

Valuation techniques: Fair values for United States government securities, corporate certificates of deposit, municipal bonds, corporate notes and bonds, equity securities, and mutual funds are based on quoted market prices in an active market. Fair values of REITs are based on the net asset value of the underlying investments in the fund as reported by the investment custodian. The Foundation uses net asset value to determine the fair value of all underlying investments which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment company or have the attributes of an investment company. Alternative investments consist of 2 REITs and 5 private equity funds, whose remaining life lasts until liquidation of the underlying investments, which have no ability to redeem and which have no unfunded commitments for both of the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021.

Changes in valuation techniques: None.

11. ENDOWMENT FUNDS:

The Foundation's endowment consists of approximately 120 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment consists entirely of donor-restricted endowment funds. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the board of trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The board of trustees has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift, as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Foundation classifies as net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment in perpetuity, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment in perpetuity, and (c) accumulations to the endowment in perpetuity made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity is classified as net assets with donor restrictions for purpose or time until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Foundation in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Foundation considered the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of the Foundation and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the Foundation
7. The investment policies of the Foundation

Funds with Deficiencies:

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires the Foundation to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. As of October 31, 2022 and 2021, there were no such funds.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters:

The Foundation has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Foundation must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board-designated funds. The Foundation expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives:

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Foundation relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Foundation targets a diversified asset allocation that includes an emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives are Related to Spending Policy:

The Foundation has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year up to 5% of its endowment fund's net asset value. The investment objectives seek to generate a long-term rate-of-return that supports the annual spending policy goals.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Trustees
Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

The Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. (TBCH), is an institution of the Tennessee Baptist Convention that provides free Christ-centered, nurturing homes for children in hard places across Tennessee.

TBCH's Residential Care program provides on-campus Christ-centered homes for children who are not in state custody and whose families cannot provide the care they need. Christian couples serve as house parents in these family-style homes for up to eight resident children, providing a safe environment in which children can thrive and be guided by biblical principles and direction.

Through TBCH's George Shinn Foster Care Program, the Children's Homes partners with Tennessee's Department of Children's Services to provided certified foster families and quality case management for children in state custody. TBCH provides these services at no cost to the State so that evangelical Christian couples may be carefully selected by TBCH to serve as foster parents. This allows children placed in these homes to be cared for physically as well as spiritually. This program includes training, support, direction, and advocacy for these homes by qualified and dedicated TBCH Foster Care Case Managers.

TBCH's Family Care program seeks to work with churches and other organizations to create a network of local resources in communities across the state. By connecting families to counseling services, parenting training, and other church ministries, this program changes the trajectory of families in need of these resources for the better.

TBCH's primary sources of support is contributions from churches (both directly and through the Cooperative Program of the Tennessee Baptist Convention). TBCH has received a determination letter that it is generally exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (Code) and comparable state law and is classified as a publicly supported organization, which is not a private foundation, under section 509(a)(1) of the Code. However, income from certain activities not directly related to TBCH's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. TBCH has concluded that it does not have any unrecognized tax benefits resulting from current or prior period tax positions. Accordingly, no additional disclosures have been made on the consolidated financial statements regarding the Income Tax topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). TBCH does not have any outstanding interest or penalties, and none have been recorded in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021.

Effective February 2022, TBCH established 1911 Corporation (1911), a for-profit domestic corporation, to support the developing of the TBCH Brentwood campus. 1911 issued 1,000 common shares, all of which are held by TBCH. 1911 has been consolidated in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the consolidated statements to the reader.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the operations of TBCH and 1911, hereinafter referred to as TBCH. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated from the consolidated financial statements.

