SIX QUESTIONS FOR A PASTOR

STRONGER CHURCHES NETWORK
A TBMB MINISTRY

These questions are designed to create the opportunity for the Holy Spirit to guide self-examination and to provide prompts for coaching conversations.*

1. "When you step back from the weekly grind and look at your church as a whole, where do you sense the deepest disconnect between where you are and where you believe God wants your congregation to be?"

2. "In this current season, how are you personally experiencing God—what are you hearing, resisting, or perhaps avoiding as you pray and seek His direction for the church?"

3. "If you were to name the one or two 'root issues' beneath the visible problems (attendance, finances, conflict, programs), what would you say they are, and what makes you think those are the roots rather than the symptoms?"

4. "How has the church's history—its past wins, conflicts, and leadership patterns—shaped the church culture you're leading right now, and where do you sense God inviting you to confront or reclaim that culture?"

5. "Looking ahead twelve to eighteen months, what specific evidence would convince you that God has begun to renew this church, and what step of obedience do you sense He is asking you, personally, to take first?"

6. "Would you say that you are a man of prayer and evangelism? Describe focus and rhythms of your prayer life. Describe the faithfulness of your personal gospel witness."

To have a conversation with our Stronger Churches Network Team, reach out here:
bit.ly/strongerchurches.

Based on the principles and teachings of Spiritual Leadership Coaching, Blackaby Ministries, International.*

TBMB
Tennessee Baptist
MISSION BOARD