ESTIMATES

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and deposits in banks. Cash equivalents also include, when applicable, short-term highly liquid debt securities that are both readily convertible to cash and have an original maturity of three months or less. TBCH maintains cash and cash equivalents in financial institutions which may, at times, exceed federally insured or protected limits. Deposits in excess of federally insured and protected limits were $4,625,401 and $2,479,097 at October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. TBCH has not experienced any losses on such accounts.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable includes accrued interest income as well as outstanding Cooperative Program distributions from the Tennessee Baptist Convention, of which TBCH has an unconditional right to receive. Based upon past experience, management believes that all accounts receivable are fully collectible. Therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

INVESTMENTS

Investments in stocks, mutual funds, money market funds, and certificates of deposit are stated at fair value based upon quoted market prices. Other investments include insurance policies carried at cash surrender value. Donated investments are recorded at market value at the date of donation and thereafter carried in conformity with the stated policy.

Interest and dividend income and the realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments are reported in the consolidated statements of activities as investment income without donor restrictions unless a donor or law restricts its use for a period of time or in perpetuity.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

PROPERTY, BUILDINGS, AND EQUIPMENT

Property, plant, and equipment are recorded at historical cost. Donated plant assets are recorded at fair market value determined at the date of the gift. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Estimated useful lives range from 5 to 40 years. TBCH capitalizes all purchases with a cost greater than $5,000 and an expected useful life greater than one year.

BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN TRUSTS HELD BY TRUSTEES

Beneficial interest in trusts represent funds held and administered by trustees in accordance with the terms of various trust instruments and include both residual and perpetual trusts. Residual trusts are structured to pay a remainder corpus amount in the future. Perpetual trusts are structured to pay ongoing income in the form of annual distributions, which are recorded as income from beneficial interest in trusts on the consolidated statements of activities.

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS

The consolidated financial statements report amounts separately by class of net assets:

Net assets without donor restrictions are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations, may be designated for specific purposes by action of TBCH's board of trustees, may otherwise be limited by contractual agreements with outside parties, or invested in property and equipment.

Net assets with donor restrictions are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes or the acquisition of property and equipment, are time-restricted, or are required by donors to be held in perpetuity with investment return used for operations and other restricted purposes.

REVENUES, EXPENSES, AND RECLASSIFICATIONS

Revenue is recognized when earned and support when contributions are made, which may be when cash is received, unconditional promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to TBCH. Conditional promises to give with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

TBCH reports gifts of cash and other assets as support with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. All contributions are considered to be available for use without donor restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

TBCH reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as support without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash and other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as support with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how those long-lived assets must be maintained, TBCH reports expirations of donor restrictions when donated or acquired assets have been placed in service.

Contributions of non-financial assets are recognized at fair value at the date of the gift. Valuation techniques consist of:

Non-financial contributions category	Valuation
Labor	Cost charged to a customer for the service provided in a normal transaction
Tuition	Tuition rate for the same level of student at the educational institution providing the service
Office space	Similar properties available in commercial real estate listings
Food and produce	$20 per plastic bag and $30 per paper bag
Household goods, clothing, and supplies	Retail prices of identical or similar products or a reduced rate if the item is used
Property, buildings, and equipment	Standard industry pricing for similar or identical assets
Other	Standard industry pricing for similar or identical products

Expenses are recorded when incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting. The costs of providing the various program services and supporting activities are summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program services and supporting activities benefited. Salaries, benefits and payroll taxes are allocated to the functions where time and effort are expended. Depreciation and other facility-related expenses are allocated based upon an analysis of usage of space. All other natural classifications presented in the consolidated statements of functional expenses are allocated based upon an analysis of the specific activities.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

OPERATING AND NONOPERATING ACTIVITIES

The consolidated statements of activities presents the changes in net assets of TBCH from both operating activities and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues and expenses relate primarily to program services provided by TBCH. The portion of investment return appropriated for operations on long-term investments held for endowments and similar purposes under TBCH's total return spending policy is considered operating revenue. Activity with donor restrictions is not considered to be operating.

Nonoperating activities consist primarily of (a) other components of net periodic post-retirement costs, (b) post-retirement related changes other than net periodic post-retirement costs, (c) contributions of beneficial interest in trusts, and (d) the change in value of beneficial interest in trusts.

RECENTLY ADOPTED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In September 2020, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2020-07, Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets. TBCH adopted the provisions of the new standard during the year ended October 31, 2022. The standard requires nonprofits to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line item in the consolidated statements of activities, apart from contributions of cash or other nonfinancial assets. The standard also increases the disclosure requirements around contributed nonfinancial assets, including disaggregating by category the types of contributed nonfinancial assets a nonprofit entity has received. Adoption of this standard did not have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements, with the exception of increased disclosure.

TENNESSEE BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

3. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF RESOURCES:

The following reflects TBCH's financial assets as of October 31, 2022 and 2021, reduced by amounts not available for general use because of contractual or donor-imposed restrictions within one year of the consolidated statement of financial position date. TBCH considers general expenditures to include all expenditures relating to its ongoing program activities relating to residential, family, and foster care. Financial assets are considered unavailable when illiquid or not convertible to cash within one year.

9. ENDOWMENT FUNDS:

TBCH's endowment consists of individual funds established for a variety of purposes and includes donor-restricted endowment funds. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The board of trustees of TBCH has interpreted the State of Tennessee's Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (SUPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, TBCH classifies as net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity is classified as net assets with donor restrictions by purpose or time until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by TBCH in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by SUPMIFA.

In accordance with SUPMIFA, TBCH considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of TBCH and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of TBCH
7. The investment policies of TBCH

Return objectives and risk parameters:

TBCH's investment and spending policies for endowment assets attempt to provide a stream of funding for its programs. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that TBCH must hold in perpetuity. Under this policy, as approved by the board of trustees, the endowment assets are invested with the goals of high current return and preservation of capital. TBCH expects its endowment funds to provide the maximum attainable current yield while assuming a minimum level of investment risk.

Funds with deficiencies:

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or SUPMIFA requires TBCH to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. As of October 31, 2022, deficiencies of this nature exist in 47 funds, which together have an original gift value of $4,788,062 a fair value of $4,665,954 and a deficiency of $122,108. The deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market conditions.

Strategies employed for achieving objectives:

To satisfy its objectives, TBCH relies on a strategy in which investment returns are achieved through current yield (interest and dividends). TBCH does not invest in companies or industries whose known products, services, or practices are contrary to the beliefs or practices of Southern Baptists.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Spending policies and how the investment objectives relate to spending policy:

TBCH has a practice of appropriating the current earnings for distribution annually. In establishing this practice TBCH considered the critical need for annual income as well as the existence of non-endowment investments. This is consistent with TBCH objectives of achieving high current return and preservation of capital.

10. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure topic of the FASB ASC establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. TBCH uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, TBCH measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs are not available.

Fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis as of October 30, 2022 and 2021, are as follows:

	Fair Value Measurements at October 31, 2022
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Methods and assumptions used by TBCH in estimating fair values are as follows:

Mutual funds, certificates of deposit, money market funds, and stocks –The fair value of these financial instruments is based upon quoted market prices or dealer quotes in an active market.

Interest in pooled funds of the Southern Baptist Foundation –The fair value of these financial instruments is based upon TBCH's per share interest in the pooled fund as reported by the Southern Baptist Foundation. TBCH is able to redeem its investment in the pool at the reporting date.

Beneficial interest in trusts held by trustees –The fair value of beneficial interest in trusts held by others is based on the value of TBCH's proportional share of the overall assets held by the other organizations.

Changes in valuation techniques –None.

11. RELATED PARTY DISCLOSURE:

Tennessee Baptist Convention (Convention) : The Convention is comprised of messengers from cooperating churches seeking to minister together for the purpose of carrying out the Great Commission. Tennessee Baptists, acting in Convention in 1894, by unanimous action, made TBCH an institution of the Convention, thereby committing the Convention to ministering to children. Since making this commitment, Tennessee Baptists have provided prayer support and financial resources to support TBCH in meeting the growing needs of children and families in crisis through Residential Care, Foster Care, Family Care, and adoption related services. The entities have entered into a covenant, committing to each other their mutual goals, aspirations, and desire to spread the gospel of Christ throughout Tennessee, North America, and the world.

The Convention supports TBCH through the Cooperative Program. TBCH relates to the Convention through the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board's Partner Ministries Committee, or its successor committee. TBCH supports the ministries of the Convention through promotion of Cooperative Program and through participation in those ministries. TBCH commits to the process of trustee selection established by the Convention.

TBCH is an autonomous nonprofit corporation, neither owned nor operated by the Convention. Governance of TBCH is vested in its board of trust in all matters.

TBCH received from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board $2,758,202 and $2,863,608 in Cooperative Program and contributions for TBCH for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

October 31, 2022 and 2021

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes, Inc. (Adult Homes) is an institution of the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board. Its purpose is to provide a Christian residential ministry for senior and exceptional adults.

Adult Homes' principal revenue sources include support from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board and Tennessee Baptist churches and church members, as well adult group homes operating in Jacksboro/Knoxville, Lebanon, and Hermitage, Tennessee. During the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021, total revenue from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board Cooperative Program totaled $293,565 and $293,589, respectively. In addition, Adult Homes receives management fees from Deer Lake Retirement Village, rental income from elderly housing at Baptist Village of Johnson City, and fees under sponsorship agreements.

Adult Homes is exempt from federal and state income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, Adult Homes qualifies for charitable contribution deductions under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). However, income from certain activities not directly related to Adult Homes' tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Adult Homes has concluded that it does not have any unrecognized tax benefits resulting from current or prior period tax positions. Accordingly, no additional disclosures have been made on the financial statements regarding the Income Tax topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Adult Homes does not have any outstanding interest or penalties, and none have been recorded in the statements of activities for the years ended October 31, 2022 and 2021.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. The significant accounting policies followed by Adult Homes are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures at the date of the financial statements and during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Adult Homes considers all unrestricted highly-liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At October 31, 2022 and 2021, Adult Homes' cash balances exceeded federally insured limits by $130,282 and $943,133, respectively. Adult Homes does not believe these funds to be at substantial risk of loss due to the lack of federal insurance coverage.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVABLE

Contributions receivable consist of contributions from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, wherein churches send contributions to the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, who then remit contributions monthly to Adult Homes, as well as other receivables. Management has no concerns regarding the collectability of these receivables; therefore, no allowance has been recorded.

INVESTMENTS

Investments consist of interests in the Tennessee Baptist Foundation's common funds, which are carried at the fair market value of the underlying investments. Donated investments are recorded at market value at the date of donation and thereafter carried in conformity with the stated policy.

FUNDS HELD FOR OTHERS

Funds held for others consist of cash in checking accounts held for residents in Adult Homes' role as Representative Payee for residents who receive benefits from the Social Security Administration (SSA). These balances belong to the residents and are managed by Adult Homes. The SSA has various guidelines and restrictions on how funds may be spent, and they require regular reporting to the SSA. Should the resident no longer reside with Adult Homes, the funds would be returned to the resident.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Items capitalized as property and equipment are recorded at cost or, if donated, at fair market value on the date of the gift. Purchases and donations of equipment in excess of $1,000 are capitalized if the expected useful life exceeds one year. Donations are reported as support without donor restrictions unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, expirations of donor restrictions are reported when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets ranging from 3 to 28 years.

BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN TRUSTS HELD BY OTHERS

Beneficial interests in trusts held by others represent funds held and administered by trustees in accordance with the terms of various trust instruments and include both residual and perpetual trusts. Residual trusts are structured to pay a remainder corpus amount in the future. Perpetual trusts are structured to pay ongoing income. This income is either currently paying or will be paying in the future.

Notes to Financial Statements

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

CLASSES OF NET ASSETS
The financial statements report amounts by class of net assets:

Without donor restrictions amounts are currently available at the discretion of the board of directors for use in operations.

With donor restrictions amounts are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes or programs, with time restrictions, or are required by donors to be held in perpetuity with investment return used for certain home operations or other specific purposes.

REVENUE AND REVENUE RECOGNITION
Resident services revenue is reported at the estimated net realizable amounts from residents, third-party payors, and others for services rendered and includes estimated retroactive revenue adjustments due to future audits, reviews and investigations. Adult Homes has agreements with third-party payors that provide for payments to Adult Homes at amounts different from its established rates. Payment arrangements include reimbursed costs, discounted charges, and per diem payments. Resident services revenue is recognized in the reporting period in which the services are delivered. Net resident service fees consist of:

	Year Ended October 31,
	2022	2021
Resident service revenue	$ 1,065,929	$ 982,025
Less discounts provided to residents	(176,760)	(163,100)
Net resident service fees	$ 889,169	$ 818,925

Adult Homes recognizes support when contributions are made, which may be when cash is received, unconditional promises are made, or ownership of other assets is transferred to Adult Homes. Contributions include contributions from the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board. Conditional promises to give with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

Adult Homes reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as support without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash and other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how those long-lived assets must be maintained, Adult Homes reports expirations of donor restrictions when donated or acquired assets have been placed in service.

Gains and losses on investments are reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or law.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued:

ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES BY NATURE AND FUNCTION

Expenses are recorded when incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting.

The statements of activities and functional expenses report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. Salaries, benefits, and payroll taxes are allocated directly to the function where time and effort are expended. All other expenses are allocated based on the direct benefit being received by either the program or management function. Total expense includes all operating expenses as well as the nonoperating expense of other components of net periodic post-retirement cost.

OPERATING AND NONOPERATING ACTIVITIES

The statements of activities presents the changes in net assets of Adult Homes from both operating activities and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues and expenses relate primarily to program services provided by Adult Homes. Activity with donor restrictions is not considered to be operating.

Nonoperating activities consist primarily of (a) other components of net periodic post-retirement costs, (b) post-retirement related changes other than net periodic post-retirement costs, and (c) change in value of beneficial interests in trusts held by others.

RECENTLY ADOPTED ACCOUNTING STANDARD

In September 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2020-07, Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets. The standard requires nonprofits to expand their financial statement presentation and disclosure of contributed nonfinancial assets, including in-kind contributions. The standard includes disclosure of information on an entity's policies on contributed nonfinancial assets about monetization and utilization during the reporting period, information on donor-imposed restrictions, and valuation techniques. Adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the financial statements.

Adult Homes also has a pre-approved available line of credit for up to $200,000, which could be drawn upon in the event of an unanticipated liquidity need. 9. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND LINE OF CREDIT:

Adult Homes occupies office space in the Church Support Center owned by the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board in Franklin, Tennessee. 10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

PROGRAM SETTLEMENTS

Revenue from third-party payor programs (Social Security) accounts for a significant portion of net resident services revenue of Adult Homes. Laws and regulations governing these programs are extremely complex and subject to interpretation. Management believes Adult Homes is entitled to all amounts claimed on its cost reports and/or has provided adequate allowances for contractual adjustments and accounting estimates of current and future examination adjustments. The possibility of those recorded estimates changing due to final examination settlements is remote.

11. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure topic of the FASB ASC establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. Adult Homes uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, Adult Homes measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 3 inputs are only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs are not available.

The following table presents the fair value measurements of assets and liabilities recognized in the accompanying statement of financial position measured at fair value on a recurring basis and the level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements fall:

	Fair Value Measurements at October 31, 2022
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investments:
Interest in TBF common funds	$ -	$ 1,523,648	$ -	$ 1,523,648
Beneficial interests in trusts held by others	$ -	$ 69,509	$ 1,591,704	$ 1,661,213

	Fair Value Measurements at October 31, 2021
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investments:
Interest in TBF common funds	$ -	$ 1,784,504	$ -	$ 1,784,504
Beneficial interests in trusts held by others	$ -	$ 77,222	$ 1,864,349	$ 1,941,571

Valuation techniques used in estimating fair values are as follows:

Interest in TBF common funds –The value of investments in common funds is based on the value of the Adult Homes' per share interest in the pooled fund as reported by the Tennessee Baptist Foundation. Adult Homes is able to redeem its investment in the pool at the reporting date.

Beneficial interest in trusts held by others –The fair value of interest in trusts held by others is estimated based upon the proportionate share of the trust's assets as represented by the trustee.

Changes in valuation techniques– None.

12. ENDOWMENTS:

As required by the Endowment and Disclosure topic of the FASB ASC, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Adult Homes has two donor-restricted endowments established for the benefit of Rainbow Acres and the Father's Day Offering.

The board of directors of Adult Homes has interpreted the Tennessee Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (TUPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, Adult Homes includes as net assets with donor restrictions in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not included in perpetuity is included as net assets with donor restrictions, restricted by purpose or time, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by Adult Homes in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by TUPMIFA. In accordance with TUPMIFA, Adult Homes considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of Adult Homes and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of Adult Homes
7. The investment policies of Adult Homes

Funds with Deficiencies –From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or TUPMIFA requires Adult Homes to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are reported in net assets without donor restrictions. There were no such deficiencies as of October 31, 2022.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters –Adult Homes has adopted investment and spending policies for these particular endowment assets that attempt to provide a balance of yield and capital appreciation while distributing funds in a manner that meets the intent of the donor. These endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that Adult Homes must hold in perpetuity. Under this policy, the assets of this particular endowment are invested in a manner that is intended to preserve the balance of the endowment. Actual returns in any given year may vary.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives –To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, Adult Homes relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Adult Homes targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Related to Spending Policy –Adult Homes has no formal spending policy. Annual appropriations for expenditure are made at the discretion of the board of directors when determining the annual budget. In determining this amount, Adult Homes considers the long-term expected return on its endowment. Adult Homes' objective is to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

13. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

In November 2022, Adult Homes sold one of its properties in McNairy County. Proceeds from the sale were approximately $240,000.

Subsequent events have been evaluated through January 13, 2023, which represents the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

APPENDIX B: STATISTICAL REPORTS

NOTE: The information contained in the following associational and summary charts was compiled from data reported on the Annual Church Profile (ACP) by TBC churches through their local associations. Cooperative Program and designated gift amounts shown represent actual receipts received in the Accounting office of Tennessee Baptist Mission Board during the fiscal year of November 1 through October 31.

ACP materials are distributed to churches in July or August by the association of which the church is a member. At-large churches receive their materials directly from TBMB. Each church is asked to go online and input the requested information for any 12-month period of their choosing, providing it is consistent from year to year. Churches may choose to fill out a paper form and submit to their association. In order to provide reports to the Southern Baptist Convention, churches are requested to have all information submitted by January 31 of the year following the date of the ACP. Blanks across column lines indicate that no report was received from that church. Questions about a church's information should be directed to the church or the church's associational office.

APPENDIX C: DIRECTORIES OF CHURCHES AND STAFF

NOTE: The information contained in the following directories was compiled from data reported on the Annual Church Profile (ACP) received from TBC churches through their local associations. In instances where an address was incomplete, the church was removed from the list.

CHURCHES

Each Church, in its sovereignty and subject to no power or authority of the Convention, ordains and licenses ministers, and calls pastors and staff. Southern Baptist Convention and other Baptist organizations independent of the Convention select their own chaplains, missionaries, evangelists and staff. Consequently, the listings below are in no way to be considered a recommendation or affirmation. The persons are listed based on responses from churches and other organizations, solely for information with no approval implied or expressed. NOTE: The name following the zip code is the Pastor's name and the association to which the church served by that pastor is affiliated. The association does not necessarily correspond with the pastor's mailing address and is not to be interpreted as being an integral part of the address.